SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT REFLECTION 6TH DECEMBER

Spiritual writers speak of the journey that we must make to God. The point is valid but there is a danger that we may think that God is stationary somewhere and we must journey to him, that it's all up to us. No, our relationship with God is far more dynamic and God is always journeying towards us, searching for us, calling out to us by name as he did with Adam and Eve in the garden. The season of Advent prepares us to celebrate God's coming to us as a babe at Bethlehem and encourages us to look forward to Christ's final coming in glory. What we are called to do is to 'prepare a way for the Lord' to come to us. And what is that way? Well, today's responsorial psalm says that 'justice shall march before him'. To prepare the way, we need to act with justice and promote justice, both in our personal lives and globally.

Today's first reading captures beautifully the longing of God to be united with us: 'He is like a shepherd leading his flock, gathering the lambs in his arms, holding them against his breast, and leading to their rest the mother ewes.' (Isa 40: 11) For a few moments imagine yourself being held in the loving arms of God and leaning against his breast. That is the kind of intimacy God desires with us. We pray: 'Lord help us to prepare a way for you to come to us. Help us to remove any barriers we create, whether consciously or unconsciously, that keep us from your loving embrace.'

We request for everyone to please wear a mask when they attend church for any Mass, religious service or prayer.

SUNDAY MASS 6 DECEMBER 2020 THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING ISAIAH 40:1-5, 9-11

'Console my people, console them' says your God. 'Speak to the heart of Jerusalem and call to her that her time of service is ended, that her sin is atoned for, that she has received from the hand of the Lord double punishment for all her crimes.'

A voice cries, 'Prepare in the wilderness a way for the Lord. Make a straight highway for our God across the desert. Let every valley be filled in, every mountain and hill be laid low, let every cliff become a plain, and the ridges a valley; then the glory of the Lord shall be revealed and all mankind shall see it; for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.'

Go up on a high mountain, joyful messenger to Zion. Shout with a loud voice, joyful messenger to Jerusalem. Shout without fear, say to the towns of Judah, 'Here is your God.'

Here is the Lord coming with power, his arm subduing all things to him. The prize of his victory is with him, his trophies all go before him. He is like a shepherd feeding his flock, gathering lambs in his arms, holding them against his breast and leading to their rest the mother ewes.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Ps 84:9-14

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

SECOND READING 2 PETER 3:8-14

There is one thing, my friends, that you must never forget: that with the Lord, 'a day' can mean a thousand years, and a thousand years is like a day. The Lord is not being slow to carry out his promises, as anybody else might be called slow; but he is being patient with you all, wanting nobody to be lost and everybody to be brought to change his ways. The Day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then with a roar the sky will vanish, the elements will catch fire and fall apart, the earth and all that it contains will be burnt up.

Since everything is coming to an end like this, you should be living holy and saintly lives while you wait and long for the Day of God to come, when the sky will dissolve in flames and the elements melt in the heat. What we are waiting for is what he promised: the new heavens and new earth, the place where righteousness will be at home. So then, my friends, while you are waiting, do your best to live lives without spot or stain so that he will find you at peace.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION LUKE 3:4, 6

Alleluia, alleluia! Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths: all people shall see the salvation of God. Alleluia!

GOSPEL MARK 1:1-8

The beginning of the Good News about Jesus Christ, the Son of God. It is written in the book of the prophet Isaiah: Look, I am going to send my messenger before you; he will prepare your way. A voice cries in the wilderness: Prepare a way for the Lord, make his paths straight, and so it was that John the Baptist appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. All Judaea and all the people of Jerusalem made their way to him, and as they were baptised by him in the river Jordan they confessed their sins. John wore a garment of camel-skin, and he lived on locusts and wild honey. In the course of his preaching he said, 'Someone is following me, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to kneel down and undo the strap of his sandals. I have baptised you with water, but he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit.'

The circle of the wreath reminds us of God Himself, His eternity and endless mercy, which has no beginning or end. The green of the wreath speaks of the hope that we have in God, the hope of newness, of renewal, of eternal life. Candles symbolize the light of God coming into the world through the birth of His son. The four outer candles represent the period of waiting during the four Sundays of Advent, which themselves symbolize the four centuries of waiting between the prophet Malachi and the birth of Christ. The purple candles suggest penance and fasting & perhaps a royal colour of the coming King. Pink is used as a colour of joy & expectation.

To the Parishioners of Wyong Catholic Parish,

Thank you very much for welcoming me into the Parish over this past week. I have settled in well and feel at home, especially thanks to the hospitality of Fr Raul and Fr Alex (especially their cooking!). It's also been wonderful to meet, pray and worship at Mass with some of you. Developing relationships with Parishioners of the Diocese brings me great joy and is of great importance for the Diocesan Priesthood. So please don't hesitate to talk or meet with me. I want to be available and get to know you!

I also ask that you continue to pray for me during this time, especially that I may do Our Lord's will in all things while I'm here in the Parish. Please know that you are all in my prayers. God has placed a great desire in me to pray for His people and it brings me much consolation. So please let me know your intentions.

I am looking forward to getting to know more of you during this month.

God bless,
Shayne

Vox Populi - The Voice of the People

This week we hear from newly ordained Deacon Sam French. Sam grew up in the Woy Woy Parish and is now serving at Pennant Hills Parish. He is the youngest member of the Clergy in Broken Bay.

He must increase...

By Deacon Sam French

This week, on the Second Sunday of Advent, the lectionary jumps back to the opening verses of Mark's Gospel, where we are introduced to Saint John the Baptist. Since I was a child, I've had a particular love for this ragged desert dwelling cousin of Jesus; I even chose him as my confirmation saint. While, I suppose, sainthood is not a competition, not too many among the 'Church Triumphant' can claim to have been called the "greatest among those born of women (Mt 11:11)" by Christ himself. So, if my bias towards John is a little obvious, I can safely say: Jesus started it.

I grew up as a parishioner of Saint John the Baptist Catholic Church in Woy Woy and attended the parish primary school by the same name. I had the benefit of inspirational stories about John the Baptist's poverty, courage, and holiness drilled into my consciousness from day one of Kindergarten. I distinctly remember shouting the lyrics: "Fill every valley up, tear every mountain down, prepare the way of the Lord"<sup>1</sup> in Miss Culmer's Year 2 class, and being taught that we can be more like John the Baptist if we prepare the way of the Lord in our hearts by being much quieter.

Saint John the Baptist is often called the "Forerunner of Christ" for obvious reasons, but this was truly the case in my own spiritual journey. I remember realising how important Jesus must be, if the guy my church and school was named after was "not fit to kneel down and undo the strap of his sandals." This was an early glimpse at the divinity of Christ and the humility of Saint John.

Saint John's humility is again captured perfectly in his quote about Jesus, the Bridegroom: "He must increase, but I must decrease" (Jn 3:30). This has long been one of my favourite scripture passages, but it has taken on a new significance in light of my recent Ordination to the Diaconate. Even with only a few weeks of ministry under my belt, I've begun to see with clearer eyes the nature of my vocation. In order to increase Christ through my preaching and sacramental ministry, I must decrease by submitting my will to his. I'm discovering that the spirit of diaconal service is, in some sense, a zerosum game – it's either my will or his, I can't have both.

The poverty of John's camel cloak and locust lunch make more sense to me now. The more I seek distractions or comforts superfluous to my vocation, the more my ministry suffers. As each week passes, I'm finding new habits – in thought and action – that need pruning to make room for Jesus to work better through me. For example, I learned that a prayerful, well thought-out homily can't coexist with a Netflix binge. Fortunately for me, John also proclaims "a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sin" (Mk 1:4). Advent is a time of particularly focused spiritual preparation. I would encourage anyone reading this, regardless of your vocation, to take some time to reflect on the example of Saint John the Baptist, and ask his intercession to prepare the way of the Lord in your heart in these weeks leading up to Christmas.

In Christ,

Deacon Sam
