HOMILY © Richard Leonard SJ ~ Until I spent time on a vineyard ten years ago, I always heard the parable of the vinedresser as a tough, 'shape up or ship out' message. I always imagined God as the vinedresser having a field day lopping and cutting my dead branches, trimming my unproductive stems and uprooting all the rot that undermines my fruitfulness. It always felt like a violent activity.

It was a pleasant surprise then, to actually see a vinedresser in action. Far from an act of violence, the care paid by the dresser to each stem is extraordinary. He or she carefully inspects the branch, delicately cutting only the smallest amount so that the vine will be healthier and more productive. A good vinedresser pores over the vines and from experience knows that to cut too much or too little will render the vine without its distinctive character. Every cut is measured and aimed to prune back only the diseased branch, so as to bring about greater growth for the whole vine and a bigger yield for the vineyard. The vinedresser is not violent with the vine, but extremely tender. The first hearers of today's Gospel would have known that this metaphor is anything but a 'shape up or ship out' message. This parable is a profound insight into the Christian life. We can claim to belong to the Christian family all we like. We can come to Mass every Sunday. But if the fruit we produce is bitter and poisonous, if we are unforgiving, unjust and uncaring, we cannot claim to be on the vine of Christ's love. And if that's the case we are in desperate need of the gentle hand of the vinedresser, who only wants to see us bring forth the yield we are capable of achieving.

Rev Billy Graham once said, 'Being a member of the Church no more makes you a Christian than living in a garage makes you a car.' That's the point of today's Gospel: God will not judge us by what we say or the public face of goodness we can turn on, we will be judged by our acts of love in and through our kindness and compassion. This metaphor also reminds us that we are connected to each other. There are moments in our life of faith when we hear or see other Christians saying or doing things we cannot countenance. We can try to disown them by retreating into our denomination, but we are all connected in Christ's vineyard. We need the courage to tell them the truth as we see it, and charitably point out the problems we have with what they think is right. And we need the humility to listen when they challenge us.

It's even harder when the diseased part of the vine is in our own Catholic section of the vineyard. Our first instinct can be to lop off the branch, just to get rid of it. But as any vinedresser knows this is the last resort. Whether we find it easy or not, Christ calls us to limited surgical interventions over amputations every time. This is tough love. Even though there are people within our community who have committed terrible crimes and betrayed our trust, the Gospel calls us to hold on to them until it's clear that no matter what intervention we make, they are dying on Christ's vine already. And even then, we hope and pray that our action towards them might see a new growth within them which could be the beginning of a possible grafting back on to us in the future.

In the face of the world's 'shape up or ship out' principle, today's Gospel challenges us to hang in there with each other, in season and out of season, because as the old folk hymn sings,

'They'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love. Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.'

A letter to the People of God in the Diocese of Broken Bay - 27th April 2021

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This Saturday, 1 May, we commemorate the second feast of St Joseph in our liturgical calendar. It is the feast of St Joseph the Worker. On 19 March, the Solemnity of St Joseph, Spouse of Mary, I installed and blessed a statue of St Joseph in Our Lady of the Rosary Cathedral, and on Saturday I will be opening and blessing a newly established house of discernment for young men, named "Joseph House".

I announced this initiative on 8 December 2020, the 150th anniversary of the proclamation of St Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church and am pleased to be able to see the project come to fruition on the feast of St Joseph the Worker. It is a project that I have dedicated to the intercession of the earthly father of Jesus in this year of Saint Joseph.

The House will be a place for young men to uncover the call to holiness that comes through baptism, whilst spending some serious time in discernment and contemplation, while being active in the world. The aim is that they can meet the challenge of living as Christian men in a fruitful environment, under the guidance of St Joseph as a great role model of virtue and character.

On Saturday 17 April, I convened a meeting of the Plenary Council delegates and animators from across the Diocese for the first time since the pandemic began. The aim was to re-animate the Plenary Council initiative, to provide formation on this theme and to commission the four delegates for the Diocese of Broken Bay – Alison Newell, Raj Rajasingam, Danny Casey, and Fr David Ranson.

Until our gatherings were interrupted by COVID-19, the Diocese of Broken Bay was recognised as one of the highest responders to the Plenary Council invitation to "Listen to what the Spirit is saying" to the Church in Australia. The Council is an opportunity for a holy listening, a truthful speaking, and a dialogue of love. I look forward to continuing the journey of the Plenary Council with the many enthusiastic people who are generously engaged in this task. My presentation on the Plenary Council day has been produced as a video resource for use throughout the Diocese and can be accessed here! (https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xokINr\_VME https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xokINr\_VME)

I hope that you might find it of use also for our ongoing mission of evangelisation in Broken Bay. As we journey in the Easter Season, we also continue to celebrate the Sacraments of Initiation. More specifically, we are entering into the celebration of the Sacrament of Confirmation. I am grateful, after the restrictions of COVID last year, to be travelling to parishes and conferring the Sacrament of Confirmation for the first time in the Diocese. I know that many of our young people have been waiting patiently in anticipation of this moment of grace. I hope that it will be a time of bringing to life the power of the Holy Spirit in them and in our community of the Church. Thank you to all families and carers, catechists and teachers, priests and deacons who have been accompanying the young candidates.

May God bless you all abundantly. Easter joy to you and your loved ones, + Anthony

May is the Month of Mary

Extract of Article: Thirty-one ways to love Our Lady more throughout the Month of May and reprinted with the kind permission of The Catholic Weekly ~

On the Feast of the Presentation of Our Lady in the year 1862, Father Frederick Faber a fellow Oratorian and contemporary of Saint John Henry Newman, wrote the following words in the preface to the first English edition of Saint Louis De Montfort's Marian classic True Devotion to the Blessed Virgin:

Jesus is obscured, because Mary is kept in the background. Thousands of souls perish, because Mary is withheld from them... Yet, if we are to believe the revelations of the saints, God is pressing for a greater, wider, a stronger, quite another devotion to His Blessed Mother.

Each year the Church presents us with the great gift of setting aside the month of May in which to fine-tune, or maybe even kick-start, our relationship with and devotion to the Mother of God and our Mother.

It is a month in which we can seek to understand more deeply, the pivotal role that the Blessed Mother played and continues to have in the unravelling of Salvation History. It is a month, too, in which we can intentionally focus on loving Our Lady as our true Mother just as Jesus intends us too. While he hung upon the Cross, He spoke those oh so precious words which continue to reach out across the millennia to our own time and, in a very personal way, to our own hearts... "Behold your Mother". (Jn. 19:27)

Our Lady
Help of Christians
St Mary's Cathedral
Sydney

In the following points, I would like to highlight thirty-one ways, one for each day of May, by which we might come to know and love our Mother in a deeper manner. When we give ourselves to her and allow her to teach and guide us, we can more effectively be her hands and feet in bringing others to Jesus. We will be better able to make Jesus known to the world at large because that is what Our Lady does.

As she did at the marriage at Cana, she points Jesus out to those who will listen to her and repeats as she will to the last day, "Do whatever He tells you!" (Jn.2:5)

No. 24 ... Know the history of Mary Help of Christians Patroness of Australia

Mary Help of Christians is the Patroness of Australia and we should do all we can to invoke her assistance and promote her patronage under this title as a people especially entrusted to her maternal protection. Australia was the first nation to choose Mary Help of Christians as its principal patroness with St Mary's Cathedral also dedicated to her honour by the Irish pioneer priest Fr John Therry who had arrived in Sydney in May 1820.

The High Altar at St. Marys Cathedral, erected as a memorial to Fr. Therry, stands proudly with a statue of Mary Help of Christians crowning its highest point. A larger statue bearing the same title, stands in the Chapel of the Sacred Heart and is more accessible to the public who travel to the Cathedral daily in order to venerate their Queen and to seek her powerful intercession. The Church has traditionally focussed on two aspects of Our Lady's help under this title. Firstly, the role of Our Lady's intercession in the fight against sin in the life of the believer. Secondly, the assistance Our Lady grants the Christian Church in her fight against the forces of evil who are especially bent on abolishing Christian practice and its influence throughout the world.

Weekday Masses are back at St Patrick's from this Monday the 3rd of May because.....

The Restoration Work at St Patrick's Church Asquith is now complete ~ the improvement is plain to see.

Byron Morgan (the Welsh wonder) of Reuben Decorators, together with Neil and Dirk, have combined their many skills and talents to bring our church back to its past glory.

The wood of the church has now been brought back to the very best standard achievable considering the extensive damage caused through years of weather damage and years of overdue maintenance.

The many hours of labour intensive work, from 6.30am through to late afternoon, have included the following:

- preparation and painting of the external parapets * sanding
- preparation and painting of the internal walls and ceilings of the toilets * sanding
- preparation and painting of the external area of the toilets (staining wasn't viable) * sanding
- staining of all doors and windows with at least 5 coats of marine grade varnish * sanding
- removing and replacing of latches and lots of fiddly bits to get to the wood * sanding
- replacing all weather strips on external doors * sanding
- staining of numerous internal doors * sanding
- total restoration of 4 very badly damaged pews (they look and feel amazing) and * sanding!!!!!!

I take this opportunity, on behalf of the entire parish, to acknowledge the attention to detail and professionalism of Byron and his team and to thank them for all those little extra bits they also did throughout the restoration without charge.

Thanks again for yet another very well done job !

Of course, none of the above could be achieved without the financial assistance of the good parishioners of Ku-ring-gai Chase Parish. This new Church at St Patrick's was opened in 1971 making this year its Golden Anniversary Year. I extend my thanks to those of you who have made donations already to achieve this much needed restoration. We still have a very long way to go to balance the books but your efforts so far just had to be publicly recognised. The invoice for these works came to around $46,950 (including the damaged pews) of which you have contributed $14,304.15! ... an incredible achievement. Please know your generosity will be of benefit to present and future parishioners for many years to come. Thank you so very much. Fr Shaju

If you are interested in contributing towards this vital restoration it would be appreciated. You can do so via the website, via the box at back of church or by calling the office. Thanks for contributing whatever you can afford.
