

MANLY FRESHWATER CATHOLIC PARISH

Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 12th July 2020

Dear Friends

On behalf of Fr Paul and myself I hope you are all well and for some of you enjoying the school holidays. Just as we were celebrating the reopening of our Churches, we are reminded by the re-emergence of Covid 19 virus in Victoria that all of us have to be more vigilant about social distancing and hand sanitizing. Also, if you are feeling unwell please don't come into the Church and have your health checked out by your doctor.

As announced last week we have changed our live streaming of Mass from the Saturday Vigils to the Sunday 8:30am Mass at St Mary's Church. We are still sorting out the technology to improve the sound quality.

Below is an interesting reflection on today's Gospel that I hope you find helpful.

"A sower went out to sow. Some of the seed fell on the path, and the birds came and ate it up . . . Other seed fell on good soil and brought forth grain, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty." Matthew 13: 1-23
Love is more than a rose . . .

Don't let anyone tell you that love is a rose.

Love is a weed. It grows wild. It flourishes where it is trampled; it multiplies where it is ripped from the ground. Its roots grow deeper through suffering, stronger through storms. Don't believe that love is a beautiful flower.

Love is a cactus. It thrives in the most barren places. It collects the precious water of the desert and willingly sheds its tough skin to offer a drink to the thirsty traveler.

Don't look for love in the colors of nature, in the freshness of spring, or in sunrises and sunsets.

Love is the old tree that gives its wood for warmth and its fruit for food. It welcomes into its branches every bird of the sky; it shelters every animal of the wood. It gives everything it has — and keeps giving as its roots give birth to new trees that take on the God-like work of giving.

Love is the unwelcome rain that fills every creek and stream.

Love is the dark earth that nurtures every root to harvest.

Love is the seed that dies to become something greater than itself.

Don't get carried away with romantic notions of love.

Love is as real as dirt, as generous as water, as giving as seed.

[Adapted from Believing It All: What My Children Taught Me About Trout Fishing, Jelly Toast, and Life by Marc Parent.]

Sowing seed is an act of pure faith; seed sown mirrors the love of the Gospel Christ: seed that is scattered, that breaks itself open to realize the harvest within it, that struggles to survive the most barren soil to provide food and shelter for every creature. Jesus challenges us in the parable of the sower to be both sower and seed: to sow seeds of encouragement, joy and reconciliation regardless of the "ground" on which it is scattered, and to imitate the seed's selfless giving of self that becomes the harvest of Gospel justice and mercy.

SAINT VINCENT de PAUL SOCIETY WINTER APPEAL 2020

Once again, we are asking you to help us with a donation. If you are able. When the Pandemic has eased and the extra government payments have ceased, charities such as ours are expecting increased demands. In addition, we are aware of people missing out on government assistance as they fall outside the Government safety net, particularly students and casuals. The impact on those people is expected to increase demand as well. These factors, together with the "normal" "winter demand on our services could be challenging! You can donate either directly to the Appeal through a bank transfer to Commonwealth Bank BSB 062-140 Account number 10800670 and enter Manly or Freshwater on the reference line. Alternatively, you can use a donation envelope available from your church and the envelopes can be left at the parish office. Finally, for those interested in a bargain or a donation of goods. The shop at 22 Roger Street Brookvale has reopened from 10am to 4pm, seven days each week. The Balgowlah and Manly shops remain closed just at present.

REFLECTION...

The readings this week are linked by images of nature, water, rain, growing crops and harvest.

In the First Reading, the prophet Isaiah compares the word of God to the rain falling on the world, which ensures a good crop and thus feeds the people.

Continuing this agricultural theme, the Psalms gives thanks to the Lord for his care for the earth. The whole world rejoices and sings at the abundant harvest.

For Paul, in the Second Reading, the whole of creation still hopes to be freed. All of us have the responsibility to be its good stewards.

Jesus uses images from the countryside familiar to his listeners, to tell the crowds who follow him a parable. Here God acts as a sower, scattering seeds freely on ground which is not always ready or able to receive it. (Gospel)

This week, we might want to focus our prayers on the needs of our environment, the Lord's creation.

Most Rev Anthony Randazzo
 Bishop of Broken Bay

Message for BBNeighbourhoods 30 June 2020

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The Evangelist Matthew describes a simple, but powerful encounter between Jesus, little children, their parents and carers, and Jesus' disciples (Matthew 19:13-14). Matthew tells us that the children were being brought to Jesus so that he might lay hands on them and pray. It is a beautiful, intimate and pure moment of communion. In that moment of encounter with Jesus the wellbeing of the children is paramount. With Jesus, the children are happy, healthy, and holy. They are safe. Meanwhile, the disciples and those who brought the children to Jesus are caught up in an altercation. It seems that their daily schedule had not provided space for this meeting. Maybe the structure of the timetable did not allow for spontaneous moments or the needs of others. Whatever the case, Jesus intervenes saying, "Let the little children come to me, and do not stop them". This is clearly a God moment, and the disciples cannot quite see it.

In the Gospel according to Mark, the Evangelist reports the episode of the blind man of Jericho named Bartimæus (Mark 10:46-52). Sitting by the side of the road, this person was both blind and a beggar. He is alone and looking for compassion. At one level, he desires human companionship, because on his own he is vulnerable and isolated. At the same time, this person desires healing and he asks for mercy. It is tempting to think that the healing he desires is outward looking, that is, his eyesight. However, his vulnerability is also inward looking. Bartimæus shouts out to Jesus because he seeks inner healing and spiritual well-being. In sum, this vulnerable person realises that Jesus will understand him and suffer with him, which is the deepest sign of compassion and mercy. In that moment when Jesus calls Bartimæus, they become one. In that moment, we have a glimpse of Jesus suffering on the cross for the salvation of all.

These two passages from the New Testament are a powerful reminder of how the business of discipleship can sometimes distract us from the true purpose of following Jesus. The busyness of activism can reduce the Christian life to a series of meetings, debates, and endless conversations about strategy and process. The mindfulness of belonging to Jesus, of being present in and through him, and of being sent on mission to proclaim Christ to the world, primarily by a life of witness to the Good News, can often be missing.

As the community of the Church of Broken Bay, we can never risk being so caught up in this kind of bureaucracy. The two examples from the Scriptures above are powerful reminders of how Jesus cares for children and vulnerable people. The safety and well-being of all people in the community of the Church and beyond is part of who we are as disciples of Jesus. Likewise, the conviction that all people in the community must be respected and cared for will inform and direct what we do as we live out our Christian vocation.

Beginning with my own ministry as your bishop, I hope that the determination to live the Gospel is something that each of us will commit to. In this way, we will be faithful to Christ who respected, protected, and cared for the children, the vulnerable, and indeed all people.

Peace be with you,
 +Anthony

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 12th July 2020

First Reading      Isaiah 55:10-11 (JB)

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The rain makes the earth fruitful.

Thus says the Lord: 'As the rain and the snow come down from the heavens and do not return without watering the earth, making it yield and giving growth to provide seed for the sower and bread for the eating, so the word that goes from my mouth does not return to me empty, without carrying out my will and succeeding in what it was sent to do.'

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm      Ps 64:10-14 (JB)

R. The seed that falls on good ground will yield a fruitful harvest.

You care for the earth, give it water, you fill it with riches. Your river in heaven brims over to provide its grain. R.

And thus you provide for the earth; you drench its furrows, you level it, soften it with showers, you bless its growth. R.

You crown the year with your goodness. Abundance flows in your steps, in the pastures of the wilderness it flows. R.

The hills are girded with joy, the meadows covered with flocks, the valleys are decked with wheat, They shout for joy, yes, they sing. R.

Second Reading      Romans 8:18-23 (JB)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

All creation is waiting for the revelation of the children of God.

I think that what we suffer in this life can never be compared to the glory, as yet unrevealed, which is waiting for us. The whole creation is eagerly waiting for God to reveal his sons. It was not for any fault on the part of creation that it was made unable to attain its purpose, it was made so by God; but creation still retains the hope of being freed, like us, from its slavery to decadence, to enjoy the same freedom and glory as the children of God. From the beginning till now the entire creation, as we know, has been groaning in one great act of giving birth; and not only creation, but all of us who possess the first-fruits of the Spirit, we too groan inwardly as we wait for our bodies to be set free.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation      Luke 8:11 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

The seed is the word of God, Christ is the sower; all who come to him will live for ever. Alleluia!

Gospel      Matthew 13:1-23 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

A sower went out to sow.

Jesus left the house and sat by the lakeside, but such crowds gathered round him that he got into a boat and sat there. The people all stood on the beach, and he told them many things in parables.

He said, 'Imagine a sower going out to sow. As he sowed, some seeds fell on the edge of the path, and the birds came and ate them up. Others fell on patches of rock where they found little soil and sprang up straight away, because there was no depth of earth; but as soon as the sun came up they were scorched and, not having any roots, they withered away. Others fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. Others fell on rich soil and produced their crop, some a hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Listen, anyone who has ears!'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

If you are feeling unwell please do not come into the Church.
