Consecration to the Immaculate Heart of Mary (prayers for Souls in Purgatory)

'Rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven'.

What must I do to ensure my name is also written in heaven?

For this is my heart and soul's deepest desire—to share the kingdom of heaven with my Lord upon my death. Being a disciple of Jesus involves work and commitment. It calls me to walk in faith, hope and love, daily. It can be difficult at times, particularly in those moments of darkness, rejection and challenge, but there is also great joy when I can bring Jesus' love to others, and when they too desire to be closer to him.

Jesus, help me to trust in you, to create the kingdom of God here on earth, so that when the time comes, I may enjoy eternal rest in your heavenly presence.

'Let all the earth cry out to God with joy'

Sydney's Picnic for Peace : Sunday August 31st .
12noon to 2pm Sydney Olympic Park

SYDNEY COMMITS TO PEACE

We're living in a time where the cracks in our communities are widening; driven by politics that divide and voices that inflame.

We're heartbroken, but we're not helpless.

Sydney's Picnic for Peace is our response.

A public, interfaith, cross-cultural and intergenerational event: a radical reclaiming of peace, hope, and shared humanity.

This is about more than one day in a park. It's about reconnecting Sydney's spirit and compassion again through music, dialogue, breaking bread, and shared purpose: reclaiming our common ground, and rediscover what it means to belong.

LET'S SHOW THE WORLD WHAT SYDNEY IS TRULY MADE OF.

The next Baptism Workshop will take place on Wednesday 9th July at 7pm. Please email the office on warringahparish@bbcatholic.org.au for more information and to book a place.

Something to think about ...

Jesus is very honest with his disciples when he tells them that the proclamation of the Good News will be hard work but that there is great potential, actually a very ripe potential, for bringing many people into a new relationship with God. Even though the work is difficult, there is also great satisfaction in witnessing God come alive in others.

Cenacle of Prayer in Italian

Will start from 10am every Tuesday in St John's Church . All welcome .

Upcoming Pilgrimage to Jubilee Holy Door sites to Manly, Chatswood & Gosford, on 30th August . Price $25 per person bus fare. Bring your own lunch & morning tea. Please contact the office. Only 60 places available.

Bible Study Group will commence with Fr Resty on Thursday 1st August at 6.30pm in St Kevin's Church. All welcome.

Pastoral Discernment Northern Beaches project update!

Throughout 2024, the Northern Beaches Deanery came together in a spirit of prayer, dialogue, and reflection—guided by the Holy Spirit—as part of the Diocesan Pastoral Discernment Projects.

Bishop Anthony gratefully received the Final Report in September 2024. In reflecting on its outcomes, he recognised a number of significant pastoral opportunities that call for further conversation across the Deanery. 'These ongoing discussions will serve as an important means of "listening further" to the fruits of the discernment that has already taken place.'

On Saturday, 28 June, Bishop Anthony met with the clergy of the Northern Beaches Deanery for the Diocese's first Clergy-in-Council session, engaging in further dialogue around the emerging themes. The session was marked by fruitful conversations in the spirit of synodality. Bishop Anthony will prayerfully consider all contributions as he discerns a pastoral response for this region of the Diocese. May the Holy Spirit continue to inspire us to grow as a synodal church—deepening dialogue within our communities and reaching outward in service of Christ's mission.

Clergy & Parish Broken Bay team is hosting a Free Wills Seminar & Morning Tea for parishioners. This seminar is more than just legal advice—it's about stewardship, care, and love that extends beyond our lifetime. It offers parishioners the chance to plan well, care for their families, and consider a legacy that supports our mission for future generations.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Your merciful love, O God, we have received in the midst of your temple. Your praise, O God, like your name, reaches the ends of the earth; your right hand is filled with saving justice.

First Reading

Isaiah 66:10-14

A reading from the prophet Isaiah. Rejoice, Jerusalem, be glad for her, all you who love her! Rejoice, rejoice for her, all you who mourned her! That you may be suckled, filled, from her consoling breast, that you may savour with delight her glorious breasts. For thus says the Lord: Now towards her I send flowing peace, like a river, and like a stream in spate the glory of the nations. At her breast will her nurslings be carried and fondled in her lap. Like a son comforted by his mother will I comfort you. And by Jerusalem you will be comforted. At the sight your heart will rejoice, and your bones flourish like the grass. To his servants the Lord will reveal his hand.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 65:1-7, 16, 20

R. Let all the earth cry out to God with joy.

Cry out with joy to God all the earth, O sing to the glory of his name. O render him glorious praise. Say to God: 'How tremendous your deeds! R.

'Before you all the earth shall bow: shall sing to you, sing to your name!' Come and see the works of God, tremendous his deeds among men. R. He turned the sea into dry land, they passed through the river dry-shod. Let our joy then be in him;

he rules for ever by his might. R. Come and hear, all who fear God. I will tell what he did for my soul. Blessed be God who did not reject my prayer nor withhold his love from me. R.

Second Reading

Galatians 6:14-18

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Galatians. The only thing I can boast about is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world. It does not matter if a person is circumcised or not; what matters is for him to become an altogether new creature. Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule, who form the Israel of God. I want no more trouble from anybody after this; the marks on my body are those of Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, my brothers. Amen.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Colossians 3:15, 16

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, and the fullness of his message live within you. Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 10:1-12, 17-20

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke.

The Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them out ahead of him, in pairs, to all the towns and places he himself was to visit. He said to them, 'The harvest is rich but the labourers are few, so ask the Lord of the harvest to send labourers to his harvest. Start off now, but remember, I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Carry no purse, no haversack, no sandals. Salute no one on the road. Whatever house you go into, let your first words be, "Peace to this house!" And if a man of peace lives there, your peace will go and rest on him; if not, it will come back to you. Stay in the same house, taking what food and drink they have to offer, for the labourer deserves his wages; do not move from house to house. Whenever you go into a town where they make you welcome, eat what is set before you. Cure those in it who are sick, and say, "The kingdom of God is very near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not make you welcome, go out into its streets and say, "We wipe off the very dust of your town that clings to our feet, and leave it with you. Yet be sure of this: the kingdom of God is very near." I tell you, on that day it will not go as hard with Sodom as with that town.' The seventy-two came back rejoicing. 'Lord,' they said, 'even the devils submit to us when we use your name.' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall like lightning from heaven. Yes, I have given you power to tread underfoot serpents and scorpions and the whole strength of the enemy; nothing shall ever hurt you. Yet do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you; rejoice rather that your names are written in heaven.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon
