Jesus uses the image of treasure to describe the reality of God's kingdom. A treasure isn't something we can earn, it's something we need to go out and search for, perhaps even for a long time. And look at how the two characters in the Gospel respond when they find their treasure: they sell all their possessions just to have that one treasure they have found. Jesus uses this parable to remind us that God is the greatest treasure of our lives, and perhaps also that we are God's own treasure: that, like the landowner and the merchant, God will do anything to have us near him and belonging to him.

From our WYD Pilgrims....

On the 19th of July 2023 we began our WYD pilgrimage along with our Augustinian brothers and sisters. The first week of our Italy/Portugal pilgrimage has been an eventful, enjoyable, and tiring experience as we overcome our jetlag as well. Of the first week there are many highlights. First up, was celebrating Mass in the Duomo of Milan, where we also renewed our baptismal promise. We felt privileged as the Mass was only held for our pilgrimage group, celebrated in English. We celebrated in a small chapel behind the main altar, where we were still visually and audible noticeably by the tourists. It was a surreal experience, sitting there, reflecting, and admiring the detailed architecture and stained glasses of the Duomo. We also visited the old baptismal pond where early Christians including St Augustine were baptized. The next highlight was our visit to Fatima, especially the evening procession. It was such a moving experience to be with a lot of people, sharing this poignant experience. We offered prayers to our families, friends, and the many people that supported us through their prayers and fundraising. It is an experience that we will never forget. Our first week has helped us further strengthen our faith, helped get a better understanding of our relationship with Jesus. And along the way we enjoyed seeing all the artefacts and learning the history about our faith. We felt blessed to be able to come along and take part in this journey. You are all in our prayers as we visit each of the sacred sites. Emmanuel, Jericho, Jonathan Please also check our Warringah Parish Facebook page, where we share a lot more photos and the places we have visited.

Finally made it! At Fatima...

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

God is in his holy place, God who unites those who dwell in his house; he himself gives might and strength to his people.

First Reading

1 Kings 3:5, 7-12

A reading from the first book of the Kings.

The Lord appeared to Solomon in a dream and said, 'Ask what you would like me to give you.' Solomon replied, 'Lord, my God, you have made your servant king in succession to David my father. But I am a very young man, unskilled in leadership. Your servant finds himself in the midst of this people of yours that you have chosen, a people so many its numbers cannot be counted or reckoned. Give your servant a heart to understand how to discern between good and evil, for who could govern this people of yours that is so great?' It pleased the Lord that Solomon should have asked for this. 'Since you have asked for this' the Lord said 'and not asked for long life for yourself or riches or the lives of your enemies, but have asked for a discerning judgement for yourself, here and now I do what you ask. I give you a heart wise and shrewd as none before you has had and none will have after you.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 118:57, 72, 76-77, 127-130

R. Lord, I love your commands.

My part, I have resolved, O Lord, is to obey your word.

The law from your mouth means more to me than silver and gold. R.

Let your love be ready to console me by your promise to your servant.

Let your love come to me and I shall live for your law is my delight. R.

That is why I love your commands more than finest gold.

That is why I rule my life by your precepts: I hate false ways. R.

Your will is wonderful indeed; therefore I obey it.

The unfolding of your word gives light and teaches the simple. R.

Second Reading

Romans 8:28-30

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Romans

We know that by turning everything to their good God co-operates with all those who love him, with all those that he has called according to his purpose. They are the ones he chose specially long ago and intended to become true images of his Son, so that his Son might be the eldest of many brothers. He called those he intended for this; those he called he justified, and with those he justified he shared his glory.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

of Matthew 11:25

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessed are you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth;

you have revealed to little ones the mysteries of the kingdom.

Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 13:44-52

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew

Jesus said to the crowds, 'The kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field which someone has found; he hides it again, goes off happy, sells everything he owns and buys the field.

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant looking for fine pearls; when he finds one of great value he goes and sells everything he owns and buys it.

'Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a dragnet cast into the sea that brings in a haul of all kinds. When it is full, the fishermen haul it ashore; then, sitting down, they collect the good ones in a basket and throw away those that are no use. This is how it will be at the end of time: the angels will appear and separate the wicked from the just to throw them into the blazing furnace where there will be weeping and grinding of teeth.

'Have you understood all this?' They said 'Yes.' And he said to them, 'Well then, every scribe who becomes a disciple of the kingdom of heaven is like a householder who brings out from his storeroom things both new and old.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
