Who is God? 'God is Love'. God is a community of Love:

The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. 'For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in Him may not perish but have eternal life.'

Pope Frances suggests, 'these words indicate that the action of the three divine Persons-Father, Son and Holy Spirit is a single plan of love that saves the world.' He continues, 'The Trinity is therefore Love, all in the service of the world, which God wishes to save and recreate.' Therefore, we never have to feel alone, the persons of the Blessed Trinity are with us and are working for our good. May we open our hearts to welcome their love and presence, so that we, in turn, can present and transmit their love to our family, friends, community and world.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Vox Populi ( extract of letter from Bishop Anthony)

This Sunday we celebrate Holy Trinity Sunday – the first Sunday following Pentecost. It is a solemn celebration of the belief in the revelation of one God, yet three divine persons: God the Father, the creator and sustainer of all things; God the Son, the incarnation of God as a human being, Jesus Christ, on Earth; and God the Heavenly Spirit, the power of God which is active in the world, drawing people towards God.

The doctrine of the Trinity is perhaps one of the more difficult aspects of Christianity, but it is fundamental. It helps us understand the complex nature of God. The three persons of the Trinity teaches us better about the nature of God and the roles He plays. While we recognise God the Father is our Father and the Author of Life and God the Son is our Lord and Saviour, God the Holy Spirit is our Teacher and Guide and helps us understand that God is always present in the world. This is a great source of strength as we know God is always with us.

World Youth Day 2023 Lisbon - Update

Our preparations for World Youth Day continues... only 7 weeks, 3 days, 15 hours sleeps left! We attended the formation session facilitated by the Diocese of Broken Bay, on Tuesday 16th May, at St Agatha's Parish Hall, Pennant Hills. It was a challenge to get there on time, as we were coming from work and uni, driving across town during peak hour traffic! This experience is a timely reminder that as pilgrims, things will not always go smoothly and that there will be some bumps along the way and the best thing for us to do is to keep our cool, be there for each other and go with the flow. The session was worth it though and appropriate, given what we had just gone through to get there on time. The key topic for today's session: a pilgrim's mental well-being. It was an appropriate topic as each of us will experience emotions in different. They highlighted this point and pointed out that we will experience a wide range of emotions ranging from excitement, happiness to feelings of anxiety and stress. These emotions can be triggered by anything such as long plane trips, being away from family, forgetting stuff, losing things, sharing a space with people we don't know. We do not know when or where it will happen. The main thing that we can do is to look out for each other and ask them "r u ok?". Emmanuel, Jonathan, Jericho

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father, and the Only Begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his merciful love.

First Reading

Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9

A reading from the book of Exodus. With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there. He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Daniel 3:52-56

You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Blest your glorious holy name.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the temple of your glory.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest on the throne of your kingdom.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest who gaze into the depths.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

You are blest in the firmament of the heaven.

R. Glory and praise for ever!

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 13:11-13

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss.

All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the holy Spirit be with you all.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

cf Revelation 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:

to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 3:16-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

Jesus said to Nicodemus,

'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life.

For God sent his Son into the world

not to condemn the world,

but so that through him the world might be saved.

No one who believes in him will be condemned;

but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already,

because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Since you are children of God, God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son, the Spirit who cries out :
Abba, Father
