The First Reading is usually attributed to King Solomon, shows God as one who is always ready to grant the gift of wisdom to those who truly seek it.

The Second Reading is taken from St Paul's letter to Philemon, a leader in the Colossian church. Paul is writing about slavery. He knows he cannot do much to change this deep-rooted social structure but seeks instead to change people's hearts. He invites the recipients of his letter to see everything and everyone in relation to Christ, in whom there is only unity.

The Psalm reminds us that, compared to the wisdom of God, our greatness is as nothing – yet the Lord is a faithful refuge for us. We are disciples of the Lord Jesus: we have chosen his way as our way. In today's gospel he reminds us that this is no easy choice for his way led to the cross. He reminds us: 'Whoever does not bear his own cross and come after me, cannot be my disciple.' Discipleship embraces every aspect of our lives. Discipleship means that we have to plan for the best way to live our lives in the light of his truth.

Created in the likeness of God we are created good. In each of us is the desire to nourish what is good and best in us. We wish to do the same for our children or anyone in our care. We nourish the good in ourselves by prayer, by good deeds and an honourable way of life. Today he asks us to know ourselves, just like the man building a tower plans what he has and what he can do.

Our goodness in life is a gift from God. We seek to find goodness also in each other. The gospel is full of people trying to do their best and learning with fresh starts and after their mistakes how to follow Jesus. Goodness is vulnerable. We can try our best and fail. We make promises that don't last despite our best efforts. In the eyes of God goodness is in what we do and in what we try to do. God sees the goodness of the heart.

In the coming days, let us place ourselves within the friendship of the Lord, which is both a place of refuge and source of strength. May we go forward in joy as we try to embrace the crosses of our lives. Pathways to God | Donal Neary sj 2019

Combined Choral Celebration

This Sunday at 10.30am mass, the Choir of Lower North Shore will join with our own Parish Choir for a combined choral celebration of the 23rd Sunday in Ordinary time.

Because the date is also traditionally acknowledged as the Nativity of Mary, Mother of God, the choirs will be singing two Marian pieces, Arcadelt's Ave Maria and Help of Christians, Guard this Land by Richard Connolly and James McAuley. We are very hopeful that Richard, one of our parishioners, will be in attendance. At the organ will be Dr James Forsyth who acted as technical consultant when our magnificent Danish organ was commissioned by Fr Denis Ryan in the mid 1980's. Conducting the combined choir will be Lisa Lewis, Director of Music from the Parish of Lower North Shore.

PIETY SORE

DVD – Padre Pio Miracle Man

There are few Saints which God has performed so many miracles through like Padre Pio. Miraculous healings, soul reading, levitation, bilocation (to be in 2 places at once) and the stigmata. This film captures his intense faith, deep spiritual concern for others, the spiritual attacks he experienced and persecution he suffered from the Church. This is an outstanding feature film for only $10 @ the piety store.

CD – Tackling the new Atheism – Deacon Harold Burke Sivers

Deacon Harold Burke Sivers lays open the gaping holes in the logic behind "Atheism". Many people today are misled and deceived by the rhetoric and misinformation. Deacon Sivers discusses how the science on the creation of the universe is supported by a theistic world view, and exposes the false historical narratives, beliefs and tactics of prominent Atheists. As this CD shows, when one drills down into the detail, belief in God is reasonable and the new Atheism does not make sense.

The Church dedicates the month of September to Our Lady of Sorrows.

This devotion recalls the Blessed Virgin Mary's spiritual martyrdom in virtue of her perfect union with the Passion of Christ. This was her role in salvation history, and what merited her place as the spiritual Mother of all Christians. This is symbolized by a single sword, or seven swords, piercing Mary's suffering heart, as foretold in Simeon's prophecy. Traditionally the Church meditates on the "Seven Sorrows" of our Blessed Mother: the prophecy of Simeon; the Holy Family's flight into Egypt; the loss of the Child Jesus for three days; the meeting of Mary and Jesus as he carried his cross; Jesus' crucifixion and death; Jesus' sacred body taken down from the cross; and Jesus' burial. The feast of Our Lady of Sorrows is September 15th.

Find the path to God

23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time – YEAR C

First Reading Wisdom 9:13-18 (JB)

A reading from the book of Wisdom

Who can comprehend the will of God?

What man can know the intentions of God? Who can divine the will of the Lord? The reasonings of mortals are unsure and our intentions unstable; for a perishable body presses down the soul, and this tent of clay weighs down the teeming mind. It is hard enough for us to work out what is on earth, laborious to know what lies within our reach; who, then, can discover what is in the heavens? As for your intention, who could have learnt it, had you not granted Wisdom and sent your holy spirit from above? Thus have the paths of those on earth been straightened and men been taught what pleases you, and saved, by Wisdom.

The word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm Ps 89:3-6, 12-14, 17

R. In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

You turn men back in to dust and say: 'Go back, sons of men.' To your eyes a thousand years are like yesterday, come and gone, no more than a watch in the night. R.

You sweep men away like a dream, like grass which springs up in the morning. In the morning it springs up and flowers: by evening it withers and fades. R.

Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants. R.

In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. R.

Second Reading Philemon 1: 9-10, 12-17

A reading from the letter of St Paul to Philemon

Receive him, not as a slave anymore, but as a very dear brother.

This is Paul writing, an old man now and, what is more, still a prisoner of Christ Jesus. I am appealing to you for a child of mine, whose father I became while wearing these chains: I mean Onesimus. I am sending him back to you, and with him - I could say - a part of my own self. I should have liked to keep him with me; he could have been a substitute for you, to help me while I am in the chains that the Good News has brought me. However, I did not want to do anything without your consent; it would have been forcing your act of kindness, which should be spontaneous. I know you have been deprived of Onesimus for a time, but it was only so that you could have him back for ever, not as a slave any more, but something much better than a slave, a dear brother; especially dear to me, but how much more to you, as a blood-brother as well as a brother in the Lord. So if all that we have in common means anything to you, welcome him as you would me.

The word of the Lord All: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation Ps 118:135

Alleluia, alleluia!

Let your face shine on your servant, and teach me your laws.

Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 14:25-33

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

All who do not renounce their possessions cannot be my disciples.

Great crowds accompanied Jesus on his way and he turned and spoke to them. 'If any man comes to me without hating his father, mother, wife, children, brothers, sisters, yes, and his own life too, he cannot be my disciple. Anyone who does not carry his cross and come after me cannot be my disciple. 'And indeed, which of you here, intending to build a tower, would not first sit down and work out the cost to see if he had enough to complete it? Otherwise, if he laid the foundation and then found himself unable to finish the work, the onlookers would all start making fun of him and saying, "Here is a man who started to build and was unable to finish." Or again, what king marching to war against another king would not first sit down and consider whether with ten thousand men he could stand up to the other who advanced against him with twenty thousand? If not, then while the other king was still a long way off, he would send envoys to sue for peace. So in the same way, none of you can be my disciple unless he gives up all his possessions.'
