Reconciliation:

Manly Sat 10am – 11am

Freshwater Sat 4:30pm

This Feast has been celebrated by the Church since 1311AD. Jesus's gift to his followers of his Body and Blood given at the Last Supper was deemed so important that this expression of love was given its own feast day.

This Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ is an occasion for us to celebrate the sacrament of the Eucharist. It should also be an occasion when we enter into the symbolism of this great sacrament, letting it teach us deep lessons about life, our relationship with God and with one another.

It reminds us that the body and blood of Christ were offered as a sacrifice for us. The Eucharist meal is a re-enactment of Christ's death, an anticipatory celebration of his coming, and a thanksgiving banquet with him present.

Since the very first days of the church — before any of the gospels were written — followers of Jesus have been gathering every week for this sacred meal. So today we are reflecting on just how wonderful it is to be called by the Lord to gather in his presence, to be his guests at his table, and to eat and drink from his wonderful bounty. In this banquet we become one with Christ, and are transformed into being his Body, and his Blood flows in all our veins giving us the strength to be his witnesses in the world and the life that never ends.

When Jesus said, 'do this in memory of me', he was not only referring to his actions relating to the bread and wine. He was asking his followers to live out this symbol of his life-giving love.

On the feast of the Body and Blood of Christ, we celebrate and give thanks for this wonderful gift, Jesus, himself. This is what he wishes to leave us as a gift forever. It is the way he could give himself forever in a very close way, so that this is his gift of 'food for the journey'.

We need this gift. We need to know that God is close with us in life, and the Eucharist at Mass gives us this certainty. We need to know that God is really present in our lives, and we know this in the real presence of the Eucharist. The Eucharist as a sacrifice and meal involves us not simply in a powerful prayer ritual but also commits us to a way of relating to each other. If we are truly devoted to the Lord's presence in Holy Communion then we will also be truly devoted to his presence in the community, especially in those who are most in need.

years. We could not do the work we do without your support.

Our winter appeal will begin on Saturday 15th June, envelopes will be on the church pews from Saturday 8th June. We would like to give a little background of our work in the parish.

Manly conference has made over 340 home visits and helped over 100 families. Freshwater conference has made over 100 home visits and helped over 60 families. As you can see there is a great need for help in our area. We would like to thank the parents, teachers and children from our parish schools for their support of our Christmas and Winter Appeals.

Many thanks to our conference members who generously give up their time to help those in need. Thanks to Father David and Father Paul for their continued support.

If you would like to become a volunteer to do conference visits or help out in our Brookvale Office you would be most welcome. Please contact Bruce or Mick through the parish office.

Month of the Sacred Heart of Jesus Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus is one of the most popular Catholic devotions. Although it was beloved in previous centuries, Jesus appeared to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque in 1673, showing her a vision of the now-famous image of His Sacred Heart, surrounded by flames. He said to her: "My Heart is so full of love for men that It can no longer contain the flames of Its burning love. I must discover to men the treasures of My Heart and save them from perdition." She was given the special mission to spread devotion to His Sacred Heart throughout the Church. Jesus gave St. Margaret Mary many promises associated with this devotion, and requested that a feast day in honor of His Sacred Heart be instituted on the Friday after the Octave of Corpus Christi. In 1856, the Feast of the Sacred Heart was spread to the Universal Church, and in 1899 Pope Leo XIII solemnly consecrated all mankind to the Sacred Heart of Jesus, calling it "the great act" of his pontificate.

Movie of the month "Little Boy" This is a very beautiful film. A powerful and heartwarming story of a little boy who is willing to do whatever it takes to bring his dad home from World War II alive – even if that means a miracle. Set in a California coastal town in the 40s, combining glorious cinematography with outstanding acting and a beautiful music score, this inspirational film is an unforgettable tale of love, faith, joy, family, sacrifice, and redemption. Only $15 – limited stock!!

CD of the month "The body and blood of Christ" by Dr Scott Hahn. In preparation for the feast of Corpus Christi this month, this is a fascinating insight into the profound gift God has given us with the Eucharist. The bread and wine are just the surface of the universe in God's plan to help us to become truly ourselves and free. Dr Scott Hahn a former protestant minister, describes the eucharist as a gift more precious than all of creation itself, the greatest divine wisdom the world has ever received. Do you want to love your "faith" better? CDs only $5 @ the piety store.

St Mary's School News...

The Year 5 and 6 children enjoyed a visit from Father David this week. Year 6 enjoyed learning more about the lives of St Peter and St Paul and Year 5 enjoyed discussing the role that significant people played in the early church of Australia. Fr David's visits are always valued, and they help our students further develop their understanding of their Religious Education programs.

The children are busy collecting non-perishable food items for our annual 'Tinnies for Vinnies' collection. This is where we ask each family to donate some tins of food that we will pass on to St Vincent de Paul. This is run as part of our Social Justice program.

Thank you to all the families attending our Family Mass this weekend. It is wonderful to see many families join us to celebrate this Mass and enjoy the sausage sizzle afterwards. We thank the Year 5 parents and children for leading us in the preparation of this Mass.

All of our students' grandparents are invited to celebrate Grandparents Day with us on Friday the 26th July. We know that each grandparent's relationship with every grandchild is different and irreplaceable and is one that should be celebrated. It is a time where we remember and celebrate our grandparents, as well as Saints Anne and Joachim; Jesus' grandparents (Mary's parents) on their feast day of 26 July.

Body and Blood of Christ – YEAR C

Note: Readings for the Manly Family Mass will be taken from the Children's Lectionary

First Reading

Genesis 14:18-20

A reading from the book of Genesis

Melchizedek brought bread and wine.

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing:

'Blessed be Abraham by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.'

And Abraham gave him a tithe of everything.

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 109:1-4

R. You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.

The Lord's revelation to my Master: 'Sit on my right: I will put your foes beneath your feet.' R.

The Lord will send from Zion your sceptre of power: rule in the midst of all your foes. R.

A prince from the day of your birth on the holy mountains; from the womb before the daybreak I begot you. R.

The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change. 'You are a priest for ever, a priest like Melchizedek of old.' R.

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 11:23-26

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming the death of the Lord.

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

The word of the Lord

All: Thanks be to God

Gospel Acclamation

John 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord; whoever eats this bread will live for ever.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 9:11-17

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

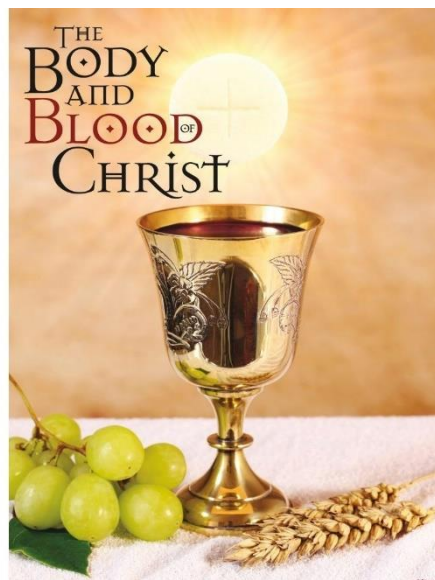

They all ate and were filled.

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
