Gladys Collingridge Scholarship Concert

Gladys Collingridge Memorial Music Scholarship Concert Saturday 14th September. The concert held last Saturday night was very much enjoyed by the over 120 people who attended. The programme was varied with high standard performances from the professional artists - Sarah Clark (Soprano), William Moxey (Baritone), Graham Wood (Bagpipes), Dean Sinclair (Tenor & G & S performer) Sam McMahon (Guitarist). There were also most enjoyable performances from Veronica Hannagan-Street and Leona Sweeney (flute and clarinet as well as 2 -piano duettists) and two of last year's Scholarship winners - Roland Walker (Baritone) and Peter Gilfedder (Baritone).

We are very appreciative of all the artists but the guest artists especially who gave so generously of their talents and time - one travelling from Orange and another performing at very short notice. From the proceeds of ticket sales, programmes and some generous donations an amount of $3023 has been raised to this point.

All contributions go directly to the Scholarship funds as no expenses are claimed by the organisers.

We sincerely thank all those who so generously assisted with the preparations for the concert and those who helped on the night as well as our generous donors and concert-goers.
