*25th Sunday in Ordinary Time
22nd September 2019*

This week's readings challenge us to reflect on our attitude towards money. It should never displace our generous and just God from being at the centre of our lives.

In the First Reading, Amos attacks those who take advantage of the poor and attempts to enslave them. God will remember their evil deeds.

The Psalm calls us to praise the Lord who from the height of his throne in heaven bends down to lift up the lowly and set them in the company of princes.

The Second Reading stresses that God wants everyone to be saved. So, we are to pray for all, especially for those with authority over others in business or government.

In the Gospel extract, Jesus tells us to be careful with money. Riches can rule us as a master would a slave, preventing us from using our God-given freedom to love and serve the Lord. Being faithful in small things helps us to focus on the 'genuine riches' in our lives.

The call to the Church is to care as Jesus cared. This week, I might ask God to help me be more aware of the real riches in my life, and better able to love and serve the Lord through that.

PIETY SORE

DVD – Padre Pio Miracle Man There are few Saints which God has performed so many miracles through like Padre Pio. Miraculous healings, soul reading, levitation, bilocation (to be in 2 places at once) and the stigmata. This film captures his intense faith, deep spiritual concern for others, the spiritual attacks he experienced and persecution he suffered from the Church. This is an outstanding feature film for only $10 @ the piety store.

CD – Tackling the new Atheism – Deacon Harold Burke Sivers Deacon Harold Burke Sivers lays open the gaping holes in the logic behind "Atheism". Many people today are misled and deceived by the rhetoric and misinformation. Deacon Sivers discusses how the science on the creation of the universe is supported by a theistic world view, and exposes the false historical narratives, beliefs and tactics of prominent Atheists.

As this CD shows, when one drills down into the detail, belief in God is reasonable and the new Atheism does not make sense.

CATHOLIC MISSION 2019 Church Appeal – Ghana this weekend

Sr Stan Mumuni is at the forefront of the Church's work in reaching out to children in need in Ghana. As the director of the Nazareth Home for God's Children, Sister Stan works endlessly to provide education, healthcare and a safe home for children rescued from life-threatening situations.

In line with traditional beliefs, in parts of Ghana, children born with a disability, or whose mother passed during childbirth, are considered to be 'spirit children' and thus at risk of being harmed or killed. The Church in Ghana is dedicated to protecting these children and educating families to ensure every child has a chance to live a full life. The Nazareth Home for God's Children is among the pioneers in this crucial mission.

Today you have the opportunity to personally partner with the Church in Ghana and offer monthly support to this essential work. All gifts will be directed to life-saving projects for children in need. Your one-off gift today is also very much appreciated and will make a great difference.

Donation envelopes are available in the pews.

We welcome our speaker Roza who has worked at Catholic Mission for 11 years, she works to connect people in schools, parishes and communities to the global work of mission.

Roza has lived in Thailand as a Marist International care-worker and spent time across South East Asia working with young people and communities. She has presented leadership and management courses, vision and planning workshops, faith formation programs and mission spirituality sessions.

St John the Baptist School News...

Last week we celebrated our last Family Mass for Term Three, hosted by Year Five. Well done to all of the students who participated in the mass by volunteering to read, present the Offertory Procession and by joining in with our hymns and responses. Josh Willard did a wonderful job, as always with his musical talents. A big thank you to all of the parent volunteers who assisted in preparing and serving the tasty BBQ supper. Family Mass is a simple way for SJB families and parish members to join together and strengthen our connections as a community.

Next Friday 27th September St John the Baptist will be hosting a Vinnies Fundraiser Mufti Day. All children are invited to dress in mufti clothes and bring a gold coin donation that will go towards supporting St Vincent de Paul. After lunch our students from Kindergarten to Year Six will participate in the much anticipated Whole School Jump Off in support of Jump Rope for Heart.

25th Sunday of Ordinary Time, Year C

Try to decipher this teaching that Jesus gave to his disciples. Draw yourself listening to Jesus.

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time – YEAR C

First Reading

Amos 8:4-7 (JB)

A reading from the prophet Amos

The Lord God spoke against those who buy the poor for money.

Listen to this, you who trample on the needy and try to suppress the poor people of the country, you who say, 'When will New Moon be over so that we can sell our corn, and sabbath, so that we can market our wheat? Then by lowering the bushel, raising the shekel, by swindling and tampering with the scales, we can buy up the poor for money, and the needy for a pair of sandals, and get a price even for the sweepings of the wheat.' The Lord swears it by the pride of Jacob, 'Never will I forget a single thing you have done.'

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 112:1-2, 4-8 (JB)

R. Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

Praise, O servants of the Lord, praise the name of the Lord! May the name of the Lord be blessed both now and for evermore! R.

High above all nations is the Lord, above the heavens his glory. Who is like the Lord, our God, who has risen on high to his throne yet stoops from the heights to look down, to look down upon heaven and earth? R.

From the dust he lifts up the lowly, from the dungheap he raises the poor to set him in the company of princes, yes, with the princes of his people. R.

Second Reading 1 Timothy 2:1-8 (JB)

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to Timothy

Let prayers be offered to God for everyone; he wants all people to be saved.

My advice is that, first of all, there should be prayers offered for everyone - petitions, intercessions and thanksgiving - and especially for kings and others in authority, so that we may be able to live religious and reverent lives in peace and quiet. To do this is right, and will please God our saviour: he wants everyone to be saved and reach full knowledge of the truth. For there is only one God, and there is only one mediator between God and mankind, himself a man, Christ Jesus, who sacrificed himself as a ransom for them all. He is the evidence of this, sent at the appointed time, and I have been named a herald and apostle of it and - I am telling the truth and no lie - a teacher of the faith and the truth to the pagans. In every place, then, I want the men to lift their hands up reverently in prayer, with no anger or argument.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

2 Corinthians 8:9 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus Christ was rich but he became poor, to make you rich out of his poverty.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 16:10-13 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

You cannot be slaves both of God and of money.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The man who can be trusted in little things can be trusted in great; the man who is dishonest in little things will be dishonest in great. If then you cannot be trusted with money, that tainted thing, who will trust you with genuine riches? And if you cannot be trusted with what is not yours, who will give you what is your very own? 'No servant can be the slave of two masters: he will either hate the first and love the second, or treat the first with respect and the second with scorn. You cannot be the slave both of God and of money.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
