Our readings this week tell of how God, our loving Father, yearns to save us and restore us. He never abandons us. Just as he restored an exiled people to their homeland, he restores sight and clarity of vision to courageous Bartimaeus.

In Mark's Gospel, blind Bartimaeus irks the crowd with his loud shouting until Jesus calls him. He then has courage to leap up and cast off his cloak, telling Jesus what he wants and needs. His sight is restored and, follows Jesus in the new light of his faith. Jesus' attitude in this story is extraordinary. His greatness, his divinity, is expressed here. We can see the respectful love of Jesus, and we know from our own experience that this kind of love can work miracles.

The focus in the Gospel has been on the meaning and demands of discipleship. Just prior to this incident Jesus has spoken to James and John saying to them, 'What do you want me to do for you?' Now he uses the same words, to a blind beggar sitting by the road who is crying out to him in desperation.

James and John were seeking glory, Bartimaeus just wants to see and to gain that he throws away the only thing he owns, his cloak, lest it impede him in his journey to Jesus.

His prayer is granted, he receives perfect sight and his response is to follow Jesus along the way. Jesus is leaving Jericho and heading for Jerusalem and so Bartimaeus is presented to us not simply as a recipient of the healing ministry of Jesus but as the model disciple who begs for sight so that he can follow Jesus to the cross and beyond.

In the gospel, sight is often used as a metaphor for faith, being able to see God at work and to follow in the steps of Jesus. Our faith helps us see the world as God sees it. We see creation as the beauty of God and care for it, and men and women as images of God and we care for them. We must see beyond labels and categories to everyone as a child of God, and our brother and sister. We are called to see our world through 'eyes of faith'.

St Mary's School Mission Project See Beyond Borders

Last month the St Mary's Year 6 Mission and Pastoral Care Leadership Teams took part in a Mission Project workshop which is an initiative of the Peninsula Learning Community of Catholic Schools. One of the key goals of this initiative is to build a mission focus around an Education theme thus enabling the students to develop a plan that they can return to their school to action within their school, parish and wider community. The theme for this year's Mission Project was Education for All.

The students returned from the workshop full of ideas and ready to work on their plan of action which will focus on raising money for and building our connection to 'See Beyond Borders'. SBB focus is on teaching the teachers in Cambodia. St Mary's staff members will be travelling to Cambodia to train teachers in December and money raised will help support them present programs to the teachers of Cambodia. If you would like to help support this wonderful charity please donate today. Year 6 would like to thank Fr Paul Kim for attending the day and supporting them as they move forward with their plan.

30th Sunday in Ordinary Time – YEAR B

NOTE: Readings for the Manly Family Mass will be taken from the Children's Lectionary

First Reading

A reading from the prophet Jeremiah 31:7-9

I shall lead them back in mercy - both the blind and the lame.

The Lord says this: Shout with joy for Jacob! Hail the chief of nations! Proclaim! Praise! Shout! 'The Lord has saved his people, the remnant of Israel!' See, I will bring them back from the land of the North and gather them from the far ends of earth; all of them: the blind and the lame, women with child, women in labour: a great company returning here. They had left in tears, I will comfort them as I lead them back; I will guide them to streams of water, by a smooth path where they will not stumble. For I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born son.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 125

R. The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy.

When the Lord delivered Zion from bondage, it seemed like a dream. Then was our mouth filled with laughter, on our lips there were songs. R.

The heathens themselves said: 'What marvels the Lord worked for them!' What marvels the Lord worked for us! Indeed we were glad. R.

Deliver us, O Lord, from our bondage as streams in dry land. Those who are sowing in tears will sing when they reap. R.

They go out, they go out, full of tears, carrying seed for the sowing: they come back, they come back, full of song, carrying their sheaves. R.

Second Reading

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews 5:1-6

You are a priest forever, in the line of Melchizedek.

Every high priest has been taken out of mankind and is appointed to act for men in their relations with God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins; and so he can sympathise with those who are ignorant or uncertain because he too lives in the limitations of weakness. That is why he has to make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honour on himself, but each one is called by God, as Aaron was. Nor did Christ give himself the glory of becoming high priest, but he had it from the one who said to him: You are my son, today I have become your father, and in another text: You are a priest of the order of Melchizedek, and for ever.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death, and brought us life through his gospel.

Alleluia!

Gospel Reading

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark 10:46-52

Master, grant that I may see.

As Jesus left Jericho with his disciples and a large crowd, Bartimaeus (that is, the son of Timaeus), a blind beggar, was sitting at the side of the road. When he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to shout and to say, 'Son of David, Jesus, have pity on me.' And many of them scolded him and told him to keep quiet, but he only shouted all the louder, 'Son of David, have pity on me.' Jesus stopped and said, 'Call him here.' So they called the blind man. 'Courage,' they said 'get up; he is calling you.' So throwing off his cloak, he jumped up and went to Jesus. Then Jesus spoke, 'What do you want me to do for you?' 'Rabbuni,' the blind man said to him 'Master, let me see again.' Jesus said to him, 'Go; your faith has saved you.' And immediately his sight returned and he followed him along the road.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
