Our readings for this Sunday speak of the challenge and rewards of true discipleship. The woman in our first reading recognises holiness in the prophet Elisha, and her kindness to him is repaid with the blessing of a child. The second reading reminds us that baptism in Christ means entering into death with him—death to sin. Jesus expands further on this point in the Gospel.

He reminds his followers that discipleship means putting God above any other attachments, even the bonds of family.

It means carrying challenges and sacrifices, with the knowledge that we are accompanied and led by Jesus. It means losing the things that make us comfortable and secure in order to find God. These are not easy words to read, and not easy things to do, yet we know we are not alone in them.

In the Gospel, Jesus encourages the Twelve to follow in his footsteps. He is always leading.

How will I follow him today?

Catholic Care Assistance

Did you know that one in four Australians (25.1%) are finding it difficult to get by on their current income? It's not surprising given the sky rocketing cost of living! At CatholicCare we provide free, independent, and confidential financial counselling to anyone having difficulties managing money. It's always best to seek help early before your problems get out of control. To find out more call 1800 324 924 or visit www.catholiccaredbb.org.au.

Sacred Heart Mass

Join us in our Devotional prayers and Healing Mass to the Sacred Heart of Jesus here in St Kevin's this coming 7:00PM, 1st Friday of the month on 7th July 2023. We pray for cancer sufferers; heart patients and those affected with Covid-19 pandemic. Organised by SHOJMOA Sacred Heart of Jesus Medical Outreach Australia www.sacredheartaustralia.org

Become a Foster Carer

There are children in our community who have been through experiences few of us could begin to fathom and who, without our help, will go through a childhood without the love and support of a family. CatholicCare believe all children deserve a safe home, and by providing one we can help them build their self-esteem and develop the skills they need to succeed in life. We are looking for everyday families who might consider taking a child or young person into their home – to love and support them whether for one or two nights, a few weeks, months, or long term. Can you help? Please reach out on (02) 9481 2600 or visit www.fostering.org.au.

A NIGHT OF PRAISE & WORSHIP 2023

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

First Reading

2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16

A reading from the second book of the Kings.

One day as Elisha was on his way to Shunem, a woman of rank who lived there pressed him to stay and eat there. After this he always broke his journey for a meal when he passed that way. She said to her husband, 'Look, I am sure the man who is constantly passing our way must be a holy man of God. Let us build him a small room on the roof, and put him a bed in it, and a table and chair and lamp; whenever he comes to us he can rest there.'

One day when he came, he retired to the upper room and lay down. 'What can be done for her?' he asked.

Gehazi (his servant) answered, 'Well, she has no son and her husband is old.' Elisha said, 'Call her.' The servant called her and she stood at the door. 'This time next year,' Elisha said 'you will hold a son in your arms.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 88:2-3, 16-19

R. For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord; through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth.

Of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever, that your truth is firmly established as the heavens. R.

Happy the people who acclaim such a king, who walk, O Lord, in the light of your face, who find their joy every day in your name, who make your justice the source of their bliss. R.

For it is you, O Lord, who are the glory of their strength;

it is by your favour that our might is exalted: for our ruler is in the keeping of the Lord; our king in the keeping of the Holy One of Israel. R

Second Reading

Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans.

When we were baptised in Christ Jesus we were baptised in his death; in other words, when we were baptised we went into the tomb with him and joined him in death, so that as Christ was raised from the dead by the Father's glory, we too might live a new life.

But we believe that having died with Christ we shall return to life with him: Christ, as we know, having been raised from the dead will never die again. Death has no power over him any more. When he died, he died, once for all, to sin, so his life now is life with God; and in that way, you too must consider yourselves to be dead to sin but alive for God in Christ Jesus.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

1 Peter 2:9

Alleluia, alleluia!

You are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy people. Praise God who called you out of darkness and into his marvellous light. Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 10:37-42

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew Jesus instructed the Twelve as follows: 'Anyone who prefers father or mother to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who prefers son or daughter to me is not worthy of me. Anyone who does not take his cross and follow in my footsteps is not worthy of me. Anyone who finds his life will lose it; anyone who loses his life for my sake will find it.

'Anyone who welcomes you welcomes me; and those who welcome me welcome the one who sent me.

'Anyone who welcomes a prophet because he is a prophet will have a prophet's reward; and anyone who welcomes a holy man because he is a holy man will have a holy man's reward.

'If anyone gives so much as a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because he is a disciple, then I tell you solemnly, he will most certainly not lose his reward.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon
