HOMILY © Richard Leonard SJ

In the mid 1980s in churches in Paris I saw for the first time reconciliation rooms that had ceiling to floor glass. The priest sat at a candle-lit table and the penitent knelt behind the priest or sat with him at the table. Restoring the public dimension to the Sacrament increased its power and witness.

Last year in our community we renovated our chapel. One of several things we did was put glass doors on the tabernacle, install a diffused light inside and reserve the chalice.

The overall effect was startling. For the first time in my life I could see at all times the elements toward which I direct my devotion.

The reaction of others was interesting too. One person protested that 'you can see the Blessed Sacrament and the chalice looks ready to drink', another felt that 'the wafers we reserved should not be broken, but be one complete host' and still a third objected that it 'looks like real food'.

These were curious reactions given what we celebrate today, the feast of Corpus Christi. The devotion we as Catholics have to Christ's presence in the Eucharist is precisely caught up in the meal he left us. Therefore it is right that the food we share and venerate should be on display, should look inviting and be broken, for this is what Jesus did at his final supper and what he offers us as gifts – himself, broken and poured out in love.

Each time I pray in front of our new tabernacle I have been struck by the power of these elements as the definitive symbol of Jesus' presence in our world. Not only in grand cathedrals or libraries of words does God visit us. Not only in prophets' speeches or laws set in stone. But in simple gifts of broken bread and poured wine. And at these times I recall that the action of being broken and poured out is the core of what we believe: our God poured himself out in love for us in Christ; Jesus was broken unto death for us so that we might be made whole; the Spirit gives us strength and courage to face the daily breakings and pourings that make up our lives and every time anyone, anywhere shares bread or passes a cup with those in need, our God is really present.

Praying there also reminds me that following the Trinity's example, this pattern is repeated in all faithful Christian lives too. The martyrs, the saints and all of those we know who have gone before us, having led lives of selfless devotion, continue to embody the Body and Blood of Christ we venerate.

And so to us. When we come forward, when we say 'Amen' and receive into our hands the Bread of Life and the Cup of Salvation we too take on to ourselves the invitation to become what we receive: a body broken in love, blood poured out in hope that the world may be saved from itself and find life to the full in Christ.

Friday 24/06 ~ Solemnity ~ Most Sacred Heart of Jesus

The Sacred Heart, also known as the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus is one of the most widely practised and well-known Catholic devotions, wherein the heart of Jesus is viewed as a symbol of "God's boundless and passionate love for mankind".

Love has always been associated with the heart, so it was only natural that the love of God became represented by a heart, the heart of his Son Jesus.

In him, God the Father revealed his infinite love for us.

On the Friday after the Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

Please to join us for Mass this Friday June 24th at 9am at St Bernard's Berowra Hts.

Some Great Benefits of SRE in Schooling:

We begin with the understanding that we were created by a loving God who calls us to fullness of life. Catholic SRE classes provide a breath of fresh air, where students are encouraged to see themselves as God sees them - inherently good, full of potential and capable of doing good in our world.

Every three years since 1994, the Church has celebrated the World Meeting of Families in a different city of the world. In 2022 the event will be hosted by the Diocese of Rome with Pope Francis leading special celebrations. However, the Holy Father has also asked that the World Meeting of Families be celebrated concurrently in every diocese of the world in 2022.

The idea is for families to gather locally around their bishop to explore and celebrate the theme of "Family love: A vocation and a path to holiness."

All families are invited to celebrate Mass for the 10th World Meeting of Families with Bishop Anthony Randazzo on Sunday 26 June 2022 at Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral Waitara at 2pm.

This will be followed by food, formation, and fun games for kids in the Light of Christ Centre. Simon Carrington from Fire Up Ministries will be talking about 'The Joy of Married Love' while the kids are entertained outdoors with a Giant Bubble Artist and exciting activities. There's something for everyone!

To register go to: <https://form.jotform.com/221578860682062> Please RSVP by Monday 20 June.

After Communion, we become like Mary ~ Upon receiving Communion, the Lord rests inside us.

This is the time to pour our hearts out to the Lord, to give Him our fullest attention. It is a time to love Him, to thank Him, to share our deepest needs and concerns with Him. We become like Mary, as she carried Jesus in her womb, we carry Jesus in our hearts.

We become living tabernacles, it is not the time to be distracted, to think of what people are wearing, to chat or to leave, it is the time to rest with the Lord.

Community News: Working with Children Week is 20 – 26 June NSW celebrates Working with Children Week in recognition of the thousands of people who contribute to the lives of the state's children in education sports, arts and community organisations. More than 1.8 million people hold a NSW Working with Children Check clearance in NSW for volunteer or paid work. 2022 theme – Child-focused leadership - Organisational culture drives how things are done. Leaders in our parish do their bit to make sure policies and procedures provide the best protection for children by: Acting as a role model in prioritising child safety; Verifying online the WWCC number of volunteers and paid workers; Removing any barred or unauthorised person from child-related work; Setting clear rules and procedures so workers and volunteers know what is expected of them

Learning Hub: Child-related workers need to know how to identify and prevent abuse. The 2-part induction video series can be used when onboarding volunteer or paid staff.
