We all have a mission in life. Sometimes, however, we can live without any real purpose or focus. Jesus reminds us today that we have been called and chosen to participate with him in spreading the Good News. As Jesus went from town to town, he saw the needs of people. We are told 'he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd'. In our daily life, how sensitive are we to the needs of others? What are our feelings when we see someone who is sad and without hope? Do we make it a priority to share the Good News with them? In our prayer today, we might like to dialogue with Jesus about how we might live out our mission concretely in our daily lives. We all need to do our part because today, as in Jesus' time, 'the harvest is great, but the labourers are few'.

Reflection

Though Paul later spreads Christianity to the Gentiles, Jesus is not trying to preach to those outside Judaism.

"Preach to those who have strayed from the practice of their faith" His words still ring true. Today, many of us have friends or family members who have stopped practicing their faith or stopped believing altogether. By our living, we preach the Good News and hopefully, inspire others to come or return to the Lord.

Vox Populi

14 June 2023

Friday, 16 June is the Solemnity of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The Sacred Heart is a symbol of God's infinite love – the symbol of His own generous self-sacrificing love for all.

But why the heart? In every age and language, the heart is regarded as the natural symbol of love and affection. This feast day takes the physical heart of Jesus as a representation of His Divine love for humanity.

The Feast of the Sacred Heart has been in the Roman Catholic Liturgical calendar since 1856. The day always falls on a Friday, 19 days after Pentecost.

The devotion especially emphasizes the unmitigated love, compassion, and long-suffering of the heart of Christ towards humanity.

With the tragedy we have seen and felt this week following the devastating bus crash in the Hunter Valley resulting in so many deaths and injuries, and trauma for families and friends, we could turn to the Sacred Heart of Jesus to find healing and peace for everyone.

This week Bishop Anthony and many of our clergy have been attending their annual Clergy Conference. They too have been praying for all those affected by the bus tragedy and ask you to also keep them in your prayers.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

O Lord hear my voice, for I have called to you: be my help. Do not abandon or forsake me, O God, my Saviour!

First Reading

Exodus 19:2-6

A reading from the book of Exodus From Rephidim the Israelites set out again; and when they reached the wilderness of Sinai, there in the wilderness they pitched their camp; there facing the mountain Israel pitched camp.

Moses then went up to God, and the Lord called to him from the mountain, saying, 'Say this to the House of Jacob, declare this to the sons of Israel, "You yourselves have seen what I did with the Egyptians, how I carried you on eagle's wings and brought you to myself. From this you know that now, if you obey my voice and hold fast to my covenant, you of all the nations shall be my very own, for all the earth is mine. I will count you a kingdom of priests, a consecrated nation."

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 99:2-3, 5

R. We are his people:
the sheep of his flock

Cry out with joy to the Lord, all the earth.

Serve the Lord with gladness.

Come before him, singing for joy. R.

Know that he, the Lord, is God.

He made us, we belong to him,

we are his people, the sheep of his flock. R.

Indeed, how good is the Lord,
eternal his merciful love.

He is faithful from age to age. R.

Second Reading

Romans 5:6-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

We were still helpless when at his appointed moment Christ died for sinful men. It is not easy to die even for a good man - though of course for someone really worthy, a man might be prepared to die - but what proves that God loves us is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners. Having died to make us righteous, is it likely that he would now fail to save us from God's anger? When we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, we were still enemies; now that we have been reconciled surely we may count on being saved by the life of his Son? Not merely because we have been reconciled but because we are filled with joyful trust in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have already gained our reconciliation.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Mark 1:15

Alleluia, alleluia!

The kingdom of God is near;
repent and believe the Good News!
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 9:36 - 10:8

A reading from the Holy Gospel according to Matthew

When Jesus saw the crowds he felt sorry for them because they were harassed and dejected, like sheep without a shepherd. Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest.'

He summoned his twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits with power to cast them out and to cure all kinds of diseases and sickness.

These are the names of the twelve apostles: first, Simon who is called Peter, and his brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John; Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the tax collector; James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot and Judas Iscariot, the one who was to betray him. These twelve Jesus sent out, instructing them as follows: 'Do not turn your steps to pagan territory, and do not enter any Samaritan town; go rather to the lost sheep of the House of Israel. And as you go, proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is close at hand. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out devils. You received without charge, give without charge.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

There is one thing I ask of the Lord,
only this do I seek; to live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.
