Giving Tree

My dear Parishioners

The third weekend of Advent readings, invites us to "Gaudete in Domino semper," i.e. "Rejoice in the Lord always." So, to express our joy in the coming of Jesus as our Saviour into our hearts and lives, as we are preparing for our annual Christmas celebrations.

As we continue to walk our pilgrimage of faith, I assure each of you my prayerful support, and may I request you please say one for us your Priests.

The Parish gifting tree is on display again with tags on it. It's another opportunity for us all gathered to think in what best way we can be of help to the Parish, with our time, talent and treasure. We are invited to open our hearts in prayer at this time, and make a commitment in action, so that we might be able to grow as a community in faith. Our generosity is a great gift of our persons, to the incarnated Christ we carry daily through our efforts of being human.

As we spent time, on reflecting on our personal gifting do consider, the Parish in the same way, Your community of faith.

As we continue to express our joy at the nearness of Christ's birthday, joy will come to us if we set about actively trying to create it for others. If I go about my life demanding that others carry me rather than seeking to carry them; feeding off others rather than feeding them; demanding that others meet my needs rather than trying to meet theirs, joy will never find me no matter how hard I party or try to crank up good cheer.

I thank you on behalf of the clergy for your generosity. May this time help us grow together as one family of faith. With prayerful wishes and gratitude in our hearts.

Fr Peter D

Cathedral Nativity Scene 2019

The young adults community have been exploring 'Christus Vivit' an apostolic exhortation to young people by Pope Francis which focuses on young people, faith and vocational discernment.

"Christ is alive" and he wants you to be alive (CV1). These words are the very first words in Christus Vivit that Pope Francis addresses to the whole Church, not just young people.

Pope Francis states "Jesus, himself eternally young, wants to give us hearts that are ever young" (CV 13). Thus, instead of defining youth by a number Pope Francis states 'true youth means having a heart capable of loving, whereas everything that separates us from others makes the soul grow old' (CV13).

Subsequently Pope Francis urges us to be filled with the love of Christ and be witnesses of the Gospel by the way we live. Inspired by our discussions the theme for the cathedral Nativity scene this year is Christus Vivit – Christ is alive. We would like to collect stories from a range of individuals in our Church to show how Christ is alive each day in your lives. These stories will be collated to form a backdrop for the Nativity scene.

We invite interested parishioners to answer 3 questions and provide us with a photo of yourself. These responses need to be emailed to Claire.donnelly@dbb.catholic.edu.au by 16th December.

- ◆ How are you involved in the Church?
- ◆ How do you find your parish ministry rewarding?
- ◆ How is 'Christ Alive' in your life this Advent / Christmas season?

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe 12 Dec

The feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe presents an opportunity to pray for the intercession of our most honoured Mother for pregnancy intentions. As there is no specific Diocesan Mass for this intention in 2019, please consider having a special blessing at the end of Mass for both expectant Mothers and those hoping to conceive.

Prayer for Expectant Mothers

Our Lady of Guadalupe, we turn to you, the protectress of unborn children, and ask that you intercede for us, so that we may more firmly resolve to join you in protecting all human life.

Our Lady who cared so perfectly for your Son please bless all the expectant Mothers in Our community. Bless their sons or daughters that they may be delivered safely into this world and watch over them as they live out their vocations that have been planned from all eternity.

For those in our community who are hoping to conceive, encourage them with your Motherly love. Where there is illness, heal them and show God's great power for those who have faith. Lift up their marriages and if it is God's will bless them with a child.

O Virgin Mother of God, Our Lady of Guadalupe, present our petitions to your Son and ask Him to bless us with abundant life. Amen

MESSAGE FROM FR PETER

My dear Parishioners,

The third weekend of Advent readings, invites us to "Gaudete in Domino semper," i.e. "Rejoice in the Lord always." So, to express our joy in the coming of Jesus as our Saviour into our hearts and lives, as we are preparing for our annual Christmas celebrations.

On behalf of Bishop Anthony Randazzo, Frs Vincent, Simon and Myself, I wish to extend to each of you and your families, my personal gratitude:

To my Brother Clergy, Frs Vincent and Simon, and all the visiting Priests, for their Vocation, gifts, talents and generosity shared during the year.

To our Office Staff: Marlies, Bella, Angela and Lucia, along with Bob Partington, for their day to day engagements and managements of so many tasks that happen unnoticed, and are carried out so efficiently.

To our Parish Finance Committee, Missionary Council, and Liturgy Committee, the mind and heart of the Parish, your efforts and commitments are truly appreciated.

To our Vincentians, who meet the needs of our less fortunate brothers and sisters after the heart of St Vincent de Paul, may our combined efforts, in prayer and alms giving, be a gift, of a giving of one self.

To our mission appeal supports: for CWF, Catholic Mission, Yakhumndeni appeals, thank you for your ongoing support, may the joy of the lord accompany you and your families.

To our Principals and their Staff and Students of St Leo's and OLOR, may our continued and joint efforts of learning be recognised and blessed.

To our Catechists Co-ordinator, Louise Spencer, and all our Catechists in our State Schools who bring the joy of the Gospel to the young children of our Parish, and in helping them know that they are loved by God and that He has a message for them to live by.

To our Sacramental Co-ordinators, Marie Gately and Greg Wilson, thank you for the faith, joy and enthusiasm you bring to our families. On their continued journey of faith, there are a few challenges, but our willingness to accept and give, with a bigger picture does help us to experience the love of God in the most challenging times. Thank you for that generosity you bring in.

To our Children's Liturgy Helpers and their assistants, that spread their joy of faith in little ways, helping various groups every Sunday in School terms to experience the joy of being together and growing in faith together.

To our Groundskeepers and cleaners: for their care for cleanliness and professionalism, in making it happen — a clean home makes you feel welcomed.

To our Welcomers, for extending hospitality to all who arrive; Pope Francis reminds us "the Church is the house that welcomes all and refuses no one."

To those who extend Hospitality, through preparing and serving refreshments. St Paul reminds us "make hospitality your special care".

To those involved in our Community dinners, who extend their time and talents and treasure, in reaching out to our hungry souls, of mind body and spirit, in you what Isaiah says becomes real. Then the Glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all mankind shall see it together.
(Is 40:3-5)

To our Bus drivers and those who travel on them every weekend, you together travel with our Lord, who makes great things happen.

To our Prayer groups, Devotions, Meditations and RCIA members who reach out to meet the practical and spiritual needs of many in our local community.

To our bulletin photocopiers and office volunteers, for their help with printing the bulletin and supporting our office staff.

To our Youth/Young Adult Group, under the able leadership of Fiona Brown, and the young at heart that join together, to make a difference and live by that difference.

To our Senior and Junior servers, for setting up for the Liturgy where we welcome and receive the Lord in our midst, especially in Word and Sacrament, and for assisting the Priest who represents Christ and for assisting the assembly of the baptised, where Christ is also present.

To our Minister of the Word, and those who train them, for proclaiming the Word of God with conviction and passion to the assembled community. You bring to life the words of the psalmist: "Your Word is a light unto my path."

To our Musicians, Singers and AV operators, for bringing greater beauty, joy and focus to our Liturgy through the special gift of sacred music and song, helping us celebrate the liturgical seasons of the year and in Word and Sacrament.

To our Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, for assisting in distributing the sacrament of the Lord's Body and Blood, food for the journey on our pilgrimage through life. And for carrying forth Holy Communion to the Hospitals, Nursing homes and those housebound, connecting them with us who gather for the Liturgy.

To our Wardens and Money Counters, for helping us gather money and gifts given by God's people for the welfare of our Parish and Diocese, and for those who are poor and in need.

To our Flower Arrangers and Altar Society, for making our Church a beautiful and worthy place to meet the Lord, a house of prayer for all people.

To our Piety Stall and Library volunteers, for your time and effort in serving our Parish Community.

For our unknown but known brothers and sisters, those who carry out the Lord's task day in and day out, doing simple things with great love, you are the unsung heroes.

For all those who worship — You are special too, your presence reminds us of something beautiful 'Ministry of Presence' - The people of God.

Finally for all your Contributions in time, treasure and talents.....

"Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours. Yours are the eyes through which he looks compassion on this world. Yours are the feet with which he walks to do good. Yours are the hands through which he blesses all the world. Yours are the hands, yours are the feet, yours are the eyes, you are his body. Christ has no body now on earth but yours." — Teresa of Avila

On behalf of Bishop Anthony Randazzo, and my Brother Clergy, many thanks for all that you are and choose to be.

Fr Peter deSouza
