Gospel Reflection

Having returned to the liturgical period of Ordinary Time and with it the sequential readings from the Gospel of Mark (for a few weeks at least), we can appreciate some of the literary structure and devices that were used by the gospel writer.

Throughout this particular gospel, the writer has used a framing device – sometimes known as the Markan sandwich – to bracket sections of the gospel. By using these framing stories, the gospel writer draws greater attention to the substance of the 'sandwich' – what has been framed. This week's reading is the beginning of such a framed section that highlights some of the great miracles performed by Jesus but also draws attention to the disciples' lack of understanding about who Jesus really is.

The section that runs from 4:35 to 8:21 is framed by two rhetorical questions: 'Who can this be?' asked by the disciples; and 'Do you still not understand?' asked by Jesus (8:21).

This week's passage includes one of the great nature miracles of Jesus – the calming of the storm. Some scripture scholars suggest that this story is a construction by the gospel writer to speak directly to the community for whom this gospel was written. The community of the gospel of Mark were consumed with doubt and surrounded by evidence of the world as they knew it falling apart. They were living the metaphor captured in the story: a boat adrift on the sea in the midst of an almighty storm. The cry of the disciples was the cry of the Christian community: 'Master, do you not care?' They felt that God did not care about the turmoil that surrounded them. The gospel writer reassures them that God does care about their struggle but at the same time chastens them for their lack of faith!

Scriptural context – Miracle stories

The miracle stories of the three synoptic gospels (Mark, Matthew and Luke) generally fall into four categories of miracle: healing miracles (healing of physical ailments and disease); exorcism miracles (driving out evil spirits – often associated with a form of healing); resuscitation miracles (bringing people back to life); and nature miracles (Jesus appears to contradict the laws of nature – walking on water, multiplying food and calming a storm). Each type of miracle story tends to have its own literary structure and being able to recognise the type of miracle being described assists the interpretation of the gospel account.

Living the Gospel – Do you not care?

The experience of the disciples as their boat was tossed about the sea by the powerful storm may sound like a familiar situation. At times in life we may feel that we have lost control of our situation and we are being blown from one 'disaster' to the next.

At such times, we may find ourselves asking the question that the disciples asked of Jesus, 'Master, do you not care?'
Jesus' reply to the disciples suggests that had they been calm and trusted in the slow work of God then they would have made it through the storm unharmed.

Next weekend is the KCCP 2021
Vinnies Winter Appeal.

Please give whatever you can to this appeal.

Next week-end the St. Vincent de Paul Society in Asquith and Berowra Parish will be having their winter appeal. The Society has had a presence in the Kur-ing-gai Chase Parish since 1957 and the need to help those less fortunate than us is still as relevant now as it was in the past years.

Our fellow Parishioners have always been generous in the support of the Society and we are grateful for that and look forward to your continued generosity.

The Winter Appeal supports the work conducted by our dedicated volunteers and members which is vital in assisting those people who turn to us for help in times of desperate need, especially during these colder months.

There are envelopes at the back of the Church to use for your donation. Please take one and return it with your donation next week. Please come prepared next week to support this appeal.

Discover, Enrich and Make a Difference: Be part of a special opportunity. "Alive in the Spirit", an innovative online conference, from 8 to 10 July 2021, which will enliven and inspire our community through a variety of keynotes, workshops and enriching prayer and worship experiences.

We will be gathering together to view live sessions, and then small groups will select their own choices among the many workshops.

Each small group will also debrief and share their insights together, bringing their wisdom back to the larger group. This is an amazing opportunity to discover more about God, and ways to enrich our faith and make a difference in our world.

Once we have an idea of who will be attending, we will decide on an appropriate venue, with internet and large screen/ monitor/ TV access.

REFLECTION - JUNE 2021 - Joseph as "Protector" Mt 2:13-18 Refugee Week, 20-26th June 2021 © Fr Khalid Marogi

"Within days, or even hours, violent oppressors will occupy your town centre." For refugees around the world, this scenario typifies an immediate threat. With no time to respond, they abandon livelihood, community and homeland to escape civil war, political unrest, religious persecution, effects of climate change and exploitation or systematic abuse of basic human rights. Their desperate attempts to find refuge are often not final solutions but new beginnings. A long journey into the unknown is marked by fear, danger and daunting obstacles.

Mid-2020 data from the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees estimated that worldwide numbers of forcibly displaced people surpassed 80 million. According to their statistics, 26.3 million were refugees, an additional 4.2 million were recorded as asylum-seekers and tens of millions of others classified as internally displaced or stateless.

From Matthew's Gospel narrative of Jesus' birth and the roles of Joseph and Mary, we learn of the many challenges faced by this young family. Joseph followed the example of his ancient Biblical Fathers of Faith — Abraham, Isaac and Jacob — under the guidance of the angel's visionary message: "Now after they had left, an angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream and said, 'get up, take the child and his mother, and flee to Egypt, and remain there until I tell you'" (Mt 2: 13).

Joseph's protective response to Herod's imminent threat to the life of his newborn son Jesus, mirrored that of many parents among today's displaced people. At short notice, Joseph got up to protect his young family from danger, "For Herod is about to search for the child, to destroy him," and in the dark of the night, "took the child and his mother" (Mt 2: 14). He embarked on an escape into the unknown; a journey involving fear, danger and an uncertain future. At the same time, it was a venture filled with deep hope and trust in God's providence that it would lead to safety and a better place for Jesus, Mary and Joseph.

For the family, settling in a new place was just the beginning. Soon he would discover that being separated from home and immediate family meant that the fundamental means of social support was no longer available. Joseph and Mary would also have had a sense of being lowly strangers stranded in a new place under an unknown local language and unfamiliar cultures and customs. As a family still dealing with the trauma of flight and estrangement, those challenges would have impacted heavily on Joseph, Mary and Jesus. Similar conditions and circumstances continue to confront the 80 million refugees and displaced people today.

Joseph demonstrated his commitment to safeguard his family and face the new reality foretold in his dream as he followed God's call to go to Egypt, "and remained there until the death of Herod" (Mt 2:15). Like so many displaced parents who care for their families in our contemporary world, Joseph protected and supported Mary and Jesus. Joseph's example is an inspiration for us to generously embrace the encounter with our displaced brothers and sisters who are likewise seeking refuge and security for their families. The Gospel account encourages us to compassionately listen to their stories of suffering, isolation and hopelessness.

Pope Francis, in this year's message for World Day of Migrant and Refugees Towards an Ever Wider "We"¹ said "The truth however is that we are all in the same boat and called to work together so that there will be no more walls that separate us, no longer others, but only a single 'we', encompassing all of humanity." He emphasises the importance of welcoming refugees and migrants and offering them protection. A generous, hospitable spirit reflects the universality of our Church and contributes to her enrichment and growth. "In encountering the diversity of foreigners, migrants and refugees, and in the intercultural dialogue that can emerge from this encounter, we have an opportunity to grow as Church and to enrich one another."

On a personal level, I have been privileged to meet and listen to the stories of many brave and courageous parents, children and young people who have ventured with hope. They, like Joseph and many of our own forebears, took a dangerous journey, and faced enormous pressure and trauma. Many challenges and struggles were endured in order to provide a safe and secure future for their children. Listening to the recently arrived and longer-term migrants and refugees can help us to appreciate Joseph and Mary's own experience and — in the spirit of Refugee Week and September's 107th World Day of Migrants and Refugees — increase our understanding of Pope Francis' call to respond to the needs of our new neighbours so that together "we" can continue to create an ever greater "us".
