Today's readings caution us not to discount small things as insignificant and clamour for big and more. What we need is not more things, more money, a bigger house or car, but enough of everything to live a good Christian life. Jesus shows us the creative miracle locked in faith as tiny as a mustard seed. Every good deed, backed by genuine faith, takes us further ahead in our journey towards God. There is immense value even in a small deed if done in faith. As today's second reading advises, we each need to 'fan into a flame the gift that God gave (us)' and guard this precious gift with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us. What small things can you do to help others? How big could those small things become?

harden not your hearts".

October : Month of the Holy Rosary.

The Catholic Church dedicates each month of the year to certain devotions. The month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary, one of the best known of all Catholic devotions. October includes the Feast of Our Lady of the Rosary (October 7). The presence and protection of our Mother Mary has immense power — requested, channeled, and honoured through the rosary. Her immaculate intercession has won wars and conquered hearts.

Something to think about ....

Colourful stories and exaggerations were part of Jesus's teachings. Today, Luke seems to have moderated on such figure of speech. In both Matthew & Mark, Jesus says that with faith his followers could throw a mountain into the sea. Luke reduces this to a mulberry tree, which is still a mighty feat in itself.

For all the prominence Luke gives to mercy and compassion in his Gospel, there are times when he takes a hard line. Luke is aware of the lure of possessions and constantly warns about the dangers of wealth. Well-to-do Christian leaders may be the target of the unique story he now tells. Servants who have done their job, would be foolish to expect their master to turn around and serve them. They would have forgotten their place. Community leaders too, must never forget that their role is to serve, not be served.

The two parts of the Gospel text stand in complete contrast to one another. Part one opens up a panorama of the infinitely possible, parts two shuts the door on illusions of self importance. A suitable pause allows us to distinguish the two parts of today's Gospel as two disparate units.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

First Reading

Habakkuk 1:2-3; 2:2-4

A reading from the prophet Habakkuk
How long, Lord, am I to cry for help while you will not listen; to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear and you will not save?

Why do you set injustice before me, why do you look on where there is tyranny?

Outrage and violence, this is all I see, all is contention, and discord flourishes. Then the Lord answered and said, 'Write the vision down, inscribe it on tablets to be easily read, since this vision is for its own time only: eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive; if it comes slowly, wait, for come it will, without fail.

See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights, but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 94:1-2, 6-9

R. If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us.

Let us come before him, giving thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord. R.

Come in; let us bow and bend low; let us kneel before the God who made us for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand. R.

O that today you would listen to his voice!

'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert when your fathers put me to the test;

when they tried me, though they saw my work.' R.

Second Reading

2 Timothy 1:6-8, 13-14

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to Timothy

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God. Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

1 Peter 1:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

The word of the Lord stands for ever; it is the word given to you, the Good News.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 17:5-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea," and it would obey you.

'Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately?" Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid;

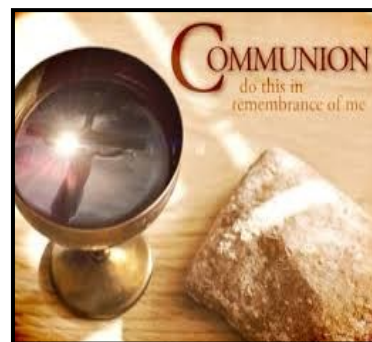

make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.
