The person in today's Gospel appears to have the right attitude but look closely at his question. 'What must I do to inherit eternal life?' He sounds like a typical commodity broker in today's society. His attitude is: if I want to achieve something then I just have to do certain things; wear the right clothes, have the right car, go to the right university, live in the right neighbourhood. He mixes this attitude with the sense of having a right to eternal life as if it is his due inheritance.

Unfortunately, God's reign, or as this Gospel terms it, eternal life, is not a commodity in a market economy. Eternal life is a freely given gift of God. It does not depend on what is possible for us to do, as if we can therefore earn it, or have a right to it, but on the loving possibility of what God can do for us.

We stand before God's gratuitous love as empty-handed recipients. We neither earn nor deserve such love and this is a discomfiting awareness. Jesus' response to the man offers him the opportunity to know this attitude of his own neediness and emptiness before God.

The Kingdom that Jesus offers is a wealth that makes all other things pale into insignificance. Down through history, many have valued this even more than life itself.

In the Gospel passage today, Jesus read the deep desires of the young man. The Gospel says, 'Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him.' Knowing his deeper self, Jesus then offered him a way of achieving these desires – but it involved a choice that this man was not able to make. Each of us is called to live more deeply in a relationship with Jesus who looks on us, loves us and calls us to write the law of love on our hearts in such a way that there will be justice for all people.

CATHOLIC MISSION APPEAL

Sunday 21st October

'How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of the messenger who announces peace, who brings good news.'

Next weekend our parish will be holding the annual Catholic Mission Church Appeal. This year we are invited to help to heal a nation through education in Myanmar. Led by Cardinal Charles Maung Bo, the Church is developing an alternative system of quality education, with comprehensive teacher training programs and the establishment of new schools, especially in remote areas. It has been called an "education revolution", and the potential impact is far reaching. Please come prepared next weekend and give generously to this important work. You will have an opportunity to become an integral part of this inspiring work by joining as a monthly giving partner. This regular contribution will directly support education in Myanmar.

STONEMWORK CONSERVATION PROJECT commenced this week

Our planned stonework conservation works necessary to protect our beautiful Church here at St. Mary Immaculate continues.

The main area affected will be the Altar end of the Church outside walls (facing the sea) and this will result in the access around that end of the outside church being "closed off" so that this vital restoration work can be undertaken in the safest manner to school children, teachers and parishioners. An area adjacent to the Church will have bollards and tape in place to ensure safe movement of Students and Parishioners.

This area will become a fully supervised "construction site" for the 2 months restoration period. This small inconvenience will be worth the effort to strengthen and preserve our Church building from the constant salt air and weather, that hits that end of the building, from the seaside.

Craft Group meets each week on Tuesday mornings from 10am to 12noon in the Parish Center, Manly. We invite you to come along for a cuppa and a chat in a friendly relaxed environment. Bring along your knitting or other craft if you wish.

Christian Meditation The form of meditation which we use is a silent, imageless one and we interiorly repeat a prayer word, bringing us to stillness and the presence of God who dwells within us. It does not replace other forms of prayer. Anyone interested in this form of silent prayer is most welcome to attend. We meet each Monday at 6pm in the Parish Centre. Enquiries: Hazel Cottee 0402 052 088 "Be still and know that I am God" (Psalm 46: vs 10)

Lectio Divina- Read his story in the Gospels. Spend time with him. Listen to what he says. Lectio Divina is a traditional way of praying the Scriptures so that the Word of God may penetrate our hearts. Lectio Divina group meets in the Parish Centre on Wednesday mornings at 10am.

These intentions will be offered at the Masses this weekend.

On Sunday 14 Oct 2018, Pope Francis will preside over the canonizations of Pope Paul VI (Pope from 21 June 1963 to his death in 1978) and Msgr. Oscar Romero.

Pope Francis will canonize Pope Paul VI who faced both new and old challenges: He continued Vatican II after Pope John XXIII died, he helped clarify the relationship of authority between the pontiff and the bishops, highlighted the role of the laity and was the first pontiff to travel outside Italy. The other canonization is that of Msgr Oscar Romero. Archbishop of San Salvador; Romero spoke out against poverty, social injustice, assassinations, and torture. In 1980, Romero was assassinated while offering Mass.

SPECIAL PRAYER CAMPAIGN FOR THE CHURCH OCTOBER 2018

During this month of October, the Holy Father asks us and all the faithful for a greater effort in our personal and community prayer. He invites us to pray every day the Holy Rosary with the intention that the Virgin Mary help the Church in these times of crisis, and to pray each day to St. Michael the Archangel that he defend us against the attacks of the Devil. According to spiritual tradition, Michael is the chief of the celestial armies and the protector of the Church (Revelation 12:7-9).

Pope Francis invites us at the conclusion of the Rosary with that most ancient invocation to the Holy Mother of God, "Sub Tuum Praesidium" as well as the traditional prayer to St. Michael ascribed to Pope Leo the XIII

Under your protection

*We fly to Thy protection,
 O holy Mother of God;
 Do not despise our petitions
 in our necessities,
 but deliver us always
 from all dangers,
 O glorious and blessed Virgin. Amen.*

St. Michael prayer

"St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by the power of God, thrus into hell Satan, and all the evil spirits, who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen."

Follow the Lord

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time, Year B

A man met Jesus on the road and asked him how we can have eternal life. Some of the things Jesus says we can do are written on the sign posts below. Fill in the missing words and pictures.

God tells us there are more important things in life than being rich or owning lots of possessions. Write or draw some things that are important in your life.

Complete the crossword - it uses picture as clues instead of words!

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time – YEAR B

First Reading

A reading from the book of Wisdom 7:7-11

In comparison to wisdom, I held riches as nothing.

I prayed, and understanding was given me; I entreated, and the spirit of Wisdom came to me. I esteemed her more than sceptres and thrones; compared with her, I held riches as nothing. I reckoned no priceless stone to be her peer, for compared with her, all gold is a pinch of sand, and beside her silver ranks as mud. I loved her more than health or beauty, preferred her to the light, since her radiance never sleeps. In her company all good things came to me, at her hands riches not to be numbered.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm PS 89:12-17

R. Fill us with your love,
O Lord, and we will sing for joy!

Make us know the shortness of our life that we may gain wisdom of heart. Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever? Show pity to your servants. R.

In the morning, fill us with your love; we shall exult and rejoice all our days. Give us joy to balance our affliction for the years when we knew misfortune. R.

Show forth your works to your servants; let your glory shine on their children. Let the favour of the Lord be upon us: give success to the work of our hands. R.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews 4:12-13

The word of God discerns the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

The word of God is something alive and active: it cuts like any double-edged sword but more finely: it can slip through the place where the soul is divided from the spirit, or joints from the marrow; it can judge the secret emotions and thoughts. No created thing can hide from him; everything is uncovered and open to the eyes of the one to whom we must give account of ourselves.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 10:17-30

Go and sell whatever you have and come follow me.

Jesus was setting out on a journey when a man ran up, knelt before him and put this question to him, 'Good master, what must I do to inherit eternal life?' Jesus said to him, 'Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone. You know the commandments: You must not kill; You must not commit adultery; You must not steal; You must not bring false witness; You must not defraud; Honour your father and mother.' And he said to him, 'Master, I have kept all these from my earliest days.' Jesus looked steadily at him and loved him, and he said, 'There is one thing you lack. Go and sell everything you own and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.' But his face fell at these words and he went away sad, for he was a man of great wealth.

Jesus looked round and said to his disciples, 'How hard it is for those who have riches to enter the kingdom of God!' The disciples were astounded by these words, but Jesus insisted, 'My children,' he said to them, 'how hard it is to enter the kingdom of God! It is easier for a camel to pass through the eye of a needle than for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God.' They were more astonished than ever. 'In that case' they said to one another 'who can be saved?' Jesus gazed at them. 'For men' he said 'it is impossible, but not for God: because everything is possible for God.'

Peter took this up. 'What about us?' he asked him. 'We have left everything and followed you.' Jesus said, 'I tell you solemnly, there is no one who has left house, brothers, sisters, father, children or land for my sake and for the sake of the gospel who will not be repaid a hundred times over, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children and land - not without persecutions - now in this present time and, in the world to come, eternal life.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
