Today's readings speak strongly about 'new life', 'resurrection'.

As children of God, we are people of the resurrection.

Jesus refers to Moses' experience of God at the burning bush;
Jesus, our new Moses, states that this same God who spoke to Moses is 'God of the living; for to him all are in fact alive'.

In the psalm we proclaim that God will 'fill us with the sight of (God's) glory' when we 'awake' after our death.

The Gospel acclamation proclaims that 'Jesus Christ is the firstborn of the dead'. In wonder and awe, with strong hope, trust and joy we proclaim: 'glory and kingship be his for ever and ever'. Every Sunday, like Easter Sunday, celebrates the resurrection of the Lord, in which our own resurrection is assured because God is not a God 'of the dead but of the living', for to him all are, in fact, alive.

"Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full".

Webinar: Becoming a Church of Closeness - The Challenges and Opportunities of Synodality.

A live conversation with Sr Nathalie Becquart, Fr James Mallon and Dr Hannah Vaughan-Spruce. Catholics around the world want to respond to Pope Francis' vision of becoming a "Church of closeness". But without a clear understanding of what it means, many are unsure how this might look like in a parish. What does Pope Francis mean when calling the Church to become a Church of closeness? What is synodality? What are the challenges and opportunities it presents for a parish living out its evangelising mission? Be part of this upcoming global event.

Date: Saturday 19 November, 5:00pm (local time)

Vox Populi - Voice of the People. Around seven weeks to Christmas and decorations are beginning to appear in the shops and invitations to end-of-year gatherings starting to fill the diaries. However, there is much more to observe and celebrate during the month of November.

We began the month praying for the faithful departed and later in the month, we also celebrate the Feast of Christ the King. We also celebrate the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary on 21 November, and St Andrew the Apostle on 30 November.

Very importantly November is also the beginning of Advent, a time of preparation, reflection, and anticipation which marks our journey to the Festival of Christmas and the Birth of Christ, and also of preparation for the Second Coming of Christ. This year Advent will begin on Sunday 27 November and ends on Saturday 24 December.

So if you're already shopping for decorations don't forget your Advent candles! an the month praying for the faithful departed. Bishop Anthony

POPE FRANCIS' PRAYER INTENTION FOR NOVEMBER

FOR CHILDREN WHO SUFFER

We pray for children who are suffering, especially those who are homeless, orphans, and victims of war; may they be guaranteed access to education and the opportunity to experience family affection.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Let my prayer come into your presence. Incline your ear to my cry for help, O Lord.

First Reading

2 Maccabees 7:1-2, 9-14

A reading from the second book of Maccabees

There were seven brothers who were arrested with their mother. The king tried to force them to taste pig's flesh, which the Law forbids, by torturing them with whips and scourges. One of them, acting as spokesman for the others, said, 'What are you trying to find out from us? We are prepared to die rather than break the Law of our ancestors.'

With his last breath the second brother exclaimed, 'Inhuman fiend, you may discharge us from this present life, but the King of the world will raise us up, since it is for his laws that we die, to live again for ever.'

After him, they amused themselves with the third, who on being asked for his tongue promptly thrust it out and boldly held out his hands, with these honourable words, 'It was heaven that gave me these limbs; for the sake of his laws I disdain them; from him I hope to receive them again.' The king and his attendants were astounded at the young man's courage and his utter indifference to suffering.

When this one was dead they subjected the fourth to the same savage torture. When he neared his end he cried, 'Ours is the better choice, to meet death at men's hands, yet relying on God's promise that we shall be raised up by him; whereas for you there can be no resurrection, no new life.'

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 16:1, 5-6, 8, 15

R. Lord, when your glory appears, my joy will be full.

Lord, hear a cause that is just, pay heed to my cry.

Turn your ear to my prayer: no deceit is on my lips. R.

I kept my feet firmly in your paths; there was no faltering in my steps. I am here and I call, you will hear me, O God.

Turn your ear to me; hear my words. R.

Guard me as the apple of your eye. Hide me in the shadow of your wings. As for me, in my justice I shall see your face and be filled, when I awake, with the sight of your glory. R.

Second Reading

2 Thessalonians 2:16 - 3:5

A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Thessalonians

May our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who has given us his love and, through his grace, such inexhaustible comfort and such sure hope, comfort you and strengthen you in everything good that you do or say. Finally, brothers, pray for us; pray that the Lord's message may spread quickly, and be received with honour as it was among you; and pray that we may be preserved from the interference of bigoted and evil people, for faith is not given to everyone. But the Lord is faithful, and he will give you strength and guard you from the evil one, and we, in the Lord, have every confidence that you are doing and will go on doing all that we tell you. May the Lord turn your hearts towards the love of God and the fortitude of Christ.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Revelation 1:5, 6

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus Christ is the firstborn of the dead; glory and kingship be his for ever and ever.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 20:27-38

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

Some Sadducees - those who say that there is no resurrection - approached Jesus and they put this question to him.

"Master, we have it from Moses in writing, that if a man's married brother dies childless, the man must marry the widow to raise up children for his brother. Well, then, there were seven brothers. The first, having married a wife, died childless. The second and the third married the widow. And the same with all seven, they died leaving no children. Finally the woman herself died. Now, at the resurrection, to which of them will she be wife since she had been married to all seven?"

Jesus replied, 'The children of this world take wives and husbands, but those who are judged worthy of a place in the other world and in the resurrection from the dead do not marry because they can no longer die, for they are the same as the angels, and being children of the resurrection they are sons of God. And Moses himself implies that the dead rise again, in the passage about the bush where he calls the Lord the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob. Now he is God, not of the dead, but of the living; for to him all men are in fact alive.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. Fresh and green are the pastures where he gives me repose, near restful waters he leads me.
