Reflection 12.2.23 6th SUNDAY in Ordinary Time Year A

Reproduced from God's Word 2023: Daily Reflections, published by St Pauls Publications, Strathfield

This is a very challenging Gospel reading. Jesus upholds the law, but in every case he asks us to go one step further than the letter of the law: we are to fulfil even its spirit. His examples-killing, name-calling, adultery, divorce, swearing-are all just illustrations of the difference between the virtues of the scribes and Pharisees' and the virtues that he preaches. Jesus' attitude is what we might call a holistic approach to life. His 'virtue ethics' means that specific choices of actions come from a wider perspective of the heart. It is like seeing through God-tinted glasses. So in our ethical decision-making today, we can be guided by this same attitude. What does 'do not kill' mean in the face of harmful emissions and extinctions of species? What does not committing adultery' mean in the face of widespread pornography and human trafficking? What does 'not breaking your oath' mean in the face of fake news and decisions made by artificial intelligence? In all of these, our relationship with God will guide us forward. And, at Mass today, our sign of peace demonstrates how reconciliation with each other enables us to approach the divine.

Sunday Mass 12th February 2023

THE LITURGY

First Reading Sirach 15:15-20

If you wish, you can keep the commandments, to behave faithfully is within your power. He has set fire and water before you; put out your hand to whichever you prefer. Man has life and death before him; whichever a man likes better will be given him. For vast is the wisdom of the Lord; he is almighty and all-seeing. His eyes are on those who fear him, he notes every action of man. He never commanded anyone to be godless, he has given no one permission to sin.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 118:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34

R. Happy are they who follow the law of the Lord!

Second Reading 1 Corinthians 2:6-10

We have a wisdom to offer those who have reached maturity: not a philosophy of our age, it is true, still less of the masters of our age, which are coming to their end. The hidden wisdom of God which we teach in our mysteries is the wisdom that God predestined to be for our glory before the ages began. It is a wisdom that none of the masters of this age have ever known, or they would not have crucified the Lord of Glory; we teach what scripture calls: the things that no eye has seen and no ear has heard, things beyond the mind of man, all that God has prepared for those who love him.

These are the very things that God has revealed to us through the Spirit, for the Spirit reaches the depths of everything, even the depths of God.

Gospel Acclamation of Matthew 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia! Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth; you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom. Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 5:17-37

Jesus said to his disciples: 'Do not imagine that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets. I have come not to abolish them but to complete them. I tell you solemnly, till heaven and earth disappear, not one dot, one little stroke, shall disappear from the Law until its purpose is achieved. Therefore, the man who infringes even one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do the same will be considered the least in the kingdom of heaven; but the man who keeps them and teaches them will be considered great in the kingdom of heaven.

'For I tell you, if your virtue goes no deeper than that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never get into the kingdom of heaven.

'You have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not kill; and if anyone does kill he must answer for it before the court. But I say this to you: anyone who is angry with his brother will answer for it before the court; if a man calls his brother "Fool" he will answer for it before the Sanhedrin; and if a man calls him "Renegade" he will answer for it in hell fire. So then, if you are bringing your offering to the altar and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your offering there before the altar, go and be reconciled with your brother first, and then come back and present your offering. Come to terms with your opponent in good time while you are still on the way to the court with him, or he may hand you over to the judge and the judge to the officer, and you will be thrown into prison. I tell you solemnly, you will not get out till you have paid the last penny.

'You have learnt how it was said: You must not commit adultery. But I say this to you: if a man looks at a woman lustfully, he has already committed adultery with her in his heart. If your right eye should cause you to sin, tear it out and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body thrown into hell. And if your right hand should cause you to sin, cut it off and throw it away; for it will do you less harm to lose one part of you than to have your whole body go to hell.

'It has also been said: Anyone who divorces his wife must give her a writ of dismissal. But I say this to you: everyone who divorces his wife, except for the case of fornication, makes her an adulteress; and anyone who marries a divorced woman commits adultery.

'Again, you have learnt how it was said to our ancestors: You must not break your oath, but must fulfil your oaths to the Lord. But I say this to you: do not swear at all, either by heaven, since that is God's throne; or by the earth, since that is his footstool; or by Jerusalem, since that is the city of the great king. Do not swear by your own head either, since you cannot turn a single hair white or black. All you need say is "Yes" if you mean yes, "No" if you mean no; anything more than this comes from the evil one.'

World Day of the Sick – 11 February 2023

World Day of the Sick falls on Saturday 11 February, and this year's theme is "Take care of him" Compassion as a synodal exercise of healing.

In his message for World Day of the Sick 2023, Pope Francis draws on the Parable of the Good Samaritan. He writes: "Sick people, in fact, are at the center of God's people, and the Church advances together with them as a sign of a humanity in which everyone is precious and no one should be discarded or left behind."

Safeguarding Message

Wyong parish is committed to safeguarding. All children, young persons and vulnerable adults have a right to feel safe and be safe. If you have a concern about the safety of anyone in the parish, please raise your concern with Fr Raul, Fr Alex or Joanne. The contact details are on the back to the Bulletin.

WYONG PARISH SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM 2023

We are delighted that you are bringing your child to receive the Sacraments, we look forward to sharing with you and your child, this journey of faith as he/she prepares to receive this sacrament.

In Baptism, your child began a life-long journey and a way of life. At Confirmation, the graces received in Baptism were sealed with the reception of the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit. First Eucharist completes their reception of the Sacraments of Initiation into the Christian life.

The Family plays a central role in the faith formation of children, and as parents, you are your child's primary teacher as he/she develops a relationship with the person of Christ and his Church. We are also grateful to the grandparents, godparents, aunts and uncles, older siblings, other relatives, and family friends who undertake this role.

As family, friends, parish personnel, teachers, and volunteers work with the children in the activity of preparing them for the sacraments, the Holy Spirit inspires and draws them into the relationship with Christ. It is a sacred time and we encourage you to enter this process whole-heartedly with the children as they prepare to receive this sacrament.

Wyong Parish will be commencing their Sacramental Program for 2023 in February. Please contact the Parish Office on 0424 763 734 to make arrangements for your child to receive instruction for Confirmation, Reconciliation, and First Eucharist. We look forward to seeing you at the Parent information night.

More than 30 Josephite Sisters celebrated almost 2000 combined years of religious life at their diamond jubilee this month. Source: The Catholic Leader.

Congregational Leader Sr Monica Cavanagh welcomed the 21 jubilarians, who celebrated 60 years of religious life, Sisters, and guests at Mary MacKillop Place, North Sydney.

“Sixty years ago these Sisters embarked on a journey, a journey with the divine spark of God’s love which led them into the midst of God’s people,” Sr Monica said.

“These Sisters have lived the spirit and charism entrusted to the Congregation by (St) Mary MacKillop and Julian Tenison Woods.

“They have done it with commitment, generosity, and faithfulness.

“We honour them for indeed God has done great things in them and it fills us with joy.”

Jubilarian Sr Eileen Lenihan moved from Ireland to Australia in 1959 and remembered feeling inspired by the mission and ministries of the Josephites.

“Like those Sisters, I wanted to do something spectacular and significant with my life,” Sr Eileen said.

“I read about the Sisters of Saint Joseph teaching children in Australia and I thought that is what I would like to do.”

“Looking back at 60 years, my initial aspiration to come to Australia to teach in rural areas shaped how I perceive life,” Sr Eileen said.

“I have a great appreciation of First Nations people, the experience of people being landless, a sense of justice and injustice in our society.”

Sr Monica invited all the jubilarians to renew their vows and celebrate their ongoing commitment to Jesus and his Church. Published by CathNews

Vox Populi - The Voice of the People 7 February 2023

Technology has evolved dramatically in the past two decades, and we probably often ask ourselves how could we even function without our mobile devices and desktops.

The benefits have been enormous. However, they have also exposed everyone, including young children and teenagers, to many risks which can have a long-lasting impact.

In the past year, 67% of adults have had a negative online experience; 30% of teenagers have been contacted by a stranger online; 47% of 14 to 17 year olds have received a sexual message from someone, and almost half of children were treated in a nasty or hurtful way online.

Cyberbullying, content and image-based cyber abuse are serious issues communities, families, schools and organisations are dealing with around the world.

Today is Safer Internet Day, a global initiative celebrating 20 years in 2023 and a day to reflect on what everyone can do to be more eSafety aware, and have more positive and safer experiences online.

This year Safer Internet Day is calling on everyone to: Connect. Reflect. Protect.

Connect safely and with purpose – by keeping apps and devices secure and using social media in positive ways.

Reflect before we act – by taking a moment to consider how what we do and say online may affect others.

Protect ourselves and others by taking action – by telling family, friends or colleagues about eSafety and how we can help.

A number of organisations including the Office of the eSafety Commissioner provide support and resources for both adults and children (<https://www.esafety.gov.au/newsroom/whats-on/safer-internet-day-2023>).

There are resources for anyone who has or is a victim of cyberabuse or knows someone experiencing cyberabuse (Report to eSafety).

The Safeguarding Office of the Diocese of Broken Bay also provides detailed information and resources to assist in the ongoing development of a culture and practice of safeguarding to protect children, young people and adults (<https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/about/diocesan-safeguarding/safeguarding-in-the-chancery-and-parishes>).
