

Catholic Parish of Lower North Shore

Serving the communities of

St Leonard's Naremburn, St Philip Neri Northbridge, St Thomas' Willoughby
Twinned with the Parish of Letefoho, Timor Leste

We wish to acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather, the Cammeraygal and the Wallumedegal peoples, who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples to this Country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of Reconciliation.

FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT YEAR A —26 FEBRUARY 2023

Lynda Lee's dreams for our Parish of Lower North Shore

Last weekend I attended the first Divine Renovation Conference in Australasia (hosted by the Sydney Archdiocese), with almost 1000 attendees coming together from all over Australia and NZ to listen and learn, network and be inspired into growing their parishes back into vibrant communities with a true sense of mission. Maintaining the 'status quo', isn't working today, our emptied churches, few volunteers, and people who even identify as Christian or Catholic in Australia significantly less than even a decade ago, census statistics alone speak loudly of this fact. We can see the trend within our own families.

Fr Jose our Parish Priest now presents us with a wonderful opportunity in the upcoming discernment sessions to think about what we want to celebrate and what dreams we have as a parish; is it maintaining the status quo, or developing a vision that cultivates and celebrates the love Jesus has for each one of us, so we desire to go out and share with all. "With men it is impossible but with God all things are possible" Matt 19:26.

Every one of us is gifted with charisma's that together make up Christ's Body (the church) we are his hands and feet, whether it be gifts of e.g. hospitality, welcoming others, baking, serving, evangelising, listening, cleaning, praying. When we know Jesus loves us, we will want to have others share in that love, we will want to share in whatever way we are able, to bring that joy to others.

So my dream... that over the next years we can work towards growing a missional parish that has a vision of community that is welcoming, spiritually nourishing, growing with people that are coming to know and love Jesus and that want to be part of bringing/sharing that divine love that Jesus has for each one of us, to all; friends, family, neighbours, strangers, the wanderers and the lost, so they too get to know and experience the best love story ever. And of course, at the heart of our Parish will be churches full of people celebrating beautiful Eucharistic liturgies accompanied with great music sung from our hearts and voices!!

What are your dreams for our parish? Whether you are frustrated, apathetic, angry, a regular weekend Mass attendee or just an Easter and Christmas only attendee or less, a disengaged school parent, teenager, or a parishioner just wanting more for your parish, we want to hear your thoughts and dreams.

Fr Jose is offering us a wonderful opportunity with Deacon Peter McCulloch a wonderful facilitator to discern our way forward, across our 3 communities in the next few weeks- details in this bulletin. We really want to hear from YOU, to be able to listen to each other respectfully and articulate how you would like to dream of our parish in 5 years. I really hope that everyone will take this opportunity. Together we can listen to each other's dreams, discern a vision and seek out ways to start growing a missionary culture that is vibrant, inclusive, nourishing, welcoming with Christ at its heart.

Entrance Antiphon

Cf. Ps 90:15-16

When he calls on me, I will answer him; I will deliver him and give him glory, I will grant him length of days.

First Reading

Gen 2:7-9; 3:1-7

A reading from the book of Genesis

The Lord God fashioned man of dust from the soil. Then he breathed into his nostrils a breath of life, and thus man became a living being. The Lord God planted a garden in Eden which is in the east, and there he put the man he had fashioned. The Lord God caused to spring up from the soil every kind of tree, enticing to look at and good to eat, with the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil in the middle of the garden. The serpent was the most subtle of all the wild beasts that the Lord God had made. It asked the woman, 'Did God really say you were not to eat from any of the trees in the garden?' The woman answered the serpent, 'We may eat the fruit of the trees in the garden. But of the fruit of the tree in the middle of the garden God said, "You must not eat it, nor touch it, under pain of death".' Then the serpent said to the woman, 'No! You will not die! God knows in fact that on the day you eat it your eyes will be opened and you will be like gods, knowing good and evil.' The woman saw that the tree was good to eat and pleasing to the eye, and that it was desirable for the knowledge that it could give. So she took some of its fruit and ate it. She gave some also to her husband who was with her, and he ate it. Then the eyes of both of them were opened and they realised that they were naked. So they sewed fig-leaves together to make themselves loin-cloths.

Responsorial Ps

Ps 50:3-6. 12-14. 17. R. see v.3

(R.) Be merciful, O Lord, for we have sinned.

Have mercy on me, God, in your kindness. In your compassion blot out my offence. O wash me more and more from my guilt cleanse me from my sin. (R.)

My offences truly I know them; my sin is always before me. Against you, you alone, have I sinned; what is evil in your sight I have done. (R.)

A pure heart create for me, O God, put a steadfast spirit within me. Do not cast me away from your presence, nor deprive me of your holy spirit. (R.)

Give me again the joy of your help; with a spirit of fervour sustain me. O Lord, open my lips and my mouth shall declare your praise. (R.)

Second Reading

Rom 5:12-19

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

Sin entered the world through one man, and through sin death, and thus death has spread through the whole human race because everyone has sinned. Sin existed in the world long before the Law was given. There was no law and so no one could be accused of the sin of 'law-breaking', yet death reigned over all from Adam to Moses, even though their sin, unlike that of Adam, was not a matter of breaking a law.

Adam prefigured the One to come, but the gift itself considerably outweighed the fall. If it is certain that through one man's fall so many died, it is even more certain that divine grace, coming through the one man, Jesus Christ, came to so many as an abundant free gift. The results of the gift also outweigh the results of one man's sin: for after one single fall came judgement with a verdict of condemnation, now after many falls comes grace with its verdict of acquittal. If it is certain that death reigned over everyone as the consequence of one man's fall, it is even more certain that one man, Jesus Christ, will cause everyone to reign in life who receives the free gift that he does not deserve, of being made righteous. Again, as one man's fall brought condemnation on everyone, so the good act of one man brings everyone life and makes them justified. As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by one man's obedience many will be made righteous.

Gospel Acclamation

Mt 4:4

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!
No one lives on bread alone,
but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel

Mt 4:1-11

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Jesus was led by the Spirit out into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. He fasted for forty days and forty nights, after which he was very hungry, and the tempter came and said to him, 'If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to turn into loaves.' But he replied, 'Scripture says: Man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.' The devil then took him to the holy city and made him stand on the parapet of the Temple. 'If you are the Son of God,' he said, 'throw yourself down; for scripture says: He will put you in his angels' charge, and they will support you on their hands in case you hurt your foot against a stone.' Jesus said to him, 'Scripture also says: You must not put the Lord your God to the test.' Next, taking him to a very high mountain, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendour. 'I will give you all these', he said, 'if you fall at my feet and worship me.' Then Jesus replied, 'Be off, Satan! For scripture says: You must worship the Lord your God, and serve him alone.' Then the devil left him, and angels appeared and looked after him.

WYD Pilgrims

Our Youth have been hard at work making rosaries this past week, and will continue to do so over the next few weeks. A rosary forms part of the logo for WYD 2023 (pictured here) and the WYD theme for this year is "Mary arose and went with haste" (Luke 1:39), so our Pilgrims thought it would be a wonderful idea to sell them after Mass at each of our churches over the next few weekends as part of our fundraising efforts. Please come up and say hello, and perhaps purchase a beautiful rosary or two. God bless. - WYD Pilgrims.

Vox Episcopi 23 February 2023

Just the other day I heard someone parroting the tired old line that we have to become a “new Church”.

This monotonous tune included the call to cast off acts of devotion and piety that have held Catholic Christians steady in the faith for generations.

Our vocation is not to “become a new Church”, it is to be faithful to our baptism which calls us into communion with God and with others. Rather our vocation and mission as priests, teachers, parents, families, and witnesses of God’s love and mercy, is to probe the mystery of a relationship with God, which is made possible through the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ.

It is not a “new” Church that is needed but a faithful and renewed one. The People of God – priests and people – all the baptised, living life to the full in the Spirit of God.

My sisters and brothers, the holy season of Lent provides us with many opportunities to embrace and live life in the Spirit by turning away from sin and believing in the Good News.

What we do in Lent will hopefully impact upon who we are for the rest of the year.

Perhaps we can rebuild some of our Lenten practices from the past, look at new ways of fasting and penance, consider works of mercy that brings our communities of faith together to work for peace and justice, embrace our Lenten Program in Broken Bay with family and friends to open pathways for genuine conversion to Christ.

My dear people, the invitation this Lent is not one to replant ideals and practices from the past into our time. That would be far too simplistic. Rather, I would invite you to ask one question: Who is Christ for the world of this time?

Having asked that question, we then must ask: what must change in my life, so that others will see and know Christ in me?

Considering these two questions will keep most of us busy during the forty days of Lent. This is our Lenten work.

Might we undertake this work with cheerfulness and joy so that we will become holy, to become people who love God and our neighbour more and more.

POSITION VACANT

PART-TIME CATECHIST COORDINATOR

Chatswood & Lindfield-Killara Parishes are seeking to recruit a part-time Catechist Coordinator, working across both Parishes, working approximately 25 hours per week. This role plays an important part in the Parish team, coordinating the Ministry of Special Religious Education (SRE) at a local parish level.

The ideal candidate will have relevant experience in SRE, of working with volunteers in a Catholic environment, comfortable working autonomously and having an understanding of the need for accountability and ownership in a role, excellent administration and time management skills and proficiency with Microsoft Office Suite. An understanding of the Department of Education requirements in relation to Special Religious Education would be an advantage. You'll also have a good understanding of, and commitment to Catholic values and teachings.

The role does allow for flexibility with the working schedule; however, you will need to have availability outside of normal working hours from to time.

If this role interests you, please email a brief cover letter and CV to:
