Today's readings are a mixture of exhortations to be gentle and humble in our own lives, and to give practical hospitality to the poor.

The First Reading gives advice on humility in our behaviour and warns against pride. A wise person is attentive to God and gentle in all aspects of our dealings with others. The Psalm is a song of praise to the God who, in turn, is attentive to the orphan and widow, the poor and the lonely. The psalmist rejoices in the generous God who gives us new life. The Second Reading, from Hebrews, is full of awe at the revelation of God's power. We have been given Jesus as our mediator, and our home is the heavenly Jerusalem.

Jesus's teaching in the Gospel is in the setting of a meal. The value of humility as taught by Jesus is that our understanding of our worth is not dependant on being better than or more important than somebody else. It is not about comparison at all. Our true sense of self-worth comes from within. Hence the significance of Jesus' command to the man who had invited him to the meal. The next time he has a dinner, instead of using it as an occasion to further himself, why doesn't he invite all those people who can't repay him?

The true value of humility is not a fashionable trait in today's society but for those who live as gently and humbly as Jesus did is to commit oneself to a better world, armed only with a deep conviction that God is love and to love our neighbour as ourselves.

PIETY SORE

MONTH OF THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

The Church dedicates the month of August to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. It is a dogma of the Catholic faith that Mary is the Immaculate Conception; that is, in preparation for the Incarnation of the Second Person of the Holy Trinity in her womb, she was conceived without the corruption of sin through the infinite merits of her Son, Jesus Christ. Over the centuries, as saints and theologians reflected on how Mary pondered and treasured the sacred events from the life of Christ in her holy heart, as attested in Scripture, her pure heart was recognized as something to be imitated. Devotion to Our Lady's purity of heart began to flower, so much so that in the 17th century St. John Eudes promoted it alongside the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The devotion rose to a new level after the apparitions of Our Lady of Fatima, when Mary revealed an image of her Immaculate Heart to Lucia, Jacinta, and Francisco. Framed images available in the Manly Piety Store $10

Movie of the month "Restless Heart" Set in the 5th century, the stories of 2 other great Saints, Monica and Ambrose, are also portrayed. Only $10 @ the piety store.

CD of the month "Relativism and her 3 ugly sisters" – Fr Mitch Pacwa provides very interesting insights into the Trojan horses of our times and how a society which does not acknowledge that Jesus Christ is the way, the truth and the life (John 14:6) is destined to repeat history. Interested to learn more? @ the piety store only $5.

Happy Father's Day to all our Fathers, Grandfathers, Great Grandfathers and friends... God's blessings always.

A Prayer for Fathers

Heavenly Father, we praise you for the gift of our fathers and those who have been father-figures to us.

We thank you for the life and love they have brought to our world. May they be strengthened in virtue and faith so that they might give glory to you through their lives of service. Amen.

Combined Choral Celebration

On Sunday 8th September 2019 at 10.30am mass, the Choir of Lower North Shore will join with our own Parish Choir for a combined choral celebration of the 23rd

Sunday in Ordinary time. Because the date is also traditionally acknowledged as the Nativity of Mary, Mother of God, the choirs will be singing two Marian pieces, Arcadelt's Ave Maria and Help of Christians, Guard this Land by Richard Connolly and James McAuley. We are very hopeful that Richard, one of our parishioners, will be in attendance. At the organ will be Dr James Forsyth who acted as technical consultant when our magnificent Danish organ was commissioned by Fr Denis Ryan in the mid 1980's. Conducting the combined choir will be Lisa Lewis, Director of Music from the Parish of Lower North Shore.

This week is the final preparation session for the children who will be Confirmed next weekend. Please remember them in your prayers.

During the week we held our sash making session in preparation for Confirmation. A Big thankyou to Val Buono who prepared and coordinated the children's chosen saints names on the sashes.

BAPTISM

During the month of August 12 babies were Baptised in the Parish. Last weekend we welcomed the families of the 7 older children who will be Baptised this Sunday.

St Mary's School News...

Father's Day It was wonderful to have so many of our fathers, and those people who are like fathers to us, celebrate Father's Day with us on Friday morning. All our visitors were able to enjoy breakfast in the Denison Street Playground and afterwards join the students in the hall for our Father's Day liturgy, which was led by Year 1. Our classrooms were then open for the students to share their learning with their fathers. It was a fabulous morning.

Family Mass Our August Family Mass was held on Sunday the 25th August. It was well attended, and wonderful to see many families across K-6 join us to celebrate this mass and enjoy the sausage sizzle afterwards. We thank Shelley Larkin and her band of parent helpers who prepared, cooked and served the BBQ for us and all the children who had a role in preparing and celebrating this mass.

Mission Project Workshop On Friday 6th September the Year 6 Mission Leadership Team will be attending the Mission Project Workshop which is an initiative of the Northern Beaches Learning Community of Catholic Schools. This will be held at Our Lady of Good Counsel, Forestville. One of the key goals of this initiative is to strengthen our students' connection to, and involvement in the parish by linking into existing parish outreach projects and social justice initiatives. The students are looking forward to the day and sharing what they learn with you all on their return.

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time – YEAR C

First Reading Sirach 3:17-20, 28-29 (JB)

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

Humble yourself and you will find favour with the Lord.

My son, be gentle in carrying out your business, and you will be better loved than a lavish giver. The greater you are, the more you should behave humbly, and then you will find favour with the Lord; for great though the power of the Lord is, he accepts the homage of the humble. There is no cure for the proud man's malady, since an evil growth has taken root in him. The heart of a sensible man will reflect on parables, an attentive ear is the sage's dream.

The word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm Ps 67:4-7, 10-11 (JB)

R. God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

The just shall rejoice at the presence of God, they shall exult and dance for joy. O sing to the Lord, make music to his name; rejoice in the Lord, exult at his presence. R.

Father of the orphan, defender of the widow, such is God in his holy place. God gives the lonely a home to live in; he leads the prisoners forth into freedom. R.

You poured down, O God, a generous rain: when your people were starved you gave them new life. It was there that your people found a home, prepared in your goodness, O God, for the poor. R.

Second Reading Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

You have to come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God.

What you have come to is nothing known to the senses: not a blazing fire, or a gloom turning to total darkness, or a storm; or trumpeting thunder or the great voice speaking which made everyone that heard it beg that no more should be said to them. But what you have come to is Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem where the millions of angels have gathered for the festival, with the whole Church in which everyone is a 'first-born son' and a citizen of heaven. You have come to God himself, the supreme Judge, and been placed with spirits of the saints who have been made perfect; and to Jesus, the mediator who brings a new covenant.

The word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation Matthew 11:29 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Take my yoke upon you; learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart.

Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 14:1, 7-14 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

All who exalt themselves shall be humbled and all who humble themselves shall be exalted

On a sabbath day Jesus had gone for a meal to the house of one of the leading Pharisees; and they watched him closely. He then told the guests a parable, because he had noticed how they picked the places of honour. He said this, 'When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take your seat in the place of honour. A more distinguished person than you may have been invited, and the person who invited you both may come and say, "Give up your place to this man." And then, to your embarrassment, you would have to go and take the lowest place. No; when you are a guest, make your way to the lowest place and sit there, so that, when your host comes, he may say, "My friend, move up higher." In that way, everyone with you at the table will see you honoured. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

Then he said to his host, 'When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not ask your friends, brothers, relations or rich neighbours, for fear they repay your courtesy by inviting you in return. No; when you have a party, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; that they cannot pay you back means that you are fortunate, because repayment will be made to you when the virtuous rise again.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
