As light marked the dawning of Easter faith for some women, the Gospel of John points out that when a disconsolate Mary Magdalene went to the tomb, it was 'still dark'. She opens her experience of resurrection in the darkness of unfaith. But her words to the disciples send them on their way to the empty tomb. The Beloved Disciple, the best of all disciples in the Gospel of John, enters the tomb, sees, and believes. It was not until then that the disciples were able to remember and believe the words of Scripture: Jesus' promise of resurrection on the other side of death. Easter can lead us from hard-nosed unfaith (the darkness), through doubt (running to the tomb), to belief that God will always have the last word: resurrection (he saw and believed).

The Annual Provincial

Assembly of the Scalabrini-ans in Australia and Asia will be held on the 28 April to the 2 May 2025. This is the only opportunity for all the Scalabrinians assigned in different mission fields and those working in our seminaries (the formation, training and preparation of future missionaries), to be able to bond, pray, reflect and what we all consider of paramount importance, our collective need for an on-going professional development. In this connection, the mass schedule of St John's will be affected due to the absence of your clergy. Therefore, there will be no Masses at Narraweena from the 29 April to the 2 May 2025. Daily Masses will be available at St Kevin's as per schedule. Thank you for your kind understanding and support.

The next Baptism Workshop will take place on Wednesday 14th May at 7pm. Please email the office on warringahparish@bbcatholic.org.au for more information and to book a place.

Catholic School Funding

The Federal election is coming up 3 May. School funding is an important item on the agenda. Catholic schools save the taxpayer billions of dollars every year. They provide quality education to 20% of the population.

Catholic Schools NSW, supported by the Bishops, is running the Keep School Funding Fair campaign to raise awareness about the value of Catholic schools and to dispel the myths about funding non-government schools. # SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia. You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia. Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 10:34, 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil.' Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses - we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead - and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say: 'His love has no end.' R. The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up. I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. R. The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone. This is the work of the Lord, a marvel in our eyes. R.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians.

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

1 Corinthians 5:7-8

Sequence

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.

The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled. Death with life contended: combat strangely ended!

Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.

Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way.

The tomb the Living did enclose;

I saw Christ's glory as he rose!

The angels there attesting;

shroud with grave-clothes resting.

Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.

That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.

Victorious king, thy mercy show!

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.
