New Seminarians

The Diocese is pleased to welcome four new Seminarians in 2019, making it now a total of 9 Seminarians. The greatest number the Diocese of Broken Bay has had for a long time! Our prayers and good wishes go to our Seminarians who begin their formation and Academic year.

We pray especially to the four new Seminarians who recently joined our Diocese.

Our Seminarians completed a one-month pastoral placement in various parishes of the Diocese before Christmas. These placements are a great opportunity for the Seminarians and people of the Diocese to get to know each other.
