Fifth Sunday of Easter 19th May 2019

In this week's gospel, we are reminded of the New Commandment that Christ gave us the day before he suffered. We are brought back to that Last Supper, when Jesus was gathered with his closest companions and opened his heart to them.

Jesus lives in a certain way and invites us to follow that way...and this way will inevitably disrupt our preferred way of living.

Love is meant to be our marker as Christians. In the 3rd century, Tertullian said that when the Romans referred to the early Christians they often remarked "See how they love each other." This was how they recognized them as Christians.

And love, it's not just good feelings. Love can be velvet or steel. It's a love that brings us to lay down our lives for others, just as Jesus laid down his life for us. This is our great power; this is our great privilege.

The freedom that Jesus offers us is to live a fully human life; that is, a human life that is fulfilling. Jesus insists that if we love Him and keep His word, God will dwell in us and we will find peace.

This is not a false peace that comes from filling ourselves up with the attractions of the world (money, consumer goods, celebrity status, etc.), but a true peace that comes from emptying ourselves so that we can imitate Jesus in acts of love, of service, and of self-sacrifice.

Parish Safeguarding TRAINING

Safeguarding in the Diocese seeks to ensure children and vulnerable people are provided with the fundamental right to be kept safe and respected. This right is held sacred in our Gospel, international and local laws and within our Church policy and practice.

The Office for Safeguarding will be running training in each Deanery throughout the year. The first for 2019 is in the Northern Beaches Deanery will be held at Manly.

This training is open to all Northern Beaches Deanery Parishes (Pittwater, The Lakes, Frenchs Forest, Warringah, Manly Freshwater & North Harbour)

Learn about Safeguarding – Training for all Parish Staff, Volunteers and Parishioners

Please register for one of the following training sessions

- Wednesday 22 May 2019 at 2pm – 4pm
- Saturday 25 May 2019 at 10am – 12noon

Location: Manly Freshwater Parish, 6 Raglan Street, Manly
Please RSVP to safeguarding@bbccatholic.org.au
(Attention: Lucy) or phone 8379 1605.

First Holy Communion will be celebrated in the Parish on Sunday 2nd June at Manly at the 10.30am Mass and at Freshwater at the 9am Mass. Please remember the children and their families as they continue their preparation program.

The Piety Store has a good selection of Holy Communion Gifts available.

Manly Catenians are part of a global association that offers a forum for catholic men to socialise. We meet locally each 3rd Wed for dinner, generally with a guest speaker but always ensuring a fun night. Try us out. Manly Parish has several members but can do with more. Laurie de Ambrosis is a member and would be happy to provide more details. 0418276186.

CWF APPEAL

"How marvelous it would be, if at the end of the day, each of us could say: today I have performed an act of charity towards others" Pope Francis

Thank you to those parishioners who have contributed to this year's Charitable Works Fund (CWF) Appeal. Donations are 100% tax deductible and the 3rd and final collection for this financial year was held last weekend. These appeals are used to support the charitable activities of our Diocese.

Our Parish quota for this financial year is $49,203.00 and we have an outstanding balance of $29,303.35.

Envelopes are available in the church foyer or parish office

St Mary's School News...

Thank you to Mrs Hankin, Mrs Whealing and all the children of Year 2 who prepared a beautiful liturgy to celebrate the important mothers, grandmothers and significant females in our lives last Friday. It was a fantastic celebration and a beautiful morning with the dads doing a wonderful job cooking breakfast and Year 6 served it with a smile. We thank all those who were able to attend and hope that you enjoyed your morning with us.

Our May Family Mass for all families in our community will be held on Sunday the 26th May at 6pm. We look forward to seeing as many families as possible join us to celebrate this mass and the sausage sizzle after mass. Our family masses are a great way to connect and socialise with other families in our school and parish. We thank the Year 2 parents and children for leading us in the preparation of this mass.

MANLY PIETY STORE Featuring Our Lady of Fatima

On May 13, 1917, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to three shepherd children as they were grazing their sheep in Fatima, Portugal. Their names were Lucia, Francisco, and Jacinta. She appeared "brighter than the sun, shedding rays of light clearer and stronger than a crystal goblet filled with the most sparkling water and pierced by the burning rays of the sun." The Virgin Mary identified herself as Our Lady of the Rosary. She taught the children to recite the rosary daily, to pray for the conversion of sinners, to make small sacrifices as penance in reparation for sin, and to honor her Immaculate Heart. She also prophesied about the World Wars, showed the children a frightening vision of hell, warned of the spread of ideological errors from Russia, and asked that the Holy Father solemnly consecrate Russia to her Immaculate Heart in union with the world's bishops. Our Lady appeared at Fatima on the 13th day of the month from May to October of that year. The final apparition was the well-documented celestial phenomena of the "Miracle of the Sun" witnessed by tens of thousands of people, believers and unbelievers alike. After investigation, the apparition at Fatima was declared worthy of belief by the Catholic Church. The feast of Our Lady of Fatima is May 13th.

Movie and CD of the month "Risen" This is a very good film, a fictional story based on true events. Imagine following Jesus after his resurrection, for forty days Jesus appeared to His disciples and believers. Just imagine, the resurrected Jesus, talking with them and eating with them. As St Paul puts it "If Christ did not rise our faith is in vain". This film should be enjoyed after "Easter". Recommended for mature audiences. Only $10 Piety store – Limited stock!

CD of the month 7 secrets of Divine Mercy – Vinny Flynn "In this compelling and timely CD Vinny Flynn draws from Scripture, the teachings of the Church, and the Diary of St. Faustina to not only reveal the heart of Divine Mercy, but to offer you an invitation and a road map so that this mercy can transform your life. If you're not yet convinced of the impact Divine Mercy can have on your life, if you've never heard of this message and devotion, or if you're curious to learn more about it, this CD is perfect for you. It shows us all how to respond to the call of Pope Francis "to live lives shaped by mercy," and benefit greatly from the "Year of Mercy."

Baptism Welcoming - This Weekend at the 10.30am mass at Manly we welcome 10 babies and their families into our Parish Community. Please keep them in your prayers..

PRAISEFEST -Catholic Youth Broken Bay invites all young people to Join young people (youth & young adults) from across the Diocese to catch up with friends, enjoy our Festival consisting of different activities and a free BBQ, encounter God through vibrant and honest worship, and receive spiritual nourishment through an inspiring and relevant message.

Date: Friday 7 June 2019 Time: 6:00pm – 9:00pm
Venue: Chatswood Parish, 94 Archer St, Chatswood

Introducing the brand new Freshwater Morning Tea Crew!

Given the blockbusting Avengers movie in theatres at the moment, it is a good time to tell you about one of the many groups of superheros in our own Parish of Manly Freshwater!!

Team Photo

Two specialist team members who deserve our thanks in this photo. Firstly Jacquie Feledy. Her superpower is getting as all to recycle and not waste anything!

Up the front is Andy Madikian. Andy's superpower as you may know, is that he can find a delicious fish for every occasion! He has generously donated to our morning teas for a number of years know.

In summary, welcome team. We are grateful of your efforts. We take this opportunity to show our appreciation and thanks.

To all our parishioners who have yet to make the effort to sample our wares and have a cuppa with us, please come along.

We take this opportunity to warmly invite you to share some time with us after mass, sometime soon.

God Bless Everyone, Francis

YOU ARE INVITE TO JOIN US FOR MORNING TEA
EACH SUNDAY
following the 9am Mass..

Week 1
Andy &

Beck This & Family

Their superpowers are the fact that they are from the rare young demographic! Who not only take the time to attend church, but volunteer to help! Despite bringing up two gorgeous mini heroes and leading extremely busy lives, they somehow still find the time to volunteer and be a part of our team.

Week 2 – Richard/ Marg/ Med

Some original team members here. The ladies are often the brains behind the operation, but they are always the heart and soul of the team. Richard's superpower is that he always knows where everything is hidden in the tuckshop!

Week 3 & 4 – Wright Family/ Brigid & Lyn

Brand new members of the team who will lead us into the future. The Wright family have three generations of volunteers in the Parish. Brigid and Lyn add 30 years of baking experience which we already benefitted from in their first week!

Fifth Sunday of Easter – YEAR C

First Reading

Acts 14:21-27

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

They assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them.

Paul and Barnabas went back through Lystra and Iconium to Antioch. They put fresh heart into the disciples, encouraging them to persevere in the faith. 'We all have to experience many hardships' they said 'before we enter the kingdom of God.' In each of these churches they appointed elders, and with prayer and fasting they commended them to the Lord in whom they had come to believe.

They passed through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. Then after proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia and from there sailed for Antioch, where they had originally been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now completed.

On their arrival they assembled the church and gave an account of all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the pagans.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 144:8-13

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion, slow to anger, abounding in love. How good is the Lord to all, compassionate to all his creatures. R.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing. They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God, to make known to men your mighty deeds and the glorious splendour of your reign. R.

Yours is an everlasting kingdom; your rule lasts from age to age. R.

Second Reading Revelation 21:1-5

A reading from the book of the Apocalypse

He will wipe away all the tears from their eyes.

I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth; the first heaven and the first earth had disappeared now, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the holy city, and the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, as beautiful as a bride all dressed for her husband. Then I heard a loud voice call from the throne, 'You see this city? Here God lives among men. He will make his home among them; they shall be his people, and he will be their God; his name is God-with-them. He will wipe away all tears from their eyes; there will be no more death, and no more mourning or sadness. The world of the past has gone.'

Then the One sitting on the throne spoke: 'Now I am making the whole of creation new'.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation John 13:34

Alleluia, alleluia!

I give you a new commandment:
love one another as I have loved you.

Alleluia!

Gospel Reading John 13:31-35

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

I give you a new commandment: love one another.

When Judas had gone Jesus said: 'Now has the Son of Man been glorified, and in him God has been glorified. If God has been glorified in him, God will in turn glorify him in himself, and will glorify him very soon. My little children, I shall not be with you much longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another; just as I have loved you, you also must love one another. By this love you have for one another, everyone will know that you are my disciples'.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Seeking Financial Advice?

The best advice to achieve more financial certainty in your life is not another financial product.
