1st Saturday 8:45am: Devotion &
Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary (prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

This Sunday, we are being reminded of both the importance of hospitality and the need to focus on God alone.

In the first reading, Abraham sets about serving the three persons loaves of bread, meat from his finest calf, cream and milk, he gives them (God) all his attention, care, and service.
In the Gospel, Martha and Mary welcome Jesus into their home.
While Martha is busy and fretting over many things, Mary sits at the feet of Jesus, listening and giving him all of her attention.
And this is the invitation to each of us. God invites us to put him at the centre of our lives and very being.

In all we're doing and being, is God the one and only one at the heart of our lives, from which all else flows?

Where is our attention? Who is at the centre of our lives ?

'The just will live in the presence of the Lord.'

Something to think about...

Just as Mary chooses to be in the presence of Jesus, we can choose, through prayer, to be in the presence of Jesus. It is a way for us to sit at Jesus's side and talk with him, placing our cares and concerns, as well as our praise and thanksgiving, before him. Prayer also affords us the opportunity to listen to Jesus and to hear what he is saying, insights he is giving us to help us be faithful disciples. For a disciple of Jesus, prayer is a necessary part of Christian life. Living a balanced Christian life requires us to place a priority on prayer, along with performing acts of kindness, as we strive to fulfill Jesus's command to love our neighbour.

Seminarians' Benefit Gala Dinner – Answering the Call: a celebration of faith and hope.

Every Christian life begins with a calling to holiness. God also calls some men in a particular way, to serve God's holy people as priests.

The Diocese of Broken Bay has six young men in formation, and many more discerning. We have the opportunity to foster, encourage, and support these men, and future generations of seminarians, on their vocational journey.

Join us for a Seminarians' Benefit Gala Dinner – Answering the Call: a celebration of faith and hope on Friday 22 August at The Epping Club, Rawson Street, Epping.

With your generous support and prayers it will be a night of fun and friendship. Come as an individual, a couple, family or arrange tables of 10 from your parish for a discount!

Bookings essential. Sponsorships available.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

See, I have God for my help. The Lord sustains my soul. I will sacrifice to you with willing heart, and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.

First Reading

Genesis 18:1-10

A reading from the book of Genesis. The Lord appeared to Abraham at the Oak of Mamre while he was sitting by the entrance of the tent during the hottest part of the day. He looked up, and there he saw three men standing near him. As soon as he saw them he ran from the entrance of the tent to meet them, and bowed to the ground. 'My Lord,' he said 'I beg you, if I find favour with you, kindly do not pass your servant by. A little water shall be brought; you shall wash your feet and lie down under the tree. Let me fetch a little bread and you shall refresh yourselves before going further. That is why you have come in your servant's direction.' They replied, 'Do as you say.' Abraham hastened to the tent to find Sarah. 'Hurry,' he said 'knead three bushels of flour and make loaves.' Then running to the cattle Abraham took a fine and tender calf and gave it to the servant, who hurried to prepare it. Then taking cream, milk and the calf he had prepared, he laid all before them, and they ate while he remained standing near them under the tree. 'Where is your wife Sarah?' he asked him. 'She is in the tent' he replied. Then his guest said, 'I shall visit you again next year without fail, and your wife will then have a son.'

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 14:2-5

R. The just will live in the presence of the Lord.

Lord, who shall dwell on your holy mountain?

He who walks without fault; he who acts with justice and speaks the truth from his heart; he who does not slander with his tongue. R.

He who does no wrong to his brother, who casts no slur on his neighbour, who holds the godless in disdain, but honours those who fear the Lord. R.

He who keeps his pledge come what may; who takes no interest on a loan and accepts no bribes against the innocent. Such a man will stand firm for ever. R.

Second Reading

Colossians 1:24-28

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians.

It makes me happy to suffer for you, as I am suffering now, and in my own body to do what I can to make up all that has still to be undergone by Christ for the sake of his body, the Church. I became the servant of the Church when God made me responsible for delivering God's message to you, the message which was a mystery hidden for generations and centuries and has now been revealed to his saints. It was God's purpose to reveal it to them and to show all the rich glory of this mystery to pagans. The mystery is Christ among you, your hope of glory: this is the Christ we proclaim, this is the wisdom in which we thoroughly train everyone and instruct everyone, to make them all perfect in Christ.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf Luke 8:15

Alleluia, alleluia!

Happy are they who have kept the word with a generous heart and yield a harvest through perseverance. Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 10:38-42

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

Jesus came to a village, and a woman named Martha welcomed him into her house. She had a sister called Mary, who sat down at the Lord's feet and listened to him speaking. Now Martha who was distracted with all the serving said, 'Lord, do you not care that my sister is leaving me to do the serving all by myself? Please tell her to help me.' But the Lord answered: 'Martha, Martha,' he said, 'you worry and fret about so many things, and yet few are needed, indeed only one. It is Mary who has chosen the better part; it is not to be taken from her.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord, the gracious, the merciful, has made a memorial of his wonders; he gives food to those who fear him.
