Today's Gospel continues to elaborate on the tension between Jesus and the Scribes and Pharisees.

Jesus tells the crowd that it is correct to do and observe what the Scribes and Pharisees teach; it is their example that is to be avoided, namely, their love of being honoured and exalted. Hence, the Gospel reflects the tension of an active internal debate within the early Church.

The warning Jesus gives against seeking places of honour in the community was directed as much toward the Christian community as the named Jewish leaders. Indeed, it is a warning that resonates with us today. Christian leadership is a call to service for the glory of God; those who would be leaders among us must, like Jesus, must be servants of all.

In you, Lord, I have found my peace

Something to think about ...

Do you wonder what it would be like to stand before Jesus today, with all our failures and sins, and be loved without condition, without any reservations? Are there any elements of "control" in the way I love and treat others? I talk to Jesus about this and how he sees and loves me and ask for his guidance in my everyday life.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Forsake me not, O Lord, my God;
be not far from me!
Make haste and come to my help, O
Lord, my strong salvation !

First Reading

Malachi 1:14 - 2:2, 8-10
A reading from the prophet Malachi.
I am a great king, says the Lord of hosts, and my name is feared throughout the nations. And now, priests, this warning is for you. If you do not listen, if you do not find it in your heart to glorify my name, says the Lord of hosts, I will send the curse on you and curse your very blessing.
You have strayed from the way; you have caused many to stumble by your teaching. You have destroyed the covenant of Levi, says the Lord of hosts. And so I in my turn have made you contemptible and vile in the eyes of the whole people in repayment for the way you have not kept to my paths but have shown partiality in your administration.

Have we not all one Father?
Did not one God create us? Why, then, do we break faith with one another, profaning the covenant of our ancestors?

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 130

R. In you, Lord, I have found my peace.

O Lord, my heart is not proud nor haughty my eyes.
I have not gone after things too great nor marvels beyond me. R.

Truly I have set my soul
in silence and peace.
A weaned child on its mother's breast, even so is my soul. R.

O Israel, hope in the Lord both now and for ever. R.

Second Reading

1 Thessalonians 2:7-9, 13
A reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians.
Like a mother feeding and looking after her own children, we felt so devoted and protective towards you, and had come to love you so much, that we were eager to hand over to you not only the Good News but our whole lives as well. Let me remind you, brothers, how hard we used to work, slaving night and day so as not to be a burden on any one of you while we were proclaiming God's Good news to you.

Another reason why we constantly thank God for you is that as soon as you heard the message that we brought you as God's message, you accepted it for what it really is, God's message and not some human thinking; and it is still a living power among you who believe it.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 23:9, 10

Alleluia, alleluia!

You have one Father, your Father in heaven; you have one teacher: the Lord Jesus Christ.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 23:1-12

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.
Addressing the people and his disciples Jesus said, 'The scribes and the Pharisees occupy the chair of Moses. You must therefore do what they tell you and listen to what they say; but do not be guided by what they do: since they do not practise what they preach. They tie up heavy burdens and lay them on men's shoulders, but will they lift a finger to move them? Not they! Everything they do is done to attract attention, like wearing broader phylacteries and longer tassels, like wanting to take the place of honour at banquets and the front seats in the synagogues, being greeted obsequiously in the market squares and having people call them Rabbi.

'You, however, must not allow yourselves to be called Rabbi, since you have only one Master, and you are all brothers. You must call no one on earth your father, since you have only one Father, and he is in heaven.
Nor must you allow yourselves to be called teachers, for you have only one Teacher, the Christ. The greatest among you must be your servant.
Anyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and anyone who humbles himself will be exalted.'

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

fullness of joy in your presence, O
