*15th Sunday in Ordinary Time
14th July 2019*

The Liturgy this Sunday takes us to the very heart of how we are called to live fully human lives as the Body of Christ alive in the world today.

Jesus, in this parable did not merely repeat the religious tradition, he re-interpreted it. We too are called to understand the words and deeds of Jesus, but we must understand what they mean for us today. Today we need to make comparable shifts of understanding in order to bring the message of Jesus into conversation with the contemporary world.

We are reminded in the First Reading that we do not have to search far to find God. The Word of God is in our hearts to be felt, and on our lips to be proclaimed to the world. God is within us and all around us! In the letter to the Colossians (Second Reading), this revelation is expanded further. Christ is the beginning and centre of all things, forever expressed throughout creation. Christ is in all that we see and all that is known to us and is also in all that is hidden and beyond our comprehension.

As a community of believers in God's law of love, we are Christ in the world today, united as one through Christ. The Psalm is an expression of our need and yearning for God's compassion and love. God is forever turning towards us with that love. The Gospel challenges us to take our faith to a deeper level. We are called to love God with all our heart, soul and being, and this love is to be demonstrated not only in how we relate to ourselves but in how we relate to our neighbour.

Jesus wants us to be aware that his Spirit of love is being expressed in the world by people we might even hold in contempt. There are no limits to God's love, and God will always find a way to break through the barriers of our fear and prejudice. This challenge may seem overwhelming, but we are not alone; we are one in Christ. Let us encourage and support each other through prayer, confident that God's law of love will be our guide.

Movie of the month

Pope Francis – a man of his word

A very good documentary portrait of Pope Francis by award winning director Wim Wenders. This is well-crafted and moving providing some great insights into Pope Francis's views on a wide variety of topics which interest both believers and non-believers alike. Some beautiful and engaging footage of Pope Francis reaching out to forgotten people around the world, other religions, politicians etc with affection, boldness, charm and humor. Only $15 – Limited stock!

CD of the month

Understanding the Crusades – Dr Thomas Madden

Professor Thomas Madden presents a timely talk on the misinformation surrounding the Crusades. Interestingly, most people are not aware the Crusades began after two thirds of Christendom was under Islamic rule from 4 centuries of Muslim invasions. The Crusades were defensive. If it wasn't for the Crusades, Europe would be under Islamic rule today. In the medieval times the Crusades were seen as an act of "love" to lay down one's life for friends, and to restore Jerusalem and former Christian lands back to Christendom and its people. Only 1 in 2 men would make it home alive and the costs sent families broke. Interested to learn more? CDs for only $5 @ the piety store.

PRAYERFUL AND EUCHARISTIC

PLENERY COUNCIL 2020

THE NATIONAL THEMES FOR DISCERNMENT

From July 2019, we are invited to reflect on Scripture, Church teaching and our contemporary situation in order to discern the answer to this question: How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is prayerful and Eucharistic?

This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who shared how deeply they treasured the Eucharist and the sacramental and liturgical life of the Church. There was a call for stronger and more engaging preaching, with an emphasis on the Word of God and connection to daily life, some seeking a uniquely Australian expression of prayer and Eucharistic celebration, drawing from the wisdom and rituals of the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people and also bringing together the many migrant communities which make up the Church in Australia. There were many divergent expressions of ways in which people and communities encounter God through their experiences of prayer, music and liturgy, and a desire for catechesis, training and formation for those in ministries related to these.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year C

Draw pictures of three different people who are your neighbours.

Then draw yourself helping the injured man.

Help the good Samaritan find the injured man and take him to the inn at Jericho.

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time – YEAR C

First Reading                      Deuteronomy 30:10-14 (JB)

A reading from the book of Deuteronomy

Let the instruction of the Lord God be near you.

Moses said to the people: 'Obey the voice of the Lord your God, keeping those commandments and laws of his that are written in the Book of this Law, and you shall return to the Lord your God with all your heart and soul.

'For this Law that I enjoin on you today is not beyond your strength or beyond your reach. It is not in heaven, so that you need to wonder, "Who will go up to heaven for us and bring it down to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" Nor is it beyond the seas, so that you need to wonder, "Who will cross the seas for us and bring it back to us, so that we may hear it and keep it?" No, the Word is very near to you, it is in your mouth and in your heart for your observance.'

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm                      Ps 18:8-11 (JB)

R. The precepts of the Lord give joy to the heart.

The law of the Lord is perfect, it revives the soul. The rule of the Lord is to be trusted, it gives wisdom to the simple. R.

The precepts of the Lord are right, they gladden the heart. The command of the Lord is clear, it gives light to the eyes. R.

The fear of the Lord is holy, abiding for ever. The decrees of the Lord are truth and all of them just. R.

They are more to be desired than gold, than the purest of gold and sweeter are they than honey, than honey from the comb. R.

Second Reading                      Colossians 1:15-20 (JB)

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

All things were created through him and for him.

Christ Jesus is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation, for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominations, Sovereignities, Powers - all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity. Now the Church is his body, he is its head. As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation                      cf John 6:63, 68 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life; you have the words of everlasting life.

Alleluia!

Gospel    Luke 10:25-37 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Who is my neighbour?

There was a lawyer who, to disconcert Jesus, stood up and said to him, 'Master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' He said to him, 'What is written in the Law? What do you read there?' He replied, 'You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbour as yourself.' 'You have answered right,' said Jesus. 'Do this and life is yours.'

But the man was anxious to justify himself and said to Jesus, 'And who is my neighbour?' Jesus replied, 'A man was once on his way down from Jerusalem to Jericho and fell into the hands of brigands; they took all he had, beat him and then made off, leaving him half dead. Now a priest happened to be travelling down the same road, but when he saw the man, he passed by on the other side. In the same way a Levite who came to the place saw him, and passed by on the other side. But a Samaritan traveller who came upon him was moved with compassion when he saw him. He went up and bandaged his wounds, pouring oil and wine on them. He then lifted him on to his own mount, carried him to the inn and looked after him. Next day, he took out two denarii and handed them to the innkeeper. "Look after him," he said "and on my way back I will make good any extra expense you have." Which of these three, do you think, proved himself a neighbour to the man who fell into the brigands' hands?' 'The one who took pity on him' he replied. Jesus said to him, 'Go, and do the same yourself.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
