Dear Parishioners,

I want to take this opportunity to touch base with you on a few things which mean a lot to me.

Firstly, the Covid regulations are now lighter than ever and therefore I invite you all to once again join us physically for Sunday Mass!

Secondly, with the return of parishioners comes the need to once again re-commence many ministries and for that we need your help as volunteers. Over the last couple of weeks I have been requesting the need of volunteers in many ministries and happily a few have responded (and to you I offer by heartfelt thanks). However, we are still in very great need of more volunteers and so I humbly request that you look forward with prayer and persistence (as in today's Gospel) and see a way to assist in at least one Parish Ministry.

Thirdly, today we hold our annual OSH appeal to help those less fortunate than us in the Missionary Works of the Oblates of the Sacred Heart in India. Since 2004, OSH Priests have been working in the Diocese of Broken Bay and they are currently in the Parishes of Lower North Shore, Frenchs Forest and of course Ku-ring-gai Chase. We thank you for your acceptance of us in your community and faith life and for your support of the missionary works of our congregation. Any contribution you can afford to make towards this appeal is received with a deep sense of gratitude. More details are inside the bulletin and on the video you will view in Masses this weekend.

Finally, the Rosary. The Rosary inspires us to meditate on the mysteries of the lives of Jesus and Mary. As a family of God, our parish will be praying the Rosary together at 7pm in St Patrick's Church, Asquith on Thursday 20 October through to and including Saturday 29 October 2022. I invite you all wholeheartedly to join me in praying the Rosary on any or all of these evenings. If you cannot join us in the church, please, join us spiritually at 7pm from your homes.

Below you will find the schedule for the 10 Days of the Rosary event. I hope you can join us. Fr Biju.

10 Days of the Rosary and procession at St Patrick's Asquith

We hope you will be able to join us for one or all of these evenings of prayer with Our Lady.

The effort will strengthen us and
Blessed Mary will intercede for us every day.

Annual OSH Collection - This Weekend 15/16 October 2022.

Envelopes are available in the pews of our churches this weekend.

Donations can be placed on either plate at any Mass .

This weekend a video will be shown at all Masses showcasing the great work and difference to peoples lives your support of this Annual Appeal brings about in the Northwestern State of Punjab, India.

Bishop Anthony allows parishes with OSH Priests to hold two collections per year for the missionary and mercy activities of the Society of the Oblates of the Sacred Heart (OSH) - the order to which our priests belong, however, this year they are holding just the one collection and once again look to you for the generous support you have shown in previous appeals and having viewed the video will realise just how important your donations are.

In 2019 your generous donations helped to purchase land to build a school upon. Since then, your generous donations are being put towards the continuing construction of the school itself in the State of Punjab, India.

*Any donation large or small is much appreciated, thank you,
Fr Biju & Fr Joy and all Oblates of the Sacred Heart.*

A Church Open to Everyone;

We pray for the Church; ever faithful to, and courageous in preaching the Gospel, may the Church be a community of solidarity, fraternity and welcome, always living in an atmosphere of synodality.

REFLECTION © Tony Doran

In today's First Reading, we have a dramatic example of an endurance test. After their freedom from bondage in Egypt, the Israelites are having a tough time dealing with the wilderness and fighting off attacks from nomadic tribesman. Moses sends Joshua off to engage the enemy and goes to the top of the hill to pray. As long as he keeps his arms raised, the Israelites do well; but when his arms fall, his army seems to follow suit. Even if his companions cheat a little by propping him up, Moses stays with his prayer until the enemy is defeated. The perseverance of Moses spells the first military victory for Israel.

In the Gospel the victory is less dramatic, but the widow's perseverance wins the day. According to the tradition of Israel, a judge was expected to be impartial except to three groups of people – the widow, the orphan and the stranger. Because these people lived in the absence of familiar love and support; they were vulnerable in a society where influence and money talked the loudest. A judge was expected to be partial to them and to champion their cause to ensure their rights. The religious law stated: 'If you ill-treat them in any way and they make any appeal to me for help, I shall certainly hear their appeal' (Exodus 20:22).

When we meet the judge and the widow in the parable we meet them at a crisis point, when both of them are maimed. We have no case history for the widow but we do for the judge. He is a man who is influenced neither by religious principle nor by public opinion. Both justice and compassion are absent from his dealings with the widow. She has no influential friends to bring pressure on the judge and she has no money to bribe him: all she has is the justice of her cause and her own persistence.

The justice of her cause, however, is clearly not enough. She has nerve and she exercises it relentlessly on the judge. He refuses her for a long time but she refuses for even longer to take him seriously! It becomes a war of nerves and eventually it is the judge's nerves which give in: he grants the widow justice for the sake of his own health. She puts him on the sick list and he can imagine himself being worried to death. In fact, the widow does the judge an enormous favour: she exhausts him into justice. Her persistence pays off in the end.

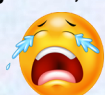

In telling this parable, Jesus is not comparing God to the unjust judge and Jesus is not suggesting that God only answers our prayers to avoid being bothered further. Rather, Jesus contrasts God with the judge arguing that if an unjust man can come to justice eventually, how much more will God answer his chosen ones even when he delays to help them. Strange expression that. Usually we would say "rush to help". But God has his own time and his delay in judgement can give people more time to repent.

Jesus encourages us to be persistent in our prayer and never lose heart. In an age where we have become accustomed to instant results, we are impatient with what appears to be endless delays. But the values we cherish are not instantly available: values like peace and justice take time to establish. The danger is that we give up too soon, when we do not get an immediate result. We have to be persistent. We have to invest our time in our beliefs. Like the widow in today's Gospel, we must still search for justice until the unjust of this world are worried to death.

Vox Populi - The Voice of the People -

12 October 2022

Since the founding of the Catholic Church, Australia has only been visited by three Popes: Pope Paul VI, Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict XVI. Pope Paul VI made a four-day visit to the country in December 1970 and Pope Benedict visited for eight days as part of World Youth Day in July 2008. But Pope John Paul II, now Saint John Paul II, holds the rare distinction of being the only Pope to have visited the country twice.

He came for a week-long visit in November 1986, visiting the major cities and then going to the heart of the country, with a stopover in Alice Springs. In 1995, he made a second visit, spending three days in Sydney for the beatification of Saint Mary MacKillop.

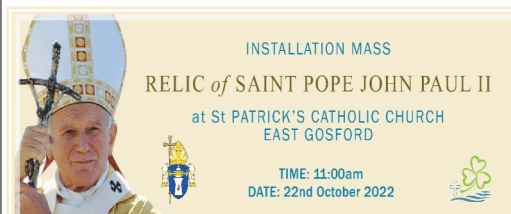

The iconic images of Saint John Paul II holding a koala and visiting Alice Springs have left an indelible on the faithful in Australia. In beatifying Mary MacKillop, he played an important role in promoting the cause of Australia's first saint.

Now a saint himself, Saint John Paul II is venerated by many Australians. He is one of just a handful of known saints to have been to Australia. ... Through the late 20th century he was fierce defender of the church's teaching against an increasing tide of secular influence, and helped to end Communist rule in both his native Poland and the rest of Europe. He was a witness to the power of forgiveness and compassion, and placed a special emphasis on the universal call to holiness.

This year, when we honour Saint John Paul II on his feast day, we will also have the opportunity to share in a unique connection with the famed Pope, with Gosford parish set to install a relic of the great saint and open a shrine dedicated him. The shrine and relic will offer inspiration to the people of the Diocese of Broken Bay, the Greater Sydney area, and all of Australia. It will offer a location of pilgrimage to many faithful and provide a form of devotion not common in the Australian context.

Most Reverend Anthony Randazzo DD JCL, Bishop of Broken Bay, will celebrate the installation Mass and has said those who visit the shrine on the Feast Day of Saint John Paul II, October 22, have the ability to receive a partial indulgence.

All parishioners and faithful from across our Diocese are invited to attend the opening of the shrine and installation of the relic, to share in the joy of this unique and special occasion.

Date: NEXT Saturday 22 October 2022 ~ Time: 11:00 am
Venue: St. Patrick's Catholic Church, 76 York Street, East Gosford

Those who attend the Mass are eligible to receive a partial indulgence, and the Shrine will be open during the day for prayer and veneration. A celebration with refreshments will follow. All are warmly welcome to join in this wonderful event.

Please register your attendance at JPIL.Centre@bbcatholic.org.au, including your full name and the number of people attending with you. Large groups (especially bus groups - e.g., from parishes and schools) are asked to make contact early to ensure arrangements can be made.
