

MANLY FRESHWATER CATHOLIC PARISH

Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ 31st July 2022

Gospel Reflection

Rabbis were often asked to arbitrate conflicts within families and communities. In today's Gospel, Jesus has been approached to settle such an argument over an inheritance. Jesus responds not by taking sides but by addressing the greed that has brought both sides to near blows. He tells the parable of the rich man who, in the midst of his good fortune, loses his sense of what is really important. Possessions create the illusion that we can control our lives; the drive for gain makes us oblivious to the needs and dreams of others. The "foolish" rich man in today's Gospel sadly discovers that wealth in the reign of God has nothing to do with stock portfolios, bank accounts or the social register. Connectionsmedaworks.com

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,

No doubt many of you have been following the media reports regarding the Second Assembly of the Fifth Plenary Council of the Catholic Church in Australia. It is my hope over the coming weeks and months to begin to unpack the work of the Plenary Council, which along with the upcoming Synod on Synodality, will help inform our Broken Bay Pastoral Mission, One in Christ.

In the meantime, might I encourage you to remember that the Plenary Council was an ecclesial event, not a media event. The various reports presented in the print media and the electronic media, tend to inflame the process, decisions, and outcomes of what has been a long and fruitful process of listening and discernment.

One of the fruits of the Plenary Council is that it has raised a whole dimension in ecclesial life about listening. Inspired by the Book of Revelation, we have asked, “What is the Holy Spirit saying to the Church?” This question is fundamental for the Christian. The question is not merely an inquiry, it is a profession of faith. It confesses that the community of the Church, to which all the baptised belong, is in fact a communion in the fellowship of the Holy Spirit. As Catholic Christians, we believe that we are anointed by the Holy Spirit as the People of God. The Holy Spirit is constantly revealing to the Body of Christ the will of God the Father. Every member of Christ’s Body is called each day to discern the voice of God calling us to life, ministry, and mission.

The Holy Spirit reveals Jesus, alive in every living member of the Church. The Holy Spirit draws the followers of Christ together into blessed communion. The Holy Spirit animates and sends baptised women and men into the world as disciples of Jesus Christ.

As we can plainly see, this is much more than a media event. Consequently, our ongoing listening and discerning cannot be focused on what we read reported in the secular media. There is a simple process that will help us unfold the work of the Plenary Council in Broken Bay. It begins with trust and hope in the grace of the Holy Spirit. Without this it would be very easy to fall into ideological divisions. That is certainly not what the Holy Spirit asks of us. The Holy Spirit binds us together, fills us with divine life, and urges us to proclaim the love and mercy of God to all whom we encounter.

The next phase of the Plenary Council is for the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference (ACBC) to receive the Acts and Decrees of the Council formally in November 2022. At this time, both the Acts and the Decrees will be forwarded to the Holy See for reception and consideration. The Holy Father will be part of this process, which signifies the movement of the Holy Spirit drawing the Catholic Church in Australia more deeply into communion with the Successor of Peter, and therefore with the Universal Church to which we belong. This phase may take up to 12 months before the ACBC receives the approval for implementation and engagement in the local Churches.

In the meantime, I encourage the whole community of the Church of Broken Bay, people, priests, and deacons, to join together in prayer and charity, as together we continue to engage in our Pastoral Mission of evangelisation, catechesis, communion, and mission – One in Christ.

May the Holy Spirit of God stir into flame the grace of baptism in each of us.

With my prayers and blessing,
+ Anthony

St Paul’s College News...Students at St Paul’s Catholic College have again been offered the opportunity to engage in the very successful Canine Assisted Learning program this term. The program offers a small group of boys in Years 7 & 8 the chance to train and experience the unconditional love of some doggy friends in an atmosphere that helps them to build their social skills and resilience.

The students have been looking forward to this program since it was first introduced last year and represented themselves, their families and the College admirably.

Program Coordinator Kate from Youth Up Front, praised the students after their first session. They "engaged really well and seemed to have a lot of fun, hopefully learning a few resilience skills along the way. St Paul’s students are very easy to work with – always very respectful of the volunteers, staff and dogs!!"

This program will run for four weeks with a second group of students having the opportunity to take it up later in the term.

Kind regards, Michael Reid (Principal)

St Mary’s School News... We have had a very busy start back to the term! Last week we had 3 students represent St Mary’s at the NSW All Schools Cross Country Carnival and we achieved amazing results! Congratulations to Otto (7th), Gracie (5th) and Eliza (8th). Gracie will attend Nationals in Adelaide later in the year and Eliza has qualified as first reserve.

This week Kindy celebrates 100 days of school! Time flies when you’re having fun and our Kindy kids have had a blast so far. This week we also got together for a fun Christmas themed mufti day and disco. Unfortunately, our athletics carnival was rained out this week, but we are super excited for our carnival next week.

Keep your eye out for our Facebook posts for photos of all our fun.
Kind regards Alexis Conn (REC)

St John’s School News... Today was a very special day at St John the Baptist- It was Grandparents’ Day! We were blessed that so many grandparents could join us for this celebration. We want to thank our grandparents and grand-friends for the important role they play in the life of the community, but most significantly in the lives of their grandchildren. We also remember the grandparents who could not be with us today. Warm wishes, Frances Harrison (Acting REC)

If a global pandemic has taught us anything, it’s the power of friendship and human connection. This Saturday 30 July is the UN International Day of Friendship. It was first introduced by the United Nations

General Assembly in 2011 with the idea that friendship between peoples, countries, cultures and individuals can inspire peace efforts and build bridges between communities. Many of our staff at CatholicCare can attest to the power of friendship in combatting loneliness, boosting self-esteem, and enhancing mental health outcomes. For more information about CatholicCare’s services call us today on 1800 324 924 or visit www.catholiccarebb.org.au

Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading Ecclesiastes 1:2; 2:21-23

A reading from the book of Ecclesiastes

What do people gain by all their work?

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity!

For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully, and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 89:3-6, 12-14, 17

R. In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

You turn men back into dust and say: 'Go back, sons of men.' To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night. R.

You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning. In the morning it springs up and flowers: by evening it withers and fades. R.

Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants. R.

In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. R.

Second Reading Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to Colossians

Seek the things that are above where Christ is.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and, in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 12:13-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

To whom will all this wealth of yours go?

A man in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.' 'My friend,' he replied 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.'

Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to, do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do: I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say, to my soul: 'My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time.'" But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.'
The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
