Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches
32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time – 7th November 2021

Dear friends,

Hope you are all well and enjoying the experience of being able to return to our Churches for Mass and prayer. Seeing so many of you is very encouraging.

Bishop Anthony has announced Fr Eliseus Shin has been appointed our second Assistant Priest for the parish commencing mid November 2021. He is presently Assistant Priest at The Lakes Parish with Fr Robert Borg. He comes from Incheon Diocese Korea where Fr Paul Kim is from.

Bishop Anthony will also be celebrating the 9am Centenary Mass at St John the Baptist Church Freshwater on Sunday 21st November 2021. As the Covid restrictions only allow 75 people in the Church we ask you to please contact the parish office on 9977 5822 to book in.

Please keep in your prayers to the Holy Spirit our HSC Students who will be commencing their exams.
God Bless Fr David Taylor

Gospel Reflection Preaching in the Jerusalem temple days before the Last Supper and his crucifixion, Jesus indicts the scribes for their lavish but empty show of faith. The scribes, in their haughty and arrogant attitude, are the antithesis of what Jesus wants his disciples to be.

In Jesus' time, scribes, as the accepted experts of the Law, could serve as trustees of a widow's estate. They took a portion of the estate, as their fee. Obviously, scribes with a reputation for piety were often entrusted with this role. With their ability to manipulate the interpretations of the Law to their advantage, the system was rife with abuse.

Throughout Scripture, widows were portrayed as the supreme examples of the destitute and powerless (today's first reading from the 1 Kings is an example). Jesus again makes a considerable impact on his hearers, then, by lifting up a widow who has nothing as an example of faithful generosity. Only that which is given not from our abundance but from our own need and poverty – and given totally, completely, humbly and joyfully – is a gift fitting for God.

Message for BBNeighbourhoods

1 November 2021

My dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

The English word disciple has its origin in the Latin word discipulus meaning learner; from the verb discere, to learn. These days it is commonly used to mean "a follower", and in the Christian context more precisely, a follower of Jesus Christ. Unfortunately, the further one moves away from the original meaning, the more watered down that meaning becomes.

One can regularly hear people from all walks of life claiming to be a Christian because they follow Jesus, however, being a Christian entails much more than simply "following". To be more exact, being a disciple of Jesus is to learn from him the Truth of the Gospel and to follow Him by our way of life and love. Knowledge of the teachings of Jesus is essential for an authentic discipleship. Reading, studying, praying, discussing, and discerning the teachings of Jesus, in both the Scripture and Tradition, will take a lifetime to unfold in the life of each of us as Catholic Christians.

Over the past 55 years, following the Second Vatican Council, successive Popes and Bishops have made much about the discipleship that is proper to every baptised Christian. The Council also gave new impetus to the mission of the baptised to evangelise the world in which we live. To be missionary is to be sent into the world to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ.

Missionary disciples are formed by the teachings of Christ and sent to propagate the seeds of faith in Jesus as the Son of God, the Saviour of the world. There are some who think that it is only possible to engage as missionary disciples if we have an academic degree in theology or one of the sacred sciences. Higher learning provides wonderful opportunities however, Pope Francis reminds us that "in order to be in a state of mission, it is enough to live life as it comes, carrying out the most habitual actions and the most ordinary occupations in a missionary way, amidst the people that the Lord has us encounter".

There are several areas of mission that the Holy Father proposes, and this week I would like to share them with you so that each of us might discern more fully where God is sending us as disciples of the Lord. This infographic (https://www.popesprayer.va/tpv-missionary- disciples-infographic/) highlights five areas of mission:

1. Mission of compassion
2. Mission of hope
3. Mission of fraternity
4. Mission of encounter and a Church of outreach
5. Mission of joy

The Second Vatican Council's decree on the Mission Activity of the Church, Ad gentes, reminds us that the mission of the Church is fulfilled by that activity which makes her fully present to all people or nations (cf AG5). By following Jesus as faithful disciples and being sent by the power of the Holy Spirit as missionaries, our community of the Church is animated to preach the Gospel in our ordinary daily lives. Nourished by the Eucharist and the Sacraments, we are urged to embrace others in the great dialogue of faith.

This week, how might you live your life as a missionary disciple of compassion, hope, fraternity, encounter and outreach, and joy?

St Mary's School News...

We were all smiles last week as we welcomed all our students back to face to face teaching. It has been lovely watching the children interact with their teachers and classmates after so long in lockdown. During lockdown some of our students wrote letters to the residents at Wesley Heights Nursing Home. These letters were so well received and really brightened up the day of the residents who have not seen family for a very long time.

Now that restrictions have relaxed our Year 6 Mission Team is busily preparing for our Crazy Sock Day fundraiser for Catholic Mission and Remembrance Day next week.

Kind regards Alexis Conn (REC)

WELCOME TO THE 32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In today's Gospel, Jesus is teaching in the temple and notices the monetary contributions being added into the treasury. He offers his listeners a teaching that praises the poor widow, who gives an amount - though small - that has cost her much, compared to the giving of the well-off who flaunt large amounts so as to be admired by others. Let's search our own hearts this week for traces of showiness in the good that we do and ask for the grace to give sacrificially as Jesus suggests.

GOSPEL READING: MK 12:43

"Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all those who are contributing to the treasury."

REFLECTION:

"The most precious things in life - in our family, in the community in which we live - come through the selfless generosity with which we give to others. We know from experience that it is a giving that costs us something that brings real happiness to ourselves and to those around us. Mark is linking the generous giving of the widow with the great drama of God's generosity soon to take place - as Jesus gives himself into the hands of his Father for the sake of the whole human family."

PRAYER:

Prayer for the Holy Father

O God, Shepherd and Ruler of all Your faithful people, look mercifully upon Your servant Francis, who You have chosen as shepherd to preside over Your Church. Grant him, we pray, that by his word and example, he may edify those over whom he has charge, so that together with the flock committed to him, may he attain everlasting life. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

FEAST:

Dedication of the Lateran Basilica - 9th November

It is not common for us to celebrate the feast of a church building, so why this one? Built by Emperor Constantine around the year 324 on the 'Lateran Hill' in Rome, this beautiful church is actually the Cathedral for the Diocese of Rome, and the official seat of the Pope as bishop of Rome, not St. Peter's Basilica! We celebrate this dedication to signify our global unity as a Church under the one leadership and care of the 'See of Peter.'

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading

1 Kings 17:10-16 (JB)

A reading from the first book of the Kings

The widow made a little scone from her flour meal and brought it to Elijah.

Elijah the Prophet went off to Sidon. And when he reached the city gate, there was a widow gathering sticks; addressing her he said, 'Please bring a little water in a vessel for me to drink.' She was setting off to bring it when he called after her. 'Please' he said 'bring me a scrap of bread in your hand.' 'As the Lord your God lives,' she replied 'I have no baked bread, but only a handful of meal in a jar and a little oil in a jug; I am just gathering a stick or two to go and prepare this for myself and my son to eat, and then we shall die.' But Elijah said to her, 'Do not be afraid, go and do as you have said; but first make a little scone of it for me and bring it to me, and then make some for yourself and for your son. For thus the Lord speaks, the God of Israel: "Jar of meal shall not be spent, jug of oil shall not be emptied, before the day when the Lord sends rain on the face of the earth." "The woman went and did as Elijah told her and they ate the food, she, himself and her son. The jar of meal was not spent nor the jug of oil emptied, just as the Lord had foretold through Elijah.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:7-10 (JB)

R. Praise the Lord, my soul!

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever, who is just to those who are oppressed. It is he who gives bread to the hungry, the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R.

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind, who raises up those who are bowed down. It is the Lord who loves the just, the Lord, who protects the stranger. R.

The Lord upholds the widow and orphan but thwarts the path of the wicked. The Lord will reign for ever, Zion's God, from age to age. R.

Second Reading

Hebrews 9:24-28 (JB)

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Christ offered himself only once to take the faults of many on himself.

It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself. Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:3 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 12:38-44 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

This poor widow has put more in than all who contributed.

In his teaching Jesus said, 'Beware of the scribes who like to walk about in long robes, to be greeted obsequiously in the market squares, to take the front seats in the synagogues and the places of honour at banquets; these are the men who swallow the property of widows, while making a show of lengthy prayers. The more severe will be the sentence they receive.'

He sat down opposite the treasury and watched the people putting money into the treasury, and many of the rich put in a great deal. A poor widow came and put in two small coins, the equivalent of a penny. Then he called his disciples and said to them, 'I tell you solemnly, this poor widow has put more in than all who have contributed to the treasury; for they have all put in money they had over, but she from the little she had has put in everything she possessed, all she had to live on.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
