Happy New Year!

As a new Calendar year opens, the church invites us to reflect on Mary, the mother of Jesus, the first and foremost of his disciples, in the hope that we might learn from her how best to walk in the footsteps of her Son. Mary is a model for us all in dealing with the confusion, doubt, trauma, upheaval, shame and grief that form the fabric of our lives, as similar experiences did, to the fabric of hers. In Mary, Joseph and Jesus the compassion and love of God took on a human face. She brought Jesus into our world and it is our responsibility to model our discipleship on hers, by continuing to give birth to her son and his message in our time and place.

Thank you to Raul Quilquite & John Dela Pena for setting up the PA system at the outdoor Mass.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Hail, Holy Mother, who gave birth to the King, who rules heaven and earth for ever.

First Reading

Numbers 6:22-27

A reading from the book of Numbers
The Lord spoke to Moses and said,
'Say this to Aaron and his sons: "This is how you are to bless the sons of Israel. You shall say to them:
May the Lord bless you and keep you.
May the Lord let his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
May the Lord uncover his face to you and bring you peace."
This is how they are to call down my name on the sons of Israel, and I will bless them.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 66:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R. May God bless us in his mercy.

God, be gracious and bless us and let your face shed its light upon us. So will your ways be known upon earth and all nations learn your saving help. R.

Let the nations be glad and exult for you rule the world with justice. With fairness you rule the peoples. you guide the nations on earth. R.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you. May God still give us his blessing till the ends of the earth revere him. R.

Second Reading

Galatians 4:4-7

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians
When the appointed time came, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born a subject of the Law, to redeem the subjects of the Law and to enable us to be adopted as sons. The proof that you are sons is that God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts: the Spirit that cries, 'Abba, Father,' and it is this that makes you a son, you are not a slave any more; and if God has made you son, then he has made you heir.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Hebrews 1:1-2

Alleluia, alleluia!

In the past God spoke to our ancestors through the prophets; now he speaks to us through his Son. Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 2:16-21

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
The shepherds hurried away to Bethlehem and found Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the manger. When they saw the child they repeated what they had been told about him, and everyone who heard it was astonished at what the shepherds had to say. As for Mary, she treasured all these things and pondered them in her heart. And the shepherds went back glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen; it was exactly as they had been told. When the eighth day came and the child was to be circumcised, they gave him the name Jesus, the name the angel had given him before his conception.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and for ever.
