

MANLY FRESHWATER CATHOLIC PARISH

Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time – 3rd October 2021

Dear friends,

As we all look forward to returning to Sunday Mass and the Sacraments, I need to acknowledge, saying Mass without your presence in the Church, even though I try to imagine that you are there, is becoming a real struggle. I miss you, and your nonverbal feedback which is so important when celebrating the Eucharist and preaching the Word of God.

On Wednesday night we held a zoom Parish Pastoral Council Meeting, as we look forward to resuming our normal community and worshipping life. In brief we discussed the 100 year celebration of St John the Baptist Church, Freshwater on Sunday 21st November; Parish finances and maintenance; Younger Adults Ministry; Reopening of Parish Schools; Christmas Day Lunch. More details in next week's bulletin.

With the reopening of our Churches, it is my sincerest hope that all of you will want to return safely to Sunday Mass and the Sacraments and to the varied ministries that you carry out in the service of the Parish community. We will be in contact with all our Ministers.

The First General Assembly of the Plenary Council of Australia opens this Sunday 3 October with Mass at 2:00pm AEDT from St Mary's Cathedral in Perth. Key moments will be live streamed between 3rd and 10th October. They will include daily Masses, morning prayer and sharing of the fruits of discernment.

Watch the live-streamed Mass and access other information on the Plenary Council website at www.plenarycouncil.catholic.org.au

On page 5 you will see a very encouraging letter in prayerful support of the Plenary Council from the Northern Beaches Uniting Church. God Bless – Fr David

Toiletries Drive

We have been asked through Vinnies if we can help the Aboriginal Catholic Ministry of Sydney with toiletry packs for the communities of Wilcannia, Lightning Ridge and Brewarrina which are experiencing shortages due to Covid.

If you would like to help we will have a drive-thru drop off zone at Freshwater Church on Saturday morning 2nd October between 10am and 12 noon attended by Mary Ann Marles.

Bruce Whittet from Manly conference will be at the Manly church car park (entrance via Raglan St) with a drive-thru drop off zone on 2nd October between 10am and 11am.

We are looking for donations of toothpaste, shampoo, conditioners, toothbrushes, razors and deodorants for men and women.

If you would like to help and need them to be picked up, please phone Mick 0402890125.

Thank you all for your wonderful support to all the needy families.

God Bless Mick O'Farrell

Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that you are present in the most Blessed Sacrament.
I love you above all things,
and I desire to receive you into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive you sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace you as if you were already there
and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.
Amen.

Christian spirituality proposes moderation and simplicity that allows us to stop and appreciate the small things, to be grateful for the opportunities life affords us, to be spiritually detached from what we possess, and not succumb to sadness for what we lack.

October IS World Mission Month

In three weeks, Catholic Mission will share the essential mission work of Sister Chalaad and the Good Shepherd Sisters in Bangkok, Thailand, as they reach out to vulnerable mothers and their babies during their time of need. You will have the opportunity to respond to this great work and help Sister Chalaad reach out to more mothers and their babies.

Broken Bay Message for BBNeighbourhoods 27 September 2021

My dear sisters and brothers
in Christ,

Last Sunday I had the joy of joining with the Catholic community at Asquith in the Parish of Ku-ring-gai Chase for the commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of Saint Patrick's church. It was a somewhat bittersweet moment. When Archbishop Freeman opened and blessed the church building on 19 September 1971, the local community turned out in great numbers. Fifty years later, due to the COVID pandemic and the associated government health orders, the local community participated via livestreaming. It was hardly the way any of us envisaged celebrating this significant event in the life of Saint Patrick's community. And yet, we did celebrate. The government restrictions might keep us from our church buildings, but they do not keep us from being the Church, the body of Christ, the living disciples of Jesus our Saviour.

Over these past few months of physical separation, I have become more deeply aware of the spiritually connected people that we are. As Saint Mark reminds us in the Gospel, in our faith we are "for Christ" because we "belong to Christ" (cf. Mark 9:40-41). It is easy to fall into the trap of focusing on the negative and painful dimensions of life, especially when there is so much suffering around us. And yet, as I read the history of the church building and the parish, I could not help but be inspired by the grit and determination, along with the faith and zeal for the Lord, of Christ's lay faithful – women and men, the priests, and the religious – who claim Saint Patrick's as their spiritual home.

The Catholic community at Asquith has long made Saint Patrick's a Centre of worship; a home of spiritual devotion; the locus of the sacraments; a place of community gathering; and the launch pad for mission so that Jesus Christ is rightly our beginning and end. The early challenges that pressed upon the first Catholics who gathered there almost 100 years ago, never held them back. With their indomitable spirit, fortified by tremendous faith, they forged ahead not merely to build buildings, but to foster and support their mission as Catholic Christians in the world.

The celebration on Sunday was one of recognition of those who have gone before us. It was rightly a celebration of thanksgiving for the many good works of God in and through the community. It was and still is an inspiration to the whole community of the Church of Broken Bay for our ongoing mission and our imminent return to worship in our church buildings.

Our work of evangelisation and catechesis has never seemed so urgent as what it is in these times. It is not a work for this one or that, for him or her, for old or young. The work to be taken up, through the power of the Holy Spirit, belongs to God and each one of us baptized into Christ has a responsibility and a duty to be co-workers with the Lord.

My brothers and sisters, all our parishes have the love of Christ as their foundation stone. It was because of His love that our forebears, priests and people, gathered as a community of Catholic communities. Faith was the centre of their lives, their families, their mission in the world.

My prayer is that the occasion of the golden Jubilee of Saint Patrick's church at Asquith might provide for us an opportunity for deep and prayerful reflection upon the past. That, in a strange time and circumstance, we will take every opportunity to reconnect in the communion of Christ, despite the challenges of this year. And that as we return physically to one another, we will have a deeper sense of our spiritual communion as disciples of the Lord, as living members of the Catholic Church. May God bless you and your families, and may Saint Patrick continue to intercede for us.

+Anthony

Dear Father Taylor

The Australian Plenary Council 3-10 October 2021

I am writing to you on behalf of the Northern Beaches Uniting Church to let you know that our community of Uniting Churches, Cromer, Freshwater, Manly and Balgowlah, stand in ecumenical solidarity with you as you engage in this significant period of discernment.

We would like to share with you a prayer written by Rev John Hughes, a Uniting Minister in Adelaide, which we will be praying during our online Sunday service.

Creator God, in your great love you have given us the gift of your Spirit. As the Roman Catholic Church in Australia enters this time of discernment, we pray that your Spirit would guide and encourage those involved in the Plenary Council. May we all stand together as we seek to be your people on the way of Jesus. We pray this through Christ Our Redeemer. Amen

Rev Sharon Hollis, President, Assembly of the Uniting Church of Australia, has also written to Bishop Coleridge, President – Australia Catholic Bishops Conference as well as Bishop Michael McKenna, Chairman – Bishops Commission for Christian Unity and Inter-religious Dialogue, to assure them of the prayers of the Uniting Church for the Plenary Council.

Please accept this letter and prayer as a sign of our support and encouragement.

Grace and peace,

John Barker

WELCOME TO THE 27TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In our Gospel today, Jesus gives a comment on marriage, cutting through the unfair practices of the time and returning to God's original plan. Jesus quotes the book of Genesis (our first Reading) and emphasises the unity of married couples, as well God's role as an integral part at the core of that unity.

GOSPEL READING: MK 10:7-8

"For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two shall become one flesh."

Read the full text at

<https://www.universalis.com/Australia/mass.htm>

REFLECTION:

"God intended for women and men to be joined together in marriage. Among the purposes of marriage is the raising of children. By welcoming children and fostering their relationship with God, parents and families bear witness to the Kingdom of God."

PRAYER:

Lord Jesus, we ask you to pour out your love and grace over all our families. We pray particularly for comfort in those families suffering from loss and separation, that they may experience your mercy in their lives. We pray through the intercession of Mary, Our Mother and St Joseph, Your earthly father. Amen

FEAST:

7 October - Our Lady of the Rosary:

This feast celebrates Mary's intercession through the praying of the Rosary during the Battle of Lepanto. In this month of the Rosary, successive popes have urged the faithful to pray this powerful prayer. It is a form of contemplative prayer inspired by biblical accounts of the life of Christ, and expressed through mysteries and prayed in union with Mary the Mother of God.

27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

Genesis 2:18-24 (JB)

A reading from the book of Genesis
They were two in one flesh.

The Lord God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone. I will make him a helpmate.' So from the soil the Lord God fashioned all the wild beasts and all the birds of heaven. These he brought to the man to see what he would call them; each one was to bear the name the man would give it. The man gave names to all the cattle, all the birds of heaven and all the wild beasts. But no helpmate suitable for man was found for him. So the Lord God made the man fall into a deep sleep. And while he slept, he took one of his ribs and enclosed it in flesh. The Lord God built the rib he had taken from the man into a woman, and brought her to the man. The man exclaimed: 'This at last is bone from my bones and flesh from my flesh! This is to be called woman, for this was taken from man.' This is why a man leaves his father and mother and joins himself to his wife, and they become one body.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 127 (JB)

R. May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives.

O blessed are those who fear the Lord and walk in his ways! by the labour of your hands you shall eat. You will be happy and prosper. R.

Your wife will be like a fruitful vine in the heart of your house; your children like shoots of the olive, around your table. R.

Indeed thus shall be blessed the man who fears the Lord. May the Lord bless you from Zion in a happy Jerusalem all the days of your life! May you see your children's children. On Israel, peace! R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 2:9-11 (JB)

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews
He who sanctifies, and those who are sanctified have one origin.

We see in Jesus one who was for a short while made lower than the angels and is now crowned with glory and splendour because he submitted to death; by God's grace he had to experience death for all mankind.

As it was his purpose to bring a great many of his sons into glory, it was appropriate that God, for whom everything exists and through whom everything exists, should make perfect, through suffering, the leader who would take them to their salvation. For the one who sanctifies, and the ones who are sanctified, are of the same stock; that is why he openly calls them brothers.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

1 John 4:12 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

If we love one another, God will live in us in perfect love.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 10:2-16 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

What God has joined together, no one must divide.

Some Pharisees approached Jesus and asked, 'Is it against the law for a man to divorce his wife?' They were testing him. He answered them, 'What did Moses command you?' 'Moses allowed us' they said 'to draw up a writ of dismissal and so to divorce.' Then Jesus said to them, 'It was because you were so unteachable that he wrote this commandment for you. But from the beginning of creation God made them male and female. This is why a man must leave father and mother, and the two become one body. They are no longer two, therefore, but one body. So then, what God has united, man must not divide.' Back in the house the disciples questioned him again about this, and he said to them. 'The man who divorces his wife and marries another is guilty of adultery against her. And if a woman divorces her husband and marries another she is guilty of adultery too.'

People were bringing little children to him, for him to touch them. The disciples turned them away, but when Jesus saw this he was indignant and said to them, 'Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. I tell you solemnly, anyone who does not welcome the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it.' Then he put his arms round them, laid his hands on them and gave them his blessing.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
