REFLECTION—2nd Sunday of Ordinary Time

John the Baptist points out Jesus as the Messiah long awaited by many generations. But he confesses that, at first, he did not recognise him, most probably because Jesus had come in a different mould. Jesus has joined the company of people lining up for John's baptism of repentance. It is by the Holy Spirit who descended upon Jesus in the form of a dove that John is able to identify Jesus as the Messiah.

In introducing Jesus as 'the Lamb of God,' John attributes to Jesus an identity that is entirely different from people's expectations. Yet, it is a familiar image known and valued by Jewish believers. The lamb is offered as a burnt sacrifice in the Temple for the remission of the sins of the people.

Jesus as 'the Lamb of God' has a lifestyle and a ministry characterised by a humble and meek spirit. After having completed a ministry of mercy and reconciliation, Jesus would be led to Calvary, the altar of holocaust, where he would offer the last drop of his blood as expiation for our sins. Isaiah's prophecy about the lamb led to the slaughter that did not rebel, that did not fight back, is fulfilled in Jesus, the Suffering Servant of God.

The Lamb of God was once slain but now lives forever. Jesus won salvation for us by his obedience to his Father's will. His offering was perfect and final. We can now unite our suffering and sacrifices to those of Jesus who will help us overcome our difficulties and, like him, emerge triumphant.

The Collection and Offertory

While the collection is mostly a practical and material action, its placement in the liturgy has a spiritual significance. It occurs just before the offertory. In the offertory bread and wine (bought with the parish funds) are brought forward to be used in the Mass. It is not just the offering of the people carrying the gifts, but of the whole people. Giving to the collection is a real way to take part in the offering of the gifts of bread and wine for us in the Mass.

The much more important way we take part in the offertory is spiritually. What is being offered is not just bread and wine for Jesus to make into his own Body and Blood. We are also offering our very selves, so that we can be made more and more the Body of Christ on earth. Through the grace of our Baptism, we are able to offer in the Mass all our good works. On their own they would be not much in the grand scheme of things, but in the Mass they are united with the Cross and truly become part of the work of salvation.

As well as our past actions, we also offer our future as well. In the bread and wine, we offer ourselves body and soul. We commit our bodily or material needs to God, and we surrender our plans, hopes and desires to His Will. We entrust our lives to God, knowing he can do far more with them than what we have planned. This act of trust can be one of the greatest offerings we can make in the Mass, especially when we have fears about the future.

It is important to be recollected during the offertory and to make a sincere self-offering in our hearts. This self-offering in the Mass is really at the heart of the whole Christian spiritual life. On days when we do not get to Mass, there is a traditional prayer called the Morning Offering where we can spiritually make this offering wherever we are:

"O my Jesus, through the most pure heart of Mary, I offer you all the prayers, works, joys and sufferings of this day, for all the intentions of thy divine heart, in union with the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass throughout the world, and in reparation for my sins and the sins of the whole world. Amen."

Praying this prayer daily is a great way to develop the spirit of self-offering that helps us to participate in the offertory at the Mass.

PARISH OFFICE HOLIDAY CLOSURE

Parish Office has now re-opened for 2026

Please note: The Office will be open on Wednesdays & Fridays only, until February 2nd when regular office hours will resume.

Vox Populi—14 January 2026

Through the month of January, Pope Leo XIV is encouraging the faithful to pray with the Word of God.

In a video released last week, the Holy Father said he is praying "that we may learn, practice, and love praying with the Word of God."

"The gift of Scripture is God's love letter to humankind," he said. "Let's pray that we all draw from this gift and get to know Our Lord."

The Holy Father is encouraging people to sit with Scripture daily, to let God speak to them, to be challenged by His voice, and to discern their decisions from a closeness to His heart.

The Pope's call echoes a call from the Catechism of the Catholic Church, which implores all the faithful to be knowledgeable of Scripture, as a way of knowing and hearing the Word of God.

"The Church forcefully and specifically exhorts all the Christian faithful... to learn the surpassing knowledge of Jesus Christ, by frequent reading of the divine Scriptures. Ignorance of the Scriptures is ignorance of Christ." - CCC 133

The Pope's January prayer intention was accompanied by a new "Pray with the Pope" which seeks to unite the Church behind the Holy Father's daily prayer.

In our world filled with war, hatred and sorrow, prayer and intimacy with the Word of God are powerful tools for promoting peace and charity.

POPE LEO XIV'S PRAYER INTENTION FOR JANUARY

To pray that praying with the Word of God be nourishment for our lives and a source of hope in our communities, helping us to build a more fraternal and missionary Church.

Mass/Prayer Envelopes—Please note all Mass/Prayer Intention Envelopes can be given directly to our Priests. If they are placed on the collection plate they will not be received until Tuesday.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY—YOU'RE INVITED !

All children are invited to attend the children's Liturgy at our weekend masses. Children's Liturgy is when the children leave the congregation to celebrate and reflect on the Sunday Gospel reading in an age appropriate way.

The children are led through prayers, songs and readings that are adapted to their level of understanding. (Please ensure there is a parent/guardian for children under 5yrs old; all parents/guardians welcome).

Attending Mass together is a part of being a Catholic Family, while Children's Liturgy allows children to enter the celebration more fully by catering to their needs.

COMMUNION BLESSING

You can still receive a blessing if you are not Catholic, have not yet received your Sacrament of First Eucharist/Holy Communion, or, if you are Catholic but are not in a state of grace.

To receive a blessing instead of communion during a Catholic Mass, simply approach the priest during the distribution of communion with your arms folded across your chest, and the priest will offer a blessing.

Please remember if you are receiving communion, the consecrated host must enter your mouth to be consumed before returning to your seat.

UNABLE TO STAND IN LINE FOR COMMUNION? USE THE YELLOW BAND!

Please use the yellow bands located at the back of the Church (in a tub underneath the bulletin shelf) to indicate that you cannot stand in line to receive the Eucharist, by slipping it onto the side of the pew where you will be seated.

Our Priest or Eucharistic Minister will see this and will tend to you at the end of Communion.

Extra Mower's Required

If there is any person who would be kind enough to join us in mowing on the Church grounds please contact Brian Bugden on 4388 2938.

Depending on numbers, you will only need to mow approximately 3 times a year.

To make life a little easier our equipment consists of 2 ride-on-mowers and 2 self-propelled mowers. Thank you.

Parish E-Bulletin

If you would like to have the bulletin emailed to you, please send an email with "e-bulletin" as the subject to: wyongparish@bbcatholic.org.au

Come join us!

We need YOU to join our Wyong Choir!

Don't let your talents go to waste - let us come together and praise God in song as one.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading - Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I shall be glorified'; I was honoured in the eyes of the Lord, my God was my strength. And now the Lord has spoken, he who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, to gather Israel to him:

'It is not enough for you to be my servant,
to restore the tribes of Jacob and bring back the survivors of Israel;
I will make you the light of the nations
so that my salvation may reach to the ends of the earth.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 39:2, 4, 7-10

R. Here I am, Lord; I come to do your will.

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 1:1-3

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

I, Paul, appointed by God to be an apostle, together with brother Sosthenes, send greetings to the church of God in Corinth, to the holy people of Jesus Christ, who are called to take their place among all the saints everywhere who pray to our Lord Jesus Christ; for he is their Lord no less than ours. May God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ send you grace and peace.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation - John 1:14, 12

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Word of God became flesh and dwelt among us. He enabled those who accepted him to become the children of God.

Alleluia!

Gospel - John 1:29-34

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Seeing Jesus coming towards him, John said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God that takes away the sin of the world. This is the one I spoke of when I said: A man is coming after me who ranks before me because he existed before me. I did not know him myself, and yet it was to reveal him to Israel that I came baptising with water.' John also declared, 'I saw the Spirit coming down on him from heaven like a dove and resting on him. I did not know him myself, but he who sent me to baptise with water had said to me, "The man on whom you see the Spirit come down and rest is the one who is going to baptise with the Holy Spirit." Yes, I have seen and I am the witness that he is the Chosen One of God.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Peace and Tranquility

A Ministry of the Sisters of St Joseph
NSW Province

The Congregation of the Sisters of St Joseph, founded by Mary MacKillop and Julian Tenison Woods in 1866, was devoted to the service of the poor. Its members were women who worked in a simple ordinary way to bring to the poor the message of their human dignity and of Christ's saving love. Today the Sisters of St Joseph continue that founding mission to relieve suffering and bring hope to today's world.

St Joseph's Spirituality and Education Centre offers the opportunity for individuals and groups to experience spiritual enrichment and personal development in a peaceful and spacious setting. The facilities are available to those whose purpose is in harmony with the spirit and philosophy of the Sisters of St Joseph.

Historical Holy Cross church built in 1842 presents itself right in front of our Centre.

WE ARE PROUD TO ANNOUNCE OUR NEW ACCREDITATION FOR HOME CARE PACKAGES

CatholicCare is our social care agency in the Diocese of Broken Bay and we have been supporting the Northern Sydney, Northern Beaches and Central Coast communities for 35 years.

We understand many seniors prefer to stay at home as they age. The Government's funding for Home Care Packages can help you live independently at home for longer.

We want to know if our Home Care Packages are of interest to you, or a loved one and want to prioritise the needs of our parishioners before we promote to the general public. As a Catholic organisation we want the seniors we support to know they are truly cherished and valued and we're confident our services will be very well received.

There's no obligation to partner with CatholicCare. We may contact you to discuss your needs, but you're welcome to opt-out at anytime.
