A virgin will give birth to a son; His name will be Emmanuel: God is with us.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 1:18-24

God With Us

As Advent draws to a close, the Church turns her attention to the quiet yet profound obedience of St Joseph. In the Gospel, Joseph is faced with fear, uncertainty, and a future he did not expect. Yet, when God speaks, he listens—and acts with trust.

The angel's words reveal the heart of Christmas: "They shall name him Emmanuel," which means God-with-us.

God does not remain distant from human struggle but enters fully into it. Joseph's faithful "yes" allows God's saving plan to unfold, reminding us that holiness is often found not in grand gestures but in humble obedience and courageous trust.

As we prepare to welcome Christ at Christmas, this final Sunday of Advent invites us to open our hearts to God's presence in the unexpected. Like Joseph, we are called to trust God even when the path ahead is unclear, believing that Emmanuel is already walking beside us.

May this final week of Advent deepen our readiness to receive Christ, not only in the manger, but in the everyday moments of our lives.

Reflection Question:

Where is God inviting me to trust Him more deeply and say "yes," even when I do not fully understand His plan?

Singing in Latin

While the Mass is now primarily celebrated in the vernacular (local language), Latin remains the official liturgical language, and singing in Latin during Mass is still permitted and encouraged. Through the Vatican II document Sacrosanctum Concilium, the Church teaches: "The use of the Latin language is to be preserved in the Latin rites." (S.C. art. 36) It also states: "In Masses which are celebrated with the people, a suitable place may be allotted to their mother tongue... Nevertheless steps should be taken so that the faithful may also be able to say or to sing together in Latin those parts of the Ordinary of the Mass which pertain to them." (S.C. art. 54)

Singers and keyboard instrumentalists are always welcome to join the Cathedral Parish Music Ministry. Please contact the Cathedral Director of Music at: joshua.willard@bbcatholic.org.au
