World Mission Day

Catholic Mission, as the Australian agency of the international Pontifical Mission Societies, work on behalf of Pope Francis to support Church-run mission programs around the world.

This year, we are invited to partner with the essential work of the Good Shepherd Sisters in Bangkok, Thailand, as they reach out to vulnerable mothers and their babies. These mothers find hope and a new start at the Mother and Babies Home at the Good Shepherd Centre.

By providing a loving home, a community of women from similar backgrounds, parenting skills training and pre and postnatal medical care, the Good Shepherd Sisters are supporting women and their babies in need.

Please give generously today to help continue this life-giving program by going online at catholicmission.org.au/thailand or by texting 'GIVE' to 0488 854 436. Your gift will also help many other similar Church-run mission programs around the world.

For We CANNOT KEEP FROM SPEAKING about what we have SEEN & HEARD ACTS 4:20

This week Catholic Mission will share the story of Churai*, who having experienced much heartbreak in childhood, turned to the Mother and Babies Home run by the Good Shepherd Sisters in Bangkok when her partner cast her experienced rejection as an adult, abandoned by her partner and pregnant.

Without this program, many vulnerable mothers like Churai will have nowhere to turn when they need love and care the most.

Please give generously today to help continue this life-giving program by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/thailand or by texting 'GIVE' to 0488 854 436. Your gift will also help many other similar Church-run mission programs around the world.

Why I became a Catechist!

Meet your Catechist—Susan Cornish

I decided that I would like to become a Catechist because I saw it as a way of assisting the Church. I used to be a reader but ceased after the service I read in at QOP was abolished.

I believe that Catechists have a very important role in the promulgation of the Christian faith. I used to help at my son's school in many ways and believe that I can now help in a form of Catholic outreach to children some of whom may have little experience of the Faith at home. I now have the time to do this during the week as my work hours are greatly reduced.

On a personal level, I miss having children around. As a tour guide for the Hornsby Shire Historical Society, I enjoy the visit of school groups. I love the energy and interest that young children have in their exploration of the world and their sense of logic and fun. I find that nowadays, society is very largely split by age so that in some streets, you see only older people and I think this is a terrible shame.
