REFLECTION—4th Sunday of Ordinary Time

We seek God through seeking justice and peace with integrity and humility. It doesn't matter if we seem foolish and weak by human standards—God gives us the wisdom, virtue, holiness and freedom necessary for the task. Jesus sees the crowd and goes up a hill where he is joined by his disciples, the ones he has deliberately chosen for God's work. I imagine he speaks to the first, telling them that it will only be through a personal relationship with God that they will come to understand his words. Then he gives them nine rather surprising invitations to bring about change in the lives of people they encounter. The consequences may lead to strong opposition and persecution but those called to be disciples of Jesus are promised joy and gladness and eternal reward for their efforts.

Today I reflect on how I seek God in everyday life. I ask myself if I truly believe that I have been chosen by God to make a difference in the life of another.

Vox Populi—29 January 2026

Just over a month after celebrating the Nativity of the Lord, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord, on Monday, February 2.

The Feast honours the Blessed Virgin and Saint Joseph taking the infant Jesus to the Temple in Jerusalem 40 days after his birth, to perform the rites of ritual purification and redemption of the firstborn son. In recognition of this, the Church also celebrates this Feast 40 days after Christmas.

The episode shows the obedience of Mary and Joseph to their faith. The Blessed Virgin did not require purification, nor did Jesus require redemption.

For Pope Benedict XVI, the Presentation of the Lord was a foretelling of Christ's salvation on the Cross, as the Son was offered to the Father.

"The 'salvation' that Jesus brought to his people, and which he embodies in himself, passed through the Cross, through the violent death that he was to vanquish and to transform with the sacrifice of his life through love," he said.

"This sacrifice was already foretold in the act of the Presentation in the Temple, an act without any doubt motivated by the traditions of the old Covenant, but that was deeply enlivened by the fullness of faith and love, which correspond to the fullness of time, to the presence of God and of his Holy Spirit in Jesus. Indeed, the Spirit moved over the whole scene of the presentation of Jesus in the Temple."

Thank you!

SHROVE TUESDAY

Shrove Tuesday Palm Burning Ceremony will be held on the 17th February and commence at 6pm at St Cecilia's Church, followed by a sausages sizzle.

Please feel free to bring a plate of sweets along.

The palm burning ceremony involves burning the blessed palm branches/crosses from the previous year's Palm Sunday to create the ashes used for Ash Wednesday. It's a reminder that life is fleeting and, according to Genesis 3:19, we are destined to return to dust.

Please bring your blessed Palm crosses from previous years and RSVP by 15th Feb via the parish office or rsvp sheets in the back of the church.

ASH WEDNESDAY

Ash Wednesday will be held on Wednesday 18th February

St Cecilia: 8am & 6pm

St John Fisher: 8am

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent, a time for spiritual reflection, repentance and preparation of Jesus Christ.

Harmony Week- 1st-7th February

This year's Social Justice Statement calls us to follow the example of Jesus, who always noticed, listened to, and cared for those on the edge of society..

Harmony week reminds us of our responsibility to see and respond to the needs of our sisters and brothers in hardship as we are called to look to the heart of the Gospel: love of God and love of neighbour.

Pope Leo XIV reminds us that love is rooted in truth, resists dehumanization and calls us to hold up human dignity. It is from this foundation that dialogue, respect and peace can grow. We are encouraged to mark this week through:

- Prayer for peace in our world and in our local communities
- Reflection on Catholic Social Teaching, particularly human dignity, solidarity, and the common good

Simple acts of welcome, listening, and neighbourly encounter.

May this week renew our commitment to be witnesses of Christ's love, responding to division with compassion, courage, and hope remembering every person is made in the image and likeness of God.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY—YOU'RE INVITED !

All children are invited to attend the children's Liturgy at our weekend masses. Children's Liturgy is when the children leave the congregation to celebrate and reflect on the Sunday Gospel reading in an age appropriate way.

The children are led through prayers, songs and readings that are adapted to their level of understanding. (Please ensure there is a parent/guardian for children under 5yrs old; all parents/guardians welcome).

Attending Mass together is a part of being a Catholic Family, while Children's Liturgy allows children to enter the celebration more fully by catering to their needs.

COMMUNION BLESSING

You can still receive a blessing if you are not Catholic, have not yet received your Sacrament of First Eucharist/Holy Communion, or, if you are Catholic but are not in a state of grace.

To receive a blessing instead of communion during a Catholic Mass, simply approach the priest during the distribution of communion with your arms folded across your chest, and the priest will offer a blessing.

Please remember if you are receiving communion, the consecrated host must enter your mouth to be consumed before returning to your seat.

UNABLE TO STAND IN LINE FOR COMMUNION? USE THE YELLOW BAND!

Please use the yellow bands located at the back of the Church (in a tub underneath the bulletin shelf) to indicate that you cannot stand in line to receive the Eucharist, by slipping it onto the side of the pew where you will be seated.

Our Priest or Eucharistic Minister will see this and will tend to you at the end of Communion.

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

First Reading - Zephaniah 2:3; 3:12-13

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah

Seek the Lord all you, the humble of the earth, who obey his commands.

Seek integrity, seek humility: you may perhaps find shelter on the day of the anger of the Lord.

In your midst I will leave a humble and lowly people, and those who are left in Israel will seek refuge in the name of the Lord. They will do no wrong, will tell no lies; and the perjured tongue will no longer be found in their mouths. But they will be able to graze and rest with no one to disturb them.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm - Ps 145:7-10

R. Happy the poor in spirit; the kingdom of heaven is theirs!

Second Reading - 1 Corinthians 1:26

A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians

Take yourselves, brothers, at the time when you were called: how many of you were wise in the ordinary sense of the word, how many were influential people, or came from noble families? No, it was to shame the wise that God chose what is foolish by human reckoning, and to shame what is strong that he chose what is weak by human reckoning; those whom the world thinks common and contemptible are the ones that God has chosen - those who are nothing at all to show those who are everything. The human race has nothing to boast about to God, but you, God has made members of Christ Jesus and by God's doing he has become our wisdom, and our virtue, and our holiness, and our freedom. As scripture says: if anyone wants to boast, let him boast about the Lord.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation - Matthew 5:12

Alleluia, alleluia!

Rejoice and be glad; Your reward will be great in heaven.

Alleluia!

Gospel - Matthew 5:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage.

Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted.

Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied.

Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.

Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God.

Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God.

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Peace and Tranquility

A Ministry of the Sisters of St Joseph
NSW Province

The Congregation of the Sisters of St Joseph, founded by Mary MacKillop and Julian Tenison Woods in 1866, was devoted to the service of the poor. Its members were women who worked in a simple ordinary way to bring to the poor the message of their human dignity and of Christ's saving love. Today the Sisters of St Joseph continue that founding mission to relieve suffering and bring hope to today's world.

St Joseph's Spirituality and Education Centre offers the opportunity for individuals and groups to experience spiritual enrichment and personal development in a peaceful and spacious setting. The facilities are available to those whose purpose is in harmony with the spirit and philosophy of the Sisters of St Joseph.

WE ARE PROUD TO ANNOUNCE OUR NEW ACCREDITATION FOR HOME CARE PACKAGES

CatholicCare is our social care agency in the Diocese of Broken Bay and we have been supporting the Northern Sydney, Northern Beaches and Central Coast communities for 35 years.

We understand many seniors prefer to stay at home as they age. The Government's funding for Home Care Packages can help you live independently at home for longer.

We want to know if our Home Care Packages are of interest to you, or a loved one and want to prioritise the needs of our parishioners before we promote to the general public. As a Catholic organisation we want the seniors we support to know they are truly cherished and valued and we're confident our services will be very well received.

There's no obligation to partner with CatholicCare. We may contact you to discuss your needs, but you're welcome to opt-out at anytime.

CATHOLICCARE BROKEN BAY

Do you have a problem that you can't solve on your own?

When feelings become overwhelming or confusing, counselling can be very helpful. We work with you to overcome challenges and stress. We work with you, assisting you to face challenges and stressors, coming up with suggestions to tackle or resolve these challenges. We listen, talk through experiences and help you think about ways forward. Common issues addressed in counselling include family transitions, communication issues, work/life balance, conflict, parenting after separation, grief and loss and decision making. We offer a welcoming, inclusive environment and a safe space for all ages. CatholicCare offers Government funded, fee for service and NDIS approved therapy options for yourself, your children and as a family unit.
