

Catholic Parish of Lower North Shore

St Thomas' Willoughby

St Philip Neri Northbridge

St Leonard's Naremburn

Twinned with the Parish of Letefoho, Timor Leste.

We wish to acknowledge the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather, the Cammeraygal and the Wallumedegal peoples, who have walked upon and cared for this land for thousands of years. We acknowledge the continued deep spiritual attachment and relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples to this Country and commit ourselves to the ongoing journey of Reconciliation.

TWENTY-FOURTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - YEAR A

17th SEPTEMBER 2023

Dear Parishioners,

A big thank you to all those who have sent letters to Willoughby Council over the past weeks and who have shown their support for our parish in other ways. I too have written to Council to voice my views about these matters of such significance to our parish community. It is my strong hope that this show of support from the community helps the Council to understand the parish sentiment about the development plans, the Interim Heritage Order and what we hope to achieve for the site.

For those of you who have not yet been able to write, please continue to send your letters to Council. As I have said before, every letter counts!

When writing to Council, please make clear to Council your support in appealing the Interim Heritage Order and why you are against an Interim Heritage Order being placed over the former school site. Could you also please convey your support for the proposed Metro development.

If you would like assistance as you prepare your letter, please see the Guidelines for Parishioners and Template Letter of Support located on the website at <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/lower-north-shore/news-events/parish-bulletins>.

The Interim Heritage Order Appeal will be heard on Monday 25 and Tuesday 26 September 2023 and I will provide an update after the hearing. As mentioned at the Parish forum, the Court may not provide its decision for 3-6 weeks after the hearing, so as we wait for the outcome, I thank you again for your continued support, advice and prayers for our Parish community.

Fr Jose Philip
Parish Priest

RCIA or HOW TO BECOME A CATHOLIC

Many adults are welcomed into the Catholic Church each year through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). The RCIA takes place within a parish community in a relaxed and supportive environment to allow the candidate to share in the life of the Church expressed in a local faith community. It offers a way to grow in knowledge of Christ and the Catholic faith in company with others on a similar journey. The non-baptised who are suitably prepared are welcomed into the Catholic Church by the reception of the three Sacraments Initiation, namely Baptism, Confirmation and Holy Eucharist. If you or someone you know would like to know more about the program please come along to our first meeting on Tuesday 19/09/2023 at 7.30 pm in the Parish Office.

Congratulation

Fr Jose, the assistant priests, the parish staff and all the parishioners join together in congratulating our children and two adults who celebrated their Confirmation this weekend. May the Holy Spirit be a constant in your lives and enkindle in you the fire of His love. God bless you all!

SUNDAY'S READINGS

Entrance Antiphon: (Cf Sirach 36:18)

Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.

First Reading: (Sirach 27:30 - 28:7)

Resentment and anger, these are foul things, and both are found with the sinner. He who exacts vengeance will experience the vengeance of the Lord, who keeps strict account of sin. Forgive your neighbour the hurt he does you, and when you pray, your sins will be forgiven. If a man nurses anger against another, can he then demand compassion from the Lord? Showing no pity for a man like himself, can he then plead for his own sins? Mere creature of flesh, he cherishes resentment; who will forgive him his sins? Remember the last things, and stop hating, remember dissolution and death, and live by the commandments. Remember the commandments, and do not bear your neighbour ill-will; remember the covenant of the Most High, and overlook the offence.

Responsorial Psalm: (Ps 102:1-4. 9-12. R. v.8)

(R) The Lord is kind and merciful; slow to anger and rich in compassion.

Second Reading: (Romans 14:7-9)

The life and death of each of us has its influence on others; if we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord, so that alive or dead we belong to the Lord. This explains why Christ both died and came to life, it was so that he might be Lord both of the dead and of the living.

Gospel Acclamation: (John 13:34)

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment:
love one another as I have loved you.
Alleluia!

Gospel: (Matthew 18:21-35)

Peter went up to Jesus and said, 'Lord, how often must I forgive my brother if he wrongs me? As often as seven times?' Jesus answered, 'Not seven, I tell you, but seventy-seven times.'

'And so the kingdom of heaven may be compared to a king who decided to settle his accounts with his servants. When the reckoning began, they brought him a man who owed ten thousand talents; but he had no means of paying, so his master gave orders that he should be sold, together with his wife and children and all his possessions, to meet the debt. At this, the servant threw himself down at his master's feet. "Give me time," he said "and I will pay the whole sum." And the servant's master felt so sorry for him that he let him go and cancelled the debt. Now as this servant went out, he happened to meet a fellow servant who owed him one hundred denarii; and he seized him by the throat and began to throttle him. "Pay what you owe me", he said. His fellow servant fell at his feet and implored him, saying, "Give me time and I will pay you." But the other would not agree; on the contrary, he had him thrown into prison till he should pay the debt. His fellow servants were deeply distressed when they saw what had happened, and they went to their master and reported the whole affair to him. Then the master sent for him. "You wicked servant," he said. "I cancelled all that debt of yours when you appealed to me. Were you not bound, then, to have pity on your fellow servant just as I had pity on you?" And in his anger the master handed him over to the torturers till he should pay all his debt. And that is how my heavenly Father will deal with you unless you each forgive your brother from your heart.'

Vox Populi
14 September 2023

The one symbol most identified with Jesus and His Church is the cross. On Thursday, 14 September, we celebrate the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

This day actually celebrates two historical events: the discovery of the True Cross by Saint Helena, mother of the Emperor Constantine in 320 under the temple of Venus in Jerusalem, and the dedication in 335 of the basilica and shrine built on Calvary by Constantine, which marks the site of the Crucifixion.

However the feast, more than anything else, is a celebration and commemoration of God's greatest work: his salvific death on the Cross and His Resurrection. While a sign of suffering and human cruelty at its worst, through Christ's love shown in the Paschal Mystery, it has become the sign of triumph and victory, the sign of God, who is love itself.

We often make the Sign of the Cross over ourselves. We make it before prayer to help fix our minds and hearts on God. We make it after prayer, hoping to stay close to God. In trials and temptations, the cross is a sign of strength and protection. At Baptism we are sealed with the Sign of the Cross, signifying the fullness of redemption and that we belong to Christ. Let us look to the cross frequently, and realize that when we make the Sign of the Cross we give our entire self to God — mind, soul, heart, body, will, thoughts.

On Friday, 15 September we remember Our Lady of Sorrows which commemorates the seven great sorrows which Mary lived in relation to Her Son, as they are recorded in the Gospel: the prophecy of Simeon; the flight into Egypt; loss of the Child Jesus for three days; Mary meets Jesus on His way to Calvary; Crucifixion and death of Jesus; the body of Jesus being taken from the Cross and the burial of Jesus.
