

MANLY FRESHWATER CATHOLIC PARISH

Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 13th June 2021

Gospel: Farming is a matter of hard work and patient faith: All the farmer can do is plant the seed and nurture it along with water and care; God's unseen hand in creation transforms the tiny seed into a great harvest. Today's Gospel parables of the sower and the mustard seed, then, are calls to patience, hope and readiness.

The mustard seed – that tiny speck containing the chemical energy to create the great tree – is a natural parable for the greatness that God raises up from small beginnings.

Jesus may have been directing his words to the Zealots, a Jewish sect that sought the political restoration of Israel. Many Zealots were terrorists, employing murder and insurrection to destabilize the Roman government. The Zealots dreamed of a Messiah who would restore the Jewish nation. Jesus, however, calls them to see their identity as God's people not in terms of political might but of interior faith and spiritual openness to the love of God.

Reflection: We are called to seek the wisdom of God with the patience and dedication of the sower; we are entrusted with the work of making the reign of God a reality in our own lives with the gentle but determined faith of the mustard seed.

Christ asks us to embrace the faith of the sower: to “plant” seeds of peace, reconciliation and justice wherever and whenever we can in the certain knowledge that, in God’s good time, our plantings will result in the harvest of the kingdom of God.

With the patience and hope of mustard seed faith, our smallest acts of compassion and generosity, in our unnoticed and unheralded offerings of affirmation and support, we can transform the most barren of places into great gardens of hope.

Though we “know not how” God makes the grain grow and the sun rise and the rain fall, we do know why: the perfect and complete love that is and of God, love that compels God to set all of creation into motion and to breathe that love into our souls and set us this life of ours. Realizing the “why” should inspire us to mirror God’s love in our care for creation and our work to provide its gifts for all our sisters and brothers. .

"Be still and know that I am God" Psalm 46: vs 10

Hail, Guardian of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Blessed Virgin Mary. To you God entrusted his only Son; in you Mary placed her trust; with you Christ became man. Blessed Joseph, to us too, show yourself a father and guide us in the path of life. Obtain for us grace, mercy and courage and defend us from every evil. Amen
 Pope Francis

Safeguarding: When safeguarding is embedded in Parish leadership, governance and culture; members of the Parish recognise that it is a shared responsibility to safeguard children, young people and adults at risk.

We pray to you, Blessed Mother, that you might untangle the knots that oppress us so that we can witness with joy to your Son and our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Most Rev Anthony Randazzo Bishop of Broken Bay Message for BBNeighbourhoods 08 June 2021

My dear sisters and brothers in Christ, Next Sunday, 13 June, is the feast of Saint Anthony of Padua. He is my baptismal Patron Saint, and on my recent round of parishes for the conferral of the sacrament of Confirmation, I have discovered that he is the Confirmation Patron Saint of many of our young boys and girls. Because his feast lands on a Sunday this year, we will not be celebrating him in the liturgy, so I thought that I might reflect upon this great Saint in BB Neighbourhoods today.

In Rome not far from where I used to live, there is a beautiful church which is totally Baroque in style. This church is the Portuguese national church in Rome and is known as Sant'Antonio dei Portoghesi (Saint Anthony of the Portuguese). It is, in fact, dedicated to Saint Anthony of Lisbon or as most of the world knows him, Saint Anthony of Padua.

The Portuguese are quite protective of their man who was born in Lisbon in the year 1195. He was the eldest son of an influential family and was baptised Ferdinand. His parents had great plans for him. Accordingly, they provided him with a sound education as they nudged him towards an ecclesiastical or bureaucratic career. Without a doubt he would initially have studied Arts and then pursued Theology and Law.

His parents were to be disappointed however, not due to any failure or laziness on his part, rather because he chose not to follow their dreams for him. Instead, at the age of fifteen, he left home and began the great pilgrimage of faith which led him to the priesthood at 25 years of age.

Saint Anthony is so often remembered for pious reasons, and yet I suspect that the real sanctity of the man lies in his love and devotion to the Word of God.

He travelled through Northern Italy and Southern France, preaching especially in the areas which had been plagued by heresy. He combated both political and moral abuses in the Church as well as the rejection of Church authority and doctrine. I expect that his most powerful weapon against these enemies was his evangelical lifestyle. By living what he preached, he was able to confound heretics and edify the faithful.

Saint Anthony was also renowned as a confessor and minister of reconciliation between peoples. His example of love and acceptance itself became a powerful call to conversion.

One final glimpse at this holy pastor and doctor of the Church will show that he was a man of integrity who defended those who were powerless and incapable of defending themselves. He took to himself the proclamation of the dignity of every person some 700 years before the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council stated their intention "to develop the doctrine of recent popes on the inviolable rights of the human person" (Dignitatis humanae, 1) – a theme which was very close to the heart of Saint John Paul II.

On 13 June 1231, at the age of 36, Saint Anthony gave his final homily. He had travelled thousands of kilometres on his mission, and he had preached to tens of thousands of the faithful.

Saint Anthony is remembered for many reasons, for some it is as the patron saint of the lost, for others he is remembered for good health, for some as one who helps with their faith, and still others as an inspiration for hope. I offer you Saint Anthony as a great saint because he gave his life to the proclamation of the Word of God. He is a saint who can inspire us, clergy and people, the community of the Church of Broken Bay. /

Saint Anthony of Padua, pray for us!

+Anthony

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time – YEAR B

First Reading Ezekiel 17:22-24 (JB)

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel

I have made the small tree great.

The Lord says this: 'From the top of the cedar, from the highest branch I will take a shoot and plant it myself on a very high mountain. I will plant it on the high mountain of Israel. It will sprout branches and bear fruit, and become a noble cedar. Every kind of bird will live beneath it, every winged creature rest in the shade of its branches. And every tree of the field will learn that I, the Lord, am the one who stunts tall trees and makes the low ones grow, who withers green trees and makes the withered green. I, the Lord, have spoken, and I will do it.'

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 91:2-3, 13-16 (JB)

R. Lord it is good to give thanks to you.

It is good to give thanks to the Lord to make music to your name, O Most High, to proclaim your love in the morning and your truth in the watches of the night. R.

The just will flourish like the palm-tree and grow like a Lebanon cedar. R.

Planted in the house of the Lord they will flourish in the courts of our God, still bearing fruit when they are old, still full of sap, still green, to proclaim that the Lord is just. In him, my rock, there is no wrong. R.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 5:6-10 (JB)

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing the Lord.

We are always full of confidence when we remember that to live in the body means to be exiled from the Lord, going as we do by faith and not by sight - we are full of confidence, I say, and actually want to be exiled from the body and make our home with the Lord. Whether we are living in the body or exiled from it, we are intent on pleasing him. For all the truth about us will be brought out in the law court of Christ, and each of us will get what he deserves for the things he did in the body, good or bad.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 4:26-34 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The mustard seed, the smallest of all the seeds, grows into the biggest shrub of all.

Jesus said to the crowd, 'This is what the kingdom of God is like. A man throws seed on the land. Night and day, while he sleeps, when he is awake, the seed is sprouting and growing; how, he does not know. Of its own accord the land produces first the shoot, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear. And when the crop is ready, he loses no time; he starts to reap because the harvest has come.'

He also said, 'What can we say the kingdom of God is like? What parable can we find for it? It is like a mustard seed which at the time of its sowing in the soil is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet once it is sown it grows into the biggest shrub of them all and puts out big branches so that the birds of the air can shelter in its shade.'

Using many parables like these, he spoke the word to them, so far as they were capable of understanding it. He would not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything to his disciples when they were alone.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
