HOSPITAL ADMISSION:

If you are admitted to hospital, please write down your religion as Catholic to receive Catholic Services.

Be sure to notify the Pastoral Centre if hospitalised and you would like our own priests to attend.

Going two by two

When Jesus sent out his volunteers to continue his work, he gave them definite directions. Afterwards they returned in a spirit of celebration, to report their missionary success.

At election times we get lots of literature in the post, or through social media, or people call to the door, to canvass our vote. The canvassers, who usually travel in twos, will be well briefed, and they have their arguments polished and ready.

Since they are representing the election candidate, and, therefore, they stay "on message", echoing the political manifesto of the candidate's party. On a regular basis, they return to headquarters to report on progress. Today's gospel is about a deeper target than vote-seeking votes, but there are similarities. He sent them out in pairs. Although Jesus called each one individually, he never sent missionaries out alone. There are just two episodes when an apostle went out alone: one was to betray him, the other ended up denying him. The support of others is essential to living the gospel. Even a hermit has to be commissioned by a community, and must stay in touch with that group.

Jesus sent them out like lambs among wolves. That wasn't very encouraging, but they had a choice. They could preach a message that made people comfortable in their complacency; or they could preach the message of Jesus, that called for fundamental change. But he promised them the gift of healing, and they returned full of enthusiasm for the welcome they got at people's doorsteps. They had obeyed Jesus, and it worked. They experienced for themselves his healing power. And further still, Jesus assured them that their names were registered in the heart of almighty God.

Our discipleship can be summed up in two phrases: "Come and see" and "Go and tell". If we have personally felt the value of having Jesus in our lives, we will want to tell others about him. There is a difference between witnessing and preaching. We are all called to witness, but not all are called to preach. Many good Christians would melt rather than preach in public. But we can all bear witness to Christ, through the quality of our living. Let's ask ourselves the challenging question attributed to G. K. Chesterton: "If you were accused of being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?"

Imagine there were only a hundred people alive on this earth, after a nuclear disaster. On today's statistics, about seventy of them would be poor, while thirty would be comparatively well off. Ninety-three of them would have to grumble that seven of them owned half the money, ate one third of the food, and had more doctors looking after them as the other ninety-three. The real problem is when the seven have the nerve to attempt to evangelise the ninety-three! How can they tell about the wonderful Saviour they have, who talks about sharing, feeding the hungry, while the seven throw out more food than would feed all of the ninety-three! A certain simplicity of lifestyle would be needed, if the good news is to be really credible from those who try to share it.

The Harvest is Plentiful, but the labourers are few

Get up! Stand up! Show up! Today is Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday

Every year, on the first Sunday in July, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First Peoples in the Catholic Church. This year is particularly important because of the need to reconnect due to the COVID 19 Pandemic and its impact on the ways in which we interacted and made contact with one another. For 2022 NATSICC is asking for everyone to come together, but also consider practical ways in which they can support Australia's First Peoples - not just for this special day, but every day.

Letter to Clergy and the People of Broken Bay from Most Rev Anthony Randazzo, Bishop of Broken Bay

Monday 20 June 2022

Dear Fathers, Deacons, my sisters and brothers of the Diocese of Broken Bay,

Through my term as Bishop, I have been provided with insight into the character and potential of our local Church. We have developed a range of initiatives and projects over this time. At the heart of the Diocese, however, is our Cathedral, the most important symbol of our identity. It is here that our whole local Church is brought together under the unity of the Bishop, together with my clergy, and the entire people of God entrusted to my care. It is the first church amongst others, the one from which the life of the Diocese radiates and returns.

The Church of Our Lady of the Rosary in the Parish of Hornsby was created the Cathedral of our Diocese on 10 February 2008. As you appreciate, our current Cathedral was translated from the Parish of St Ives which had been designated as the Cathedral Parish by my predecessor, Bishop Patrick Murphy upon the establishment of the Diocese in 1986.

After multiple conversations and suggestions from both the laity and the clergy, I have thought that now is the time to envisage how we might best develop our identity as the Cathedral Parish in the years to come. This will take time: it will involve consideration of our Cathedral parish community and its pastoral life, our Cathedral church and its suitability, the precinct and its potential. Yet, through our journey together I am confident that we might develop an opportunity both for the Cathedral parish community itself and also for our entire Diocese. Through this I wish to develop our Cathedral as a genuine and living statement of our identity and mission.

To begin this journey, I am to spend time in the coming weeks attending to the experience of the Cathedral parish community itself, listening to its history and its hopes. In due time, I wish to broaden the discussion to include our clergy and all our communities of faith that comprise our Diocese and for whom the Cathedral church has such significance.

I ask that you pray that this endeavour as it unfolds in various stages over the coming weeks and months will be the source of new blessing for our Diocese. Sincerely yours in Christ, + Anthony

THIS WEEKEND IS THE KCCP 2022 VINNIES WINTER APPEAL.

Please give whatever you can to this appeal.

THIS weekend the St. Vincent de Paul Society in Asquith and Berowra Parish are holding their winter appeal.

The Society has had a presence in the Kur-ing-gai Chase Parish since 1957 and the need to help those less fortunate than us is still as relevant now as it was in the past years.

GIVE MORE WOMEN AND CHILDREN THE CHANCE TO ESCAPE VIOLENCE

$74	Can provide food after a woman and her child have fled violence.
$116	Can provide emergency accommodation, which is the first step to safety.
$294	Can help with expenses that come with relocating, such as furniture, whitegoods and bills.
$857	Can help with rent and accommodation, so families like Leah and Charlotte can have a place of their own.

Our fellow Parishioners have always been generous in the support of the Society, and we are grateful for that and look forward to your continued generosity.

The Winter Appeal supports the work conducted by our dedicated volunteers and members which is vital in assisting those people who turn to us for help in times of desperate need, especially during these colder months.

Envelopes for your donation are in the pews this weekend.

Please use one and place on the special collection after the Homily.

Didn't come prepared this week?

You can always take home an envelope and return it next weekend.

Please support this appeal if you possibly can, thank you.

For those who may still not be coming to mass due to Covid, you may donate by going to ... <https://my.fundraise.vinniesnsw.org.au/fundraise-your-way/2022-svdp-winter-appeal>

Domestic violence forces too many women to make desperate choices. For two frightening years, Leah and Charlotte lived in their car and spent their days in parks because they had nowhere else to go.

Thankfully, Leah connected with Vinnies volunteers, Frank and Narelle, who were able to secure her and Charlotte a place at a refuge. They then helped Leah and Charlotte get back on their feet and into their own home.

"Vinnies saved my life," said Leah.

Tragically, the number of women experiencing domestic and family violence has increased significantly in the past two years, leaving many emergency refuges and support services unable to cope.

Your gift this Winter will provide the emergency accommodation and material assistance needed for women and children like Leah and Charlotte to escape the danger and rebuild their lives.

Learn more about Homelessness in Australia here.

Welcome to our Faith Family
Baptism congratulations to Isabella Chloe Grange who is to be baptised this weekend.

Please keep her, her parents and Godparents in your prayers.

Planned Giving Envelopes - 2022/2023 Financial Year ~

Please collect your PGE's from the back of our churches today. To all who have given so generously to the upkeep of our parish through the planned giving programme during 2021/2022 we offer sincere thanks. Taxation receipts will be issued after the finish of the current financial year.

If you'd like to know how you can join the PGE programme or other ways you can assist the parish financially, please call the Office on 9456 2450.

Vox Populi - The Voice of the People

We are now officially in the second half of 2022. That means six months to Christmas! However there is a great deal in the calendar to celebrate before then. Each month of the year is dedicated to a particular devotion within the Catholic faith; the dedication of each month is based on historical events or a particular aspect of the liturgical calendar, or a combination of the two. July is the month we honour the Precious Blood of Jesus - falling right between June's devotion to the Sacred Heart and August's devotion to the Immaculate Heart.

The feast of the Precious Blood of our Lord was instituted in 1849 by Pius IX, but the devotion is as old as Christianity. The early Fathers say that the Church was born from the pierced side of Christ, and that the sacraments were brought forth through His Blood. The month also falls within the liturgical season of Ordinary Time, which is represented by the liturgical colour green. This symbol of hope is the colour of the sprouting seed and arouses in the faithful the hope of reaping the eternal harvest of heaven, especially the hope of a glorious resurrection. Ordinary Time, which means ordered or numbered time, is celebrated in two segments: from the Monday following the Baptism of Our Lord up to Ash Wednesday; and from Pentecost Monday to the First Sunday of Advent. This makes it the largest season of the Liturgical Year. The rhythm of the liturgical seasons reflects the rhythm of life — with its celebrations of anniversaries and its seasons of quiet growth and maturing. In July we celebrate many important feast days and memorials. Sunday is the feast of St Thomas the Apostle, who at first did not believe but has become known for the fervour in which he expressed his regained faith: "My Lord and my God". Also in July there are memorials for St Maria Goretti; Saints Bonaventure and Peter Chrysologus, both Bishops and Doctors of the Church; Our Lady of Mount Carmel; Sts Joachim and Anne; Saints Martha, Mary and Lazarus and St Ignatius of Loyola. On 22 July we celebrate the Feast of St Mary Magdalene. This liturgical celebration honouring St Mary Magdalene was raised from a memorial to a feast in June 2016, recognising her in the same status as the other apostles of Jesus. A most ardent and loving follower of Jesus, she stood with Mary at the foot of the Cross, and when she went to the tomb with the other women, it was in the garden near the tomb that Jesus appeared to her. Mary Magdalene brought the news of the Resurrection to the Apostles, leading many to refer to her as the "apostle to the apostles". We don't worship the Saints but we can ask them to intercede on our behalf, and we know their prayers are powerful.

A Special Invitation to all parish musicians, singers and instrumentalists, to come and join in the music for Fr Shaju's Farewell and Thanksgiving Mass on Sunday 10th July. Rehearsal from 9am before the Mass. All welcome.

Children's Choir @ St Patrick's...

The Fifth Plenary Council of Australia final assembly will take place from July 3-9 ~

SAFEGUARDING IS EVERYONE'S RESPONSIBILITY!

Community News: The International Safeguarding Conference (ISC) is an annual event which brings together Church leaders, safeguarding professionals, trauma specialists and others to share knowledge and best practice in the prevention of abuse of children and vulnerable adults. The aim of the ISC 2022 is to foster a discussion about how different issues related to reporting abuse are dealt with in different contexts. Our very own Director, Diocesan Safeguarding Office, Jodie Crisafulli, attended the conference as one of two Asia-Pacific Networking Group facilitators. Next week we will include a few words from Jodie about her experience.

Learning Hub: The main sessions from the ISC conference is now available for viewing by copy and pasting the following into your browser.

The agenda was divided in sessions focussing on:

1. Reporting: Challenges of Implementing "Vos estis lux mundi"
2. Institutional Challenges: Reporting to Civil Institutions
3. Institutional Challenges: Reporting to Church Authorities
4. Support to Victims: The Accompaniment of Victims in the Catholic Church: Learnings and Challenges
