Gospel Reflection

Excerpt from; God's Word 2018:

Daily Reflections

Familiarity breeds contempt. So the well-known saying goes. And we see it realised in today's Gospel. In one way the people of Jesus' home town knew him too well, but in essence they knew him to little. They knew a lot about him - his family background, his relatives, his trade, his education or rather lack of it. All of this blinded them to seeing who he really was - a prophet, someone through whom the word of God was being spoken and fulfilled. In putting Jesus down, the people of Nazareth were putting themselves down as well. They had bought into the well-known saying, 'can anything good come from Nazareth?' It was beyond their comprehension that God would choose someone from Nazareth to be a prophet. Jesus was amazed at their lack of faith. Are we guilty of the same blindness? Dose familiarity mean that we too fail to see the face of God in the members of our family and local community, in the poor and outcast? Is Jesus amazed at our lack of faith also?
