Thomas represents future generations of Christians who are called to believe on the testimony of others. At the Last Supper, in his prayer to the Father, Jesus already had them in mind: 'I pray not only for these, but for those also who, through their words will believe, in me. May they be one, Father, may they be one in us, as you are in me and I am in you'. As profound as Thomas' confession was after he came to believe, the faith of those who do not enjoy the kind of experience he and the other

Disciples had is more remarkable.

' You did not see him, yet you love him, and still without seeing him, you are already filled with a joy so glorious that it cannot be described, because you believe; and you are sure of the end to which your faith looks forward, that is, the salvation of your souls'.

'Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting'.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

Something to think about ..

Locked doors were not enough to prevent Jesus joining his disciples, who were held bound by their fears. His message of peace, combined with his showing them his hands and side, helped them to accept him as real. Help us to open our minds and hearts to the wonder of new life that you offer and to the peace you alone can give.

Pastoral Discernment Northern Beaches

As recently communicated, Bishop Anthony invites the community of the Northern Beaches to engage in a regional Pastoral Discernment Project. Our regional Pastoral Discernment is a synodal process, a shared discernment about our Mission to bring the Good News of Jesus Christ to the world. Throughout the Pastoral Discernment Project, there will be many and varied opportunities for the community of the Northern Beaches to engage richly in conversation and to listen to diverse experiences of life from each other, as we journey forward together guided by the Holy Spirit.

Want to find out more about the Northern Beaches project?

Join us for an online Briefing Circle on 9 April.

At this one-hour online gathering, participants will learn more about the project and ways in which you can participate, you will also be provided with the opportunity to ask questions and share your hopes. There are two sessions, which are repeated, please choose one of the following options when registering.

- 11am Tuesday 9 April
- 7pm Tuesday 9 April.

Register here

Once you have registered, you will receive a follow-up email with the Zoom link for your chosen session. For questions about the project, contact Patti Beattie Director of Pastoral Discernment and Accompaniment via email at: PDNB@bbcatholic.org.au

Thank you.

Huge thanks go to everyone who donated their time to assist with the Parish Easter preparations. It was a wonderful Easter Weekend and not possible without the help of our kind and generous parishioners.

Congratulations to our Catechumens who were welcomed into the Catholic Church at the Easter Vigil Mass. Special thanks to Blessed Funerals for the floral arrangements

Parish 10cents/Fundraising/ Recycling

Recycling recently raised an additional $65.00 and our total is now $1200.00 Thank you. Please keep in mind that the recycling machine only accepts bottles with the 10 cent label otherwise, we cannot accept them. We appreciate your help and support in this fund raising appeal for the Parish.

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

Like newborn infants, you must long for the pure, spiritual milk, that in him you may grow to salvation, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 4:32-35

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

The whole group of believers was united, heart and soul; no one claimed for his own use anything that he had, as everything they owned was held in common.

The apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power, and they were all given great respect.

None of their members was ever in want, as all those who owned land or houses would sell them, and bring the money from them, to present it to the apostles; it was then distributed to any members who might be in need.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:2-4, 15-18, 22-24

R. Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, his love is everlasting.

Let the sons of Israel say:

'His love has no end.'

Let the sons of Aaron say:

'His love has no end.'

Let those who fear the Lord say:

'His love has no end.' R.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds.

I was punished, I was punished by the Lord, but not doomed to die. R.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone,

This is the work of the Lord,

a marvel in our eyes.

This day was made by the Lord;

we rejoice and are glad. R.

Second Reading

1 John 5:1-6

A reading from the first letter of St John.

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten by God; and whoever loves the Father that begot him loves the child whom he begets.

We can be sure that we love God's children if we love God himself and do what he has commanded us; this is what loving God is - keeping his commandments; and his commandments are not difficult, because anyone who has been begotten by God has already overcome the world; this is the victory over the world - our faith.

Who can overcome the world?

Only the man who believes that Jesus is the Son of God;

Jesus Christ who came by water and blood, not with water only, but with water and blood; with the Spirit as another witness - since the Spirit is the truth.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

John 20:29

Alleluia, alleluia!

You believe in me, Thomas, because you have seen me;

happy those who have not seen me, but still believe!

Alleluia!

Gospel

John 20:19-31

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side.

The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit.

For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven;

for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.'

Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord,' he answered, 'Unless I see the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them.

'Peace be with you,' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him:

'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Bring your hand and feel the place of the nails, and do not be unbelieving but believing, alleluia.
