Zacchaeus wanted to 'see' Jesus, while Jesus wanted to 'meet and stay' with Zacchaeus. The subtle difference in intent between Jesus and Zacchaeus has implications for our relationship with God. God wants to be engaged in our lives, to meet and stay with us where we are, sharing his forgiving love and presence. From a mere desire to see, Zacchaeus takes Jesus home, regardless of what others think. Without being asked, he declares that he will share his wealth with the poor, not out of selfish motives but obviously moved by Jesus' love.

We can learn much from Zacchaeus in our daily life. An effort to catch a glimpse of Jesus will have him waiting for us, inviting himself into our hearts. When we take one step towards God, he take several towards us. Do we still only want to 'see' Jesus or to 'meet' and be transformed by him forever?
Lord, I leave the doors of my heart open, please enter in.

HOW DO WE PRAY?

A SHORT COURSE LED BY FR GERARD MORAN, OCD.

"For me, prayer is a surge of the heart; it is a simple look turned toward heaven, it is a cry of recognition and of love, embracing both trial and joy."

St. Therese of Lisieux.

We will look at: "How we pray". We will try to address together the basic questions: What is prayer? Why pray? When do we pray? Where do we pray? With what do we pray?

The evening will include an input, an opportunity for questions and comments and a short period of praying quietly together.

When: Thursday evening 7:30 – 9pm on 3 November.

Where: Corpus Christi Parish Hall, 263 Mona Vale Road, St Ives. Registration: You can register by emailing the Parish Office,

office@corpuschristi.com.au or by calling 9144 6998.

This is important for preparing the hall for the event.

Payment: There will be a donation box for people to contribute if they wish.

Shrine to St John Paul II
And
Installation of Relics

The Diocese of Broken Bay now has Australia's first national Shrine to St John Paul II – but it is a Shrine for all of Australia. More than a thousand people gathered at St Patrick's Church, East Gosford last Saturday to celebrate the inauguration of the Shrine to St John Paul II and the installation of two first-class relics.

Bishop Anthony has said :

"I encourage people throughout the Diocese, and indeed right around the country, to visit the Shrine. Make this Shrine, this sanctuary of love, a place to intercede through St John Paul II for vocations, to the married life, to the consecrated life, to the single life and to the ordained priestly and diaconal life. This will become a great powerhouse to continue the wonderful work that is already happening in this Diocese and in the Church right across Australia"

The Shrine will be open daily, and the relics will be permanently housed in the reliquary, allowing people to come and pray before them throughout the year. The full Installation Mass can be viewed at <https://www.bbcatholic.org.au/jpii/home>

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Forsake me not, O Lord my God; be not far from me! Make haste and come to my help, O Lord, my strong salvation!

First Reading

Wisdom 11:22 - 12:2

A reading from the book of Wisdom
In your sight, Lord, the whole world is like a grain of dust that tips the scales, like a drop of morning dew falling on the ground.

Yet you are merciful to all, because you can do all things and overlook men's sins so that they can repent.
Yes, you love all that exists, you hold nothing of what you have made in abhorrence, for had you hated anything, you would not have formed it.
And how, had you not willed it, could a thing persist, how be conserved if not called forth by you?

You spare all things because all things are yours, Lord, lover of life, you whose imperishable spirit is in all. Little by little, therefore, you correct those who offend, you admonish and remind them of how they have sinned, so that they may abstain from evil and trust in you, Lord.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 144:1-2, 8-11, 13-14

R. I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.

I will give you glory, O God my King,
I will bless your name for ever.
I will bless you day after day
and praise your name for ever. R.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,

compassionate to all his creatures R.

All your creatures shall thank you, O Lord, and your friends shall repeat their blessing.

They shall speak of the glory of your reign and declare your might, O God. R.

The Lord is faithful in all his words and loving in all his deeds.
The Lord supports all who fall and raises all who are bowed down. R.

Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 1:11 - 2:2

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians
We pray continually that our God will make you worthy of his call, and by his power fulfil all your desires for goodness and complete all that you have been doing through faith; because in this way the name of our Lord Jesus Christ will be glorified in you and you in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.
To turn now, brothers, to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and how we shall all be gathered round him: please do not get excited too soon or alarmed by any prediction or rumour or any letter claiming to come from us, implying that the Day of the Lord has already arrived.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 3:16

Alleluia, alleluia!
God loved the world so much, he gave us his only Son,
that all who believe in him might have eternal life.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 19:1-10

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Jesus entered Jericho and was going through the town when a man whose name was Zacchaeus made his appearance; he was one of the senior tax collectors and a wealthy man. He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd; so he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore tree to catch a glimpse of Jesus who was to pass that way. When Jesus reached the spot he looked up and spoke to him: 'Zacchaeus, come down. Hurry, because I must stay at your house today.' And he hurried down and welcomed him joyfully. They all complained when they saw what was happening. 'He has gone to stay at a sinner's house' they said. But Zacchaeus stood his ground and said to the Lord, 'Look, sir, I am going to give half my property to the poor' and if I have cheated anybody I will pay him back four times the amount' And Jesus said to him, 'Today salvation has come to this house, because this man too is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek out and save what was lost.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

You will show me the path of life, the fullness of joy in your presence, O Lord.
