

MANLY FRESHWATER CATHOLIC PARISH

Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches

Twenty Second Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ 28th August 2022

Gospel Reflection Gospel humility (a key theme of Luke's Gospel) is not a religious sado-masochism motivated by self-hatred or obsequiousness. As taught by Christ, humility is an awareness of who we are before God; of our constant need for God and our dependence on God for everything; of the limitlessness of God's love and forgiveness. The Jesus of the Gospel, "who, though in the form of God, humbled himself . . . accepting even death on the cross" is the perfect model of the humble servant of God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus calls us to embrace the attitude of seeking out the "lowest places" at table for the sake of others, promising that at the banquet of heaven God will exalt such humility. In teaching us to invite to our tables "those who cannot repay you," Jesus challenges us to imitate the love of God: doing what is right, good and just for the joy of doing so, not out of a sense of duty, self-interest or the need to feel superior or in control.

Last week the students of St Mary's enjoyed Science Week! Mrs MacKinnon and the Library/IT Year 6 leadership team held a 'Science Brain Breaks' morning tea for all students throughout the week. Dr Alana Wylie from Eye Heart Science had a captivating talk about science for the entire school.

This week we celebrated Book Week and held our long awaited Book Parade with the theme 'Dreaming with eyes open.' We had some very creative costumes and we enjoyed a themed lunch! Australian author, Belinda Murrell spoke to all the children and ran a writing workshop for our older students. Thank you, Mrs Parisi, for such a fantastic week!

St Paul's College News...

The Eucharist has returned to the Cardinal's Palace at St Paul's Catholic College with Fr John celebrating Mass with a class of Year 9 students.

Fr John has celebrated Mass a number of times at the College this year, beginning in the Br Simmons Theatre, but this was the first Mass since the refurbishment of the old dining room in Cardinal Moran's residence into a chapel for students and staff.

Bringing the Mass back to the College has been a priority for the St Paul's community to normalise the place of the Church in the daily life of the boys.

Broken Bay Neighbourhoods

Voice of the People - Vox Populi

18 August 2022

In the current socio-economic climate, it is understandable we focus on cost of living increases at the supermarket and at the pump, increasing interest rates, rises in utility costs, inflation and a shortage of a whole range of goods. All these factors are also key determinants of health. Having access to material and social resources and being an active member of society are all important factors for maintaining good health.

However, this week a revised list of humanitarian crises around the world from a number of relief, aid and rescue agencies was jolting.

At certain times during every year the direct impact of international events is brought into sharp focus in our media. It may be violent conflict, political unrest, food insecurity, water scarcity, human trafficking, displaced children and families. The COVID-19 pandemic has alone reversed decades of progress.

This year, 274 million people worldwide are dependent on humanitarian aid.

Aid agencies now rank their humanitarian programs most in need. Some of the countries and regions always seem to be on the list – Democratic Republic of Congo, Afghanistan, Yemen, Sudan, South Sudan, Syria, Myanmar, Somalia and Ethiopia. Others not so familiar such as Central Sahel with the countries of Burkina Feso and Niger.

And more recently Ukraine. The Russian invasion of Ukraine started on 24 February this year.

Official UN figures put the death toll at more than 5,000, wounded at more than 7,000 and an estimated 13 million people displaced inside Ukraine and more than five million people seeking refuge in another country.

Will we ever know the real toll? Or the long-term toll on the mental health of the people of Ukraine?

A further development this week from international political observers – could the next site of Russian-fuelled conflict be Bosnia-Herzegovina?

The issues are complex and occur in areas that great powers either influence or increase their objective to become an even greater force.

We may well ask what can we do here, in our Diocese of Broken Bay that can make any difference.

We can pray.

Our own challenges are many, varied and real, however Bishop Anthony Randazzo has asked we also remember in our prayers the people who cannot complain about the price of food because there is none, or the cost of housing or education because there is none.

He has asked that as missionary disciples we open our hearts in prayer for those living in an often hurtful and neglectful world so different to ours.

Enhancing Catholic Education in the Northern Beaches

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our schools, teachers, staff, parents, Parish and the wider community for their participation and commitment in the review process and for helping to identify opportunities to strengthen and enhance Catholic Education in the Southern Peninsula of the Northern Beaches.

The next stage of the review will commence and information and updates on this project will continue to be available from Our Strategy Page on our Catholic Schools Broken Bay website.

"The South Peninsula Project has been a wonderful opportunity for all members of our community to have their voices heard. All members of our community, including students, staff, parents and Parish in both our primary and secondary schools had the chance to reflect on what we do well as a school community and areas we could potentially improve. It has been wonderful to see the whole community join together for the future direction of our South Peninsula Schools."

Twenty-second Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year C

First Reading Sirach 3:17-20, 28-29 (JB)

A reading from the book of Ecclesiasticus

Humble yourself and you will find favour with the Lord.

My son, be gentle in carrying out your business, and you will be better loved than a lavish giver. The greater you are, the more you should behave humbly, and then you will find favour with the Lord; for great though the power of the Lord is, he accepts the homage of the humble. There is no cure for the proud man's malady, since an evil growth has taken root in him. The heart of a sensible man will reflect on parables, an attentive ear is the sage's dream.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 67:4-7, 10-11 (JB)

R. God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor.

The just shall rejoice at the presence of God, they shall exult and dance for joy. O sing to the Lord, make music to his name; rejoice in the Lord, exult at his presence. R.

Father of the orphan, defender of the widow, such is God in his holy place. God gives the lonely a home to live in; he leads the prisoners forth into freedom. R.

You poured down, O God, a generous rain: when your people were starved you gave them new life. It was there that your people found a home, prepared in your goodness, O God, for the poor. R.

Second Reading Hebrews 12:18-19, 22-24

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

You have to come to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God.

What you have come to is nothing known to the senses: not a blazing fire, or a gloom turning to total darkness, or a storm; or trumpeting thunder or the great voice speaking which made everyone that heard it beg that no more should be said to them. But what you have come to is Mount Zion and the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem where the millions of angels have gathered for the festival, with the whole Church in which everyone is a 'first-born son' and a citizen of heaven. You have come to God himself, the supreme Judge, and been placed with spirits of the saints who have been made perfect; and to Jesus, the mediator who brings a new covenant.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Matthew 11:29 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Take my yoke upon you; learn from me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart.

Alleluia!

Gospel Reading Luke 14:1, 7-14 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

All who exalt themselves shall be humbled and all who humble themselves shall be exalted

On a sabbath day Jesus had gone for a meal to the house of one of the leading Pharisees; and they watched him closely. He then told the guests a parable, because he had noticed how they picked the places of honour. He said this, "When someone invites you to a wedding feast, do not take your seat in the place of honour. A more distinguished person than you may have been invited, and the person who invited you both may come and say, "Give up your place to this man." And then, to your embarrassment, you would have to go and take the lowest place. No; when you are a guest, make your way to the lowest place and sit there, so that, when your host comes, he may say, "My friend, move up higher." In that way, everyone with you at the table will see you honoured. For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and the man who humbles himself will be exalted.'

Then he said to his host, 'When you give a lunch or a dinner, do not ask your friends, brothers, relations or rich neighbours, for fear they repay your courtesy by inviting you in return. No; when you have a party, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; that they cannot pay you back means that you are fortunate, because repayment will be made to you when the virtuous rise again.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
