WELCOME TO THE SOLEMNITY OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

God is love. The overflowing love of the Father and the Son, is the Holy Spirit poured out. We are invited into this love and are called to share the love we have been gifted with others; a love which is never rationed and gives peace and hope. We are called to imitate God and love as generously as he does; to go out and proclaim the Good News, that we are saved because of His life-giving love for us.

Please join us as we livestream Mass every Sunday at 9.30am on Facebook. Please see the link below, don't forget to like and follow our Facebook page. www.facebook.com/wyongcatholicparish

Sunday Mass 7th June 2020 The Most Holy TRINITY THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

FIRST READING EXODUS 34:4-6, 8-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

RESPONSORIAL PSALM DANIEL 3:52-56

R. Glory and praise for ever!

SECOND READING 2 CORINTHIANS 13:11-13

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with you all.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION OF REVELATION 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

Gospel John 3:16-18

God so loved the world that he gave his only Son,
so that everyone who believes in him might not perish
but might have eternal life.

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Whoever believes in him will not be condemned,
but whoever does not believe has already been condemned, because he has not believed in the name of the only Son of God.

REFLECTION FOR 31ST MAY

According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, ‘The mystery of the Most Holy Trinity is the central mystery of Christian faith and life. It is the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith, the light that enlightens them’ (CCC 234). It is also what distinguishes our Christian belief in the one true God from that of our Jewish and Muslim brothers and sisters. If we are not well versed in philosophy and theology, we may find it helpful to extend our reflections on the doctrine of the Trinity beyond what it reveals about the inner life of God. We can see it as a summary of what we believe about the ways in which the triune God shares the divine life with us – as creator, redeemer and sanctifier. If this doctrine is to stand at the center of our faith, truly and not just rhetorically, we must concentrate ‘more on the mystery of God with us, God for us, and less on the nature of God by Godself’ (Catherine Mowry LaCugna). How do I, created in the image and likeness of God (Gen 1: 26-27), experience God’s presence in my daily life?
