

MANLY FRESHWATER CATHOLIC PARISH

Mary Immaculate and St John the Baptist Churches

Third Sunday of Advent – 17th December 2023

Gospel Reflection

God has revealed himself to his people through the incarnation of his Word, Jesus the Christ. In today's Gospel, John the Baptizer points to this revelation as standing "among you whom you do not recognize."

Forms of "baptism" were common in the Judaism of Gospel times – in some Jewish communities, it was through baptism rather than circumcision that a Gentile became a Jew. But John's baptism was distinctive: His baptism at the Jordan was a rite of repentance and metanoia, a conversion of heart and spirit. The Baptizer's ministry fulfilled the promise of Ezekiel (Ezekiel 36: 25-26): that, at the dawn of a new age, the God of Israel would purify his people from their sins with clear water and instill in them a new heart and spirit.

ADVENT WREATH PRAYER

"May we be in this world a ray of that light which shone forth from Bethlehem, bringing joy and peace to the hearts of all men and women."

Pope Francis

The third candle of Advent symbolizes Joy. The third candle of Advent is also called the "Shepherd's Candle" and its colour is pink, the liturgical colour for joy. On this third Sunday of Advent, called "Gaudete Sunday", meaning rejoice or praise, we light the third candle and rejoice like the shepherds who journeyed to see Jesus in Bethlehem.

2 Purple and 1 Pink Candle are lit

Priest: Lord Jesus, you have shown us the way to the Father: Lord, have mercy.

ALL: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: Lord Jesus, you have given us the consolation of the truth: Christ, have mercy.

ALL: Christ, have mercy.

Priest: Lord Jesus, you are the Good Shepherd, leading us into everlasting life: Lord, have mercy.

ALL: Lord, have mercy.

Priest: May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

Diocesan Advent Resource

O Come O Come Emmanuel, prepared by our Vicar General, Fr David Ranson, is a beautiful series of Advent Reflections based on the O

Antiphons; the Christmas hymn. These reflections will accompany the participants towards the sacred Mystery of Christmas in wondrous anticipation for the birth of the Lord. The resource is downloadable from this link.

1. O come, O come, Immanuel, and ransom captive Israel that mourns in lonely exile here until the Son of God appear.

Refrain: Rejoice! Rejoice! Immanuel shall come to you, O Israel.

2. O come, O Wisdom from on high, who ordered all things mightily; to us the path of knowledge show and teach us in its ways to go. Refrain

3. O come, O come, great Lord of might, who to your tribes on Sinai's height in ancient times did give the law in cloud and majesty and awe. Refrain

4. O come, O Branch of Jesse's stem, unto your own and rescue them! From depths of hell your people save, and give them victory o'er the grave. Refrain

5. O come, O Key of David, come and open wide our heavenly home. Make safe for us the heavenward road and bar the way to death's abode. Refrain

6. O come, O Bright and Morning Star, and bring us comfort from afar! Dispel the shadows of the night and turn our darkness into light. Refrain

7. O come, O King of nations, bind in one the hearts of all mankind. Bid all our sad divisions cease and be yourself our King of Peace. Refrain

Psalter Hymnal (Gray)

O Wisdom – 17th December

O Wisdom, coming forth from the mouth of the Most High, reaching from one end to the other, mightily and sweetly ordering all things: Come and teach us the way of prudence.

O Lord – 18th December

O Adonai, and leader of the House of Israel, who appeared to Moses in the fire of the burning bush and gave him the law on Sinai: Come and redeem us with an outstretched arm.

O Root of Jesse – 19th December

O Root of Jesse, standing as a sign among the peoples; before you kings will shut their mouths, to you the nations will make their prayer: Come and deliver us, and delay no longer.

O Key of David – 20th December

O Key of David and sceptre of the House of Israel; you open and no one can shut; you shut and no one can open: Come and lead the prisoners from the prison house, those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.

O Dayspring – 21st December

O Morning Star, splendour of light eternal and sun of righteousness: Come and enlighten those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death.

O King of the Nations – 22nd December

O King of the nations, and their desire, the cornerstone making both one: Come and save the human race, which you fashioned from clay.

O With Us is God – 23rd December

O Emmanuel, our king and our lawgiver, the hope of the nations and their Saviour: Come and save us, O Lord our God.

Christmas Eve – 24th December

And so we come to the morning before Christmas. There is a great sense of expectation and anticipation in the air as we attend to all the many things ahead of tomorrow. The Church stops, however, on this morning of Christmas Eve in a moment of silence and wonder before the event that it is about to celebrate. And it does so through this most remarkable hymn of praise it places on the lips of Zechariah the father of John the Baptist. It is the canticle by which the Church welcomes every new day. The day dawns, there is a new beginning. And in Christ something dawns, something begins. Through Zechariah we ponder on the marvel of this. We draw in our breath at the sheer mystery of God's unfolding plan, and the way that it has come to this point. As the sun rises, we wonder at the new beginning that is about to shine forth. Zechariah recognises his son's part in this remarkable drama. And as we are drawn into the sheer poetry of his prayer, we recognised that this is not just a prayer of Zechariah for John the Baptist, his son. It is both our own prayer, and it is a prayer for us. Zechariah affirms deep within his heart that the promise that God has made his people, he will keep. It is the promise of delivery. For the Israelites it was delivery from oppression. But for us the need for delivery is no less real. We stand before the mystery of Christ's coming conscious of all that holds us in its grip – our memories, our mistakes, how anxieties our addictions, of all the things that rob us of our future, all the things that capture us in the past and the present, but which deny us of fresh possibility. Conscious of all that holds us, we stand before this new beginning with both hope and trust – trust that in end the freedom of spirit will indeed be given us. We pray Come Lord Jesus come because we hunger deep within ourselves for freedom, and we hunger for those around us that they too may be unfettered from what binds them so that they too may live in freedom and with possibility. Zechariah is praying both for himself and for his son. But he is also praying for us who will follow in the example of John. We too are those who are to become signs of what God is doing in the midst of the world, agents of reconciliation, prophets of a new way of being, heralds of a different way of living, signs of salvation. In the silence of our hearts this day let us praise God for what he has accomplished in Christ his Son, and for what he is accomplishing in us too who receive the life of his Son with open hearts.

Third Sunday of Advent – Year B

First Reading Isaiah 61:1-2, 10-11 (JB)

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

I exult for joy in the Lord.

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to bind up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to captives, freedom to those in prison; to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord.

'I exult for joy in the Lord, my soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in the garments of salvation, he has wrapped me in the cloak of integrity, like a bridegroom wearing his wreath, like a bride adorned in her jewels.

'For as the earth makes fresh things grow, as a garden makes seeds spring up, so will the Lord make both integrity and praise spring up in the sight of the nations.'

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm Luke 1:46-50, 53-54

R. My soul rejoices in my God.

My soul glorifies the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God, my Saviour. He looks on his servant in her nothingness; henceforth all ages will call me blessed. R.

The Almighty works marvels for me. Holy his name! His mercy is from age to age, on those who fear him. R.

He fills the starving with good things, sends the rich away empty. He protects Israel, his servant, remembering his mercy. R.

Second Reading 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24

A reading from first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

May you all be kept blameless, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Be happy at all times; pray constantly; and for all things give thanks to God, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus.

Never try to suppress the Spirit or treat the gift of prophecy with contempt; think before you do anything - hold on to what is good and avoid every form of evil.

May the God of peace make you perfect and holy; and may you all be kept safe and blameless, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has called you and he will not fail you.

The word of the Lord. All: Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation Isaiah 61:1 (Luke 4:18)

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.

Alleluia!

Gospel John 1:6-8, 19-28 (JB)

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

There stands among you, unknown to you, the one who is coming after me.

A man came, sent by God. His name was John. He came as a witness, as a witness to speak for the light, so that everyone might believe through him. He was not the light, only a witness to speak for the light.

This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ.' 'Well then,' they asked 'are you Elijah?' 'I am not' he said. 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?' So John said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied: a voice that cries in the wilderness: Make a straight way for the Lord.'

Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees, and they put this further question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the prophet?' John replied, 'I baptise with water; but there stands among you unknown to you the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap.' This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

The Gospel of the Lord.

All: Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
