Today's readings speak about God restoring all things, all people, in Jesus, the King of the Universe. And so we come rejoicing to the house of the Lord, whether physically or in spirit, aware of the mystery of God our Creator who goes on creating his kingdom, right where we are.

The attitude he teaches us to have towards our sisters and brothers, whatever their situation, is to include them and be with them in their struggles, as he is with us in our struggles.

We are called to share with each one the gifts of unity and peace, that Jesus, our King for ever, had bestowed on us. With the repentant thief, may we take heart in Jesus' assurance that we will be with him for ever.

"Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord".

Next Wednesday, 23

November 2022, we will be reminded of the 200million Christians around the world who cannot freely exercise their faith. They suffer persecution and oppression for their love of Christ. You will see images of cathedrals, churches and public buildings from many countries illuminate their facades in red, the colour of blood and martyrdom. This is an initiative of Aid to the Church in Need (ACN) which the Diocese of Broken Bay is also supporting in solidarity of the persecuted. The Diocese of Broken Bay will show our support, remember and pray for the persecuted next Wednesday when the façade of Our Lady of Dolours at Chatswood will be floodlit in red, and Bishop Anthony Randazzo will celebrate Mass at 7.30pm to which everyone is welcome. The Church will also acknowledge the suffering of those in Ukraine with the country's national colours of blue and yellow floodlighting the Church on the other days of the week.

After the Mass, refreshments will be served in the church forecourt. More information about the work of Aid to the Church in Need and RED Wednesday visit <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/latest-news/red-wednesday-2022>

Thanksgiving Mass for the Canonisation of St John Baptist Scalabrini will take place at Our Lady of Mt Carmel Church, Mt Pritchard on Sunday November 27th at 2pm.

If you have booked a seat on the Bus, please can you drop off your ticket cost of $20.00 pp, to the Parish Office as soon as possible. No refund if change of mind. Please email your name & contact phone number to the parish office if you would like to attend by Wednesday 23rd November. We have a few spots still available on the bus. Thank you.

Interested in becoming Catholic? You are welcome to seek answers with us in our conversation through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) group. RCIA is the formation process by which non-Catholic adults learn about the Catholic faith journey and gradually become full members. 1st Meeting will take place on Tuesday 29th November at 7pm in St Kevin's church. If you would like to attend the meeting please contact the Parish Office to register. Thank you.

Broken Bay Advent Resource.

The Diocese of Broken Bay will offer an Advent Resource this year titled 'The Gifts of Christmas', written by Fr David Ranson VG. The resource focuses on the gifts of Hope, Faith, Joy, and Peace, representing the four Advent candles that are lit during the season. The booklet will be made available online in PDF format at www.bbcatholic.org.au in the leadup to Advent, which commences Sunday, 27 November. The program includes scripture, prayers, and guided reflective questions, and is able to be used individually or as part of a small group.

For further information, please contact Pina Bernard pina.bernard@bbcatholic.org.au or 0432 682 239.

St Rocco Mass Thanks

Thank you to all who attended and celebrated the St Rocco Mass last Sunday. Thanks to Fr Francesco for saying the Mass and to Carmel at Blessed Funerals for the beautiful flower arrangements. Donations on the day have gone to Warringah Parish and to Fr Francesco's mission in PNG.

Thank you for your generosity.

Fr James Mallon, author of Divine Renovation and founder of the Divine Renovation Ministry, will be coming to Sydney for the Divine Renovation Australasia Conference on 10-12 February 2023. This event will gather clergy and parish leaders from around Australia and New Zealand in what will be an exciting moment in the life of the Australian Church. The Divine Renovation ministry has helped over 1800 clergy and parishes around the world to begin a path of renewal to bring new life to parishes, focusing on three key principles – the power of the Holy Spirit, the primacy of evangelisation and the best of leadership. This Conference is an opportunity for a real boost and catalyst for parish renewal. Clergy, PPC members and parish leaders are encouraged to attend.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

How worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and divinity, and wisdom and strength and honour. To him belong glory and power for ever and ever.

First Reading

2 Samuel 5:1-3

A reading from the second book of Samuel

All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron. 'Look' they said 'we are your own flesh and blood. In days past when Saul was our king, it was you who led Israel in all their exploits; and the Lord said to you, "You are the man who shall be shepherd of my people Israel, you shall be the leader of Israel.'" So all the elders of Israel came to the king at Hebron, and King David made a pact with them at Hebron in the presence of the Lord, and they anointed David king of Israel.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 121:1-5

R. Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I rejoiced when I heard them say: 'Let us go to God's house.'

And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem. R.

Jerusalem is built as a city strongly compact.

It is there that the tribes go up, the tribes of the Lord. R.

For Israel's law it is, there to praise the Lord's name.

There were set the thrones of judgment of the house of David. R.

Second Reading

Colossians 1:12-20

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

We give thanks to the Father who has made it possible for you to join the saints and with them to inherit the light.

Because that is what he has done: he has taken us out of the power of darkness and created a place for us in the kingdom of the Son that he loves, and in him, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins.

He is the image of the unseen God and the first-born of all creation; for in him were created all things in heaven and on earth: everything visible and everything invisible, Thrones, Dominions, Sovereignities, Powers—all things were created through him and for him. Before anything was created, he existed, and he holds all things in unity.

Now the Church is his body, he is its head. As he is the Beginning, he was first to be born from the dead, so that he should be first in every way; because God wanted all perfection to be found in him and all things to be reconciled through him and for him, everything in heaven and everything on earth, when he made peace by his death on the cross.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Mark 11:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed is he who inherits the kingdom of David our Father; blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 23:35-43

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The people stayed before the cross watching Jesus. As for the leaders, they jeered at him. 'He saved others,' they said 'let him save himself if he is the Christ of God, the Chosen One.' The soldiers mocked him too, and when they approached to offer him vinegar they said, 'If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself.' Above him there was an inscription: 'This is the King of the Jews.'

One of the criminals hanging there abused him. 'Are you not the Christ?' he said. 'Save yourself and us as well.' But the other spoke up and rebuked him. 'Have you no fear of God at all?' he said, 'You got the same sentence as he did, but in our case we deserved it: we are paying for what we did. But this man has done nothing wrong. Jesus,' he said 'remember me when you come into your kingdom.' 'Indeed, I promise you,' he replied 'today you will be with me in paradise.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord sits as King for ever. The Lord will bless his people with peace.
