An Easter message from Fr Shaju and Fr Joy

On this day 1,600 years ago St John Chrysostom could say on behalf of us all:
'Hell took a body, and discovered God. It took earth, and encountered Heaven.
It took what it saw, and was overcome by what it could not see.
O Death, where is your sting? O Hell, where is your victory?
Christ is Risen, and you, O Death, are destroyed!'

Christ is Risen, and evil is cast down! Christ is Risen, and angels rejoice!
Christ is Risen, and new life is set free! Christ is Risen, and the tomb is emptied of its dead; for Christ having risen from the dead, becomes the first-fruit of those who have fallen asleep.
To Him be Glory and Power forever and ever. Amen!

Dear friends, what an opportunity Easter gives to us.

Renewed by our Lenten journey and having walked the path of Jesus through the Triduum, we have been granted the unique opportunity, an Easter gift if you like, to start afresh, renewed and to rise up to a higher self in the image of Our Risen Saviour. Our Easter prayer to all, parishioners and visitors alike, is a most holy and joyful Easter. As you celebrate together with family and friends, we pray that you experience the Holy Spirit in your words of kindness, the Son in your actions of compassion and the Father guiding your thoughts always.

Wishing you a grace-filled Easter and the Risen Lord's blessing be upon each of you, Fr Shaju & Fr Joy.

A Mystery Beyond Words

Mary Magdalene finds the empty tomb and runs to the apostles to tell them her astonishing news.

St John's is the only account where the apostles are directly involved in finding that the tomb was empty, and where neither Jesus nor angels were there to give any guidance about the meaning of it.

The Beloved Disciple was present with Peter to see the discarded burial-cloths within the tomb, and he at once realised what this meant: that Jesus was risen from the dead!

Like many others, I felt deep emotion on seeing the Grand Canyon in Arizona; my whole being was thrilled by the awesomeness of it all. I had a camera, and I used it to the best of my ability, trying to capture the vision, the emotions, the experience, and the wonder of it. Later I realised the futility of such photos when I came home and tried to explain to friends what my experience had been. The fact was that it would be necessary for the others to see for themselves what I saw, before there was any hope of real understanding or appreciation taking place. For those who don't understand, no words are possible, and for those who do understand, no words are necessary. That's the sense we have when reading the resurrection story. It tells of a deeply mysterious fact, but we can't quite capture what its impact was within the hearts of his followers, that first Easter day.

Let's remember that this gospel, this truly great news, is timeless and so is still for here and now.

In a real sense, I am reflected by every person in that story, and should try to put myself within the story as told by Saint John today. Am I like Magdalene who told the others the news of resurrection? Or like the apostles who responded immediately by running to the tomb to see for

Vox Episcopi -

The Voice of the Bishop - 13 April 2022

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Last night at our Cathedral in Waitara we celebrated a beautiful and joyous Mass – the Chrism Mass.

It was wonderful to see our clergy gather with so many from our parishes throughout the Diocese.

The Cathedral was full for one of the most important liturgies in our Church calendar. All the priests renewed their ordination promises while the entire gathering was committed to praying for the priests and me, the bishop.

The Chrism Mass liturgy is also the time blessing and consecrating of oils used in the pastoral and sacramental life of the Church.

The Oil of Catechumens, used with the Sacrament of Baptism; the Oil of the Infirm, used in the anointing of the sick; and the Oil of Chrism, fragrantly perfumed and used in the Sacrament of Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Orders and also in the dedication ceremony of a church when the Bishop anoints the new altar and the church building. At the end of the Mass our priests took bottles of these oils back to their parishes for use in the coming year.

While the Chrism Mass is a solemn occasion, we also experience the joy of the Gospel, the fruit of the love of God, made visible in Jesus Christ. It is that same joy which brings to birth a peace that is everlasting. Love, joy, and peace are the promise of eternal life in Christ.

Through our baptismal priesthood, we all share in the mission of Christ, and while our anointing of ministerial priests sets them apart it never separates us from the People of God. This is why the ordinary place of every ordained priest is in the midst of people, in relationship to others.

My sisters and brothers, please pray for our priests, especially this Holy Week, to be good and faithful shepherds after the heart of Christ. That being more like Christ they will remain close to you.

This week we leave Lent and enter the Easter Triduum or “period of three days” – during which we celebrate the Paschal Mystery - the life, passion, death and resurrection of Jesus.

The Easter Triduum begins with the evening Mass of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday; Good Friday, a day of fasting when we reflect deeply upon the Passion of Christ and make the Stations of the Cross; Holy Saturday when catechumens are initiated into the body of Christ; and then Easter Sunday, the proclamation from the empty tomb, that Christ is Risen!

It is this time, the passion and resurrection of Christ, which is the culmination of the entire liturgical year.

We will hear and repeat the words from Psalm 118:24 – “This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad,” as we proclaim a new way of life with Jesus Christ, our saviour, who is risen from the dead.

It is the time to make real the peace of Christ - despite those who threaten with force, injustice, abuse and prejudice.

The peace of Christ is the goal of our activities, be they individual or collective.

May the peace of the Risen Christ reign in our hearts, in our community, and in our world.

With my prayers and blessing + Anthony

A gentle but very important reminder

I respectfully request that you consider how distracting a ringing phone during Mass is to the concentration and prayers being offered by your priests and your fellow parishioners.

Please,

turn off or mute your mobile phone when entering the church at any time and most especially when attending Mass.
