

MANLY FRESHWATER CATHOLIC PARISH

Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches

Fourth Sunday of Easter – 25th April 2021

Vocations Sunday and Anzac Day

Gospel Reading: Jesus' figure of the good shepherd is not an idyllic, serene image. Palestinian shepherds were held liable for every single sheep entrusted to their care; "good" shepherds, motivated by a sense of responsibility rather than money, considered it a matter of honor to lay down their lives for the sheep in their charge, taking on every kind of wolf, wild beast and bandit in defense of the flock.

While the shepherd/sheep metaphor is well-known throughout Scripture, Jesus' vow to lay down his life for his sheep is something new. It completes Jesus' break with the mercenary religious leaders of the Jewish establishment who care little for the flock they have been entrusted to serve.

Reflection: Christ calls us to the vocation of being "good shepherds": to seek out and bring back the lost, the scattered and forgotten; to enable people to move beyond their fears and doubts to become fully human; to willingly pay the price for justice and mercy for all members of the "one fold."

The Gospel image of the good shepherd calls us to look beyond our own expectations, needs and fears in order to become "shepherds" of reconciliation, compassion and charity to others.

To be a disciple of Jesus is not to be simply a "hired hand" who acts only to be rewarded; real followers of Jesus realize that every person of the "one fold" possesses the sacred dignity of being children of God and rejoice in knowing that in serving others we serve God. In embracing the Gospel attitude of humility and compassion for the sake of others – in "laying down our own lives" for others – our lives will one day be "taken up again" in the Father's Easter promise.

God of love and liberty, we bring our thanks this day for the peace and security we enjoy, which was won for us through the courage and devotion of those who gave their lives in time of war. We pray that their labour and sacrifice may not be in vain, but that their spirit may live on in us and in generations to come. That the liberty, truth and justice which they sought to preserve may be seen and known in all the nations upon earth. This we pray in the name of the one who gave his life for the sake of the world, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Australians all let us rejoice,
For we are young and free;
We've golden soil and wealth for toil,
Our home is girt by sea;
Our land abounds in Nature's gifts
Of beauty rich and rare;
In history's page, let every stage
Advance Australia fair!
In joyful strains then let us sing,
Advance Australia fair!

Beneath our radiant Southern Cross,
We'll toil with hearts and hands;
To make this Commonwealth of ours
Renowned of all the lands;
For those who've come across the seas
We've boundless plains to share;
With courage let us all combine
To advance Australia fair.
In joyful strains then let us sing
Advance Australia fair!

With Christ our head and cornerstone,
We'll build our nation's might
Whose way and truth and light alone
Can guide our path aright.
Our lives a sacrifice of love
Reflect our Master's care.
With faces turned to heaven above

St John's School News...

Term Two has started with a bang at SJB! On Tuesday our school was fortunate to be selected to take part in hosting the media launch for the unveiling of a new Minecraft game called "Climate Warriors" in collaboration with NRMA insurance. The aim of the launch is to help educate the next generation of Australian students in understanding the importance of knowing how to be prepared against natural disasters, due to the effects of climate change.

The Climate Warriors game can be used as an effective tool to help educate Australian students on how best to prepare for natural disaster events. The children (and teachers) particularly enjoyed a special visit for Arlo the Koala, a reminder of why it is important for everyone to care for all of God's Creation.

Warm Regards, Sharna Taranto (Acting REC)

St Mary's School News...

On Tuesday Year 6 led us in prayer and song as we celebrated the Resurrection of Jesus. It was a joyful celebration and gathering of our whole school as we shared in the joy of our risen Lord.

While the students had an extra day of sleep ins, the staff of St Mary's and SJB joined together with educational leaders from Apple. We interacted in an engaging learning experience deepening our understanding of the teaching/learning tools that our iPads provide within the Apple environment. It was a great opportunity for the staff of both schools to join together in professional learning.

Kind regards Alexis Conn (REC)

Fourth Sunday of Easter – YEAR B

First Reading

Acts 4:8-12 (JB)

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

This is the only name by which we can be saved.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, Peter said: 'Rulers of the people, and elders! If you are questioning us today about an act of kindness to a cripple, and asking us how he was healed, then I am glad to tell you all, and would indeed be glad to tell the whole people of Israel, that it was by the name of Jesus Christ the Nazarene, the one you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, by this name and by no other that this man is able to stand up perfectly healthy, here in your presence today. This is the stone rejected by you the builders, but which has proved to be the keystone. For of all the names in the world given to men, this is the only one by which we can be saved.'

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 117:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28-29

R. The stone rejected by the builders has become the corner stone.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end. It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in men: it is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in princes. R.

I will thank you for you have given answer and you are my saviour. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. R.

Blessed in the name of the Lord is he who comes. We bless you from the house of the Lord; I will thank you for you have given answer and you are my saviour. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good; for his love has no end. R.

Second Reading

John 3:1-2 (JB)

A reading from the first letter of St John

We shall see God as he is.

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is.

The word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 10:14 (JB)

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 10:11-18 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

The good shepherd lays down his life for his sheep.

Jesus said:

'I am the good shepherd:

the good shepherd is one who lays down his life for his sheep.

The hired man, since he is not the shepherd

and the sheep do not belong to him,

abandons the sheep and runs away

as soon as he sees a wolf coming,

and then the wolf attacks and scatters the sheep;

this is because he is only a hired man

and has no concern for the sheep.

I am the good shepherd;

I know my own

and my own know me,

just as the Father knows me

and I know the Father;

and I lay down my life for my sheep.

And there are other sheep I have

that are not of this fold,

and these I have to lead as well.

They too will listen to my voice,

and there will be only one flock

and one shepherd.

The Father loves me,

because I lay down my life

in order to take it up again.

No one takes it from me;

I lay it down of my own free will,

and as it is in my power to lay it down,

so it is in my power to take it up again;

and this is the command I have been given by my Father.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
