Today we begin the Easter Season, our 50-day meditation on the mystery of Christ's Resurrection. The Gospel today tells us about the disciples' discovery of the empty tomb.

It concludes by telling us that they did not yet understand that Jesus had risen from the dead.

Our Easter faith is based on their witness to both the empty tomb and their continuing relationship with Jesus—in his appearances and in his gift of the Holy Spirit.

let us rejoice and be glad".

Easter Reflection

Faith in the resurrection of Christ is not automatic. Knowing the details of the first Easter Sunday like the empty tomb, the stone rolled away and the linen cloths is not enough. Yes these are necessary to establish the veracity of the resurrection, but they can be misinterpreted.

Mary Magdalene herself believed Jesus' body was taken away by someone . Peter was also quiet about what he saw and did not go further into the tomb.

It was John, that made an act of faith. He saw and he believed. Many of the disciples failed to see the meaning of the resurrection because they had not understood the holy scriptures.

For us Christians today, we can appreciate our faith better if we have knowledge of sacred scriptures, both in the Old and the New Testament and understand the message contained therein.

Let us pray to God for an enlightened faith and that the Spirit of the Lord may guide you in your spiritual journey.

Priests Away

The Scalabrinians in Australia and Asia will be having their annual Provincial Assembly in April this year.

Therefore, your priests will be away from the 17th until the morning of the 22nd of April 2023. While they are away, there will be NO MASSES at St. John's, Narraweena from the 18th to the 22nd. Services at St. John's will resume with the 5:00 PM Vigil Mass on the 22nd of April.

There will be daily masses at St. Kevin's from the 17th to the 22nd. Please take note though that the 12:00 noon mass on the 21st of April (Friday) will be cancelled. The morning confessions in both churches on the 22nd of April (Saturday) will also be cancelled. However, there will be confessions at St. Kevin's from 5:00-5:45 PM on the 22nd. Please be guided accordingly and thank you for your understanding.

PARISH NEWS/EVENTS

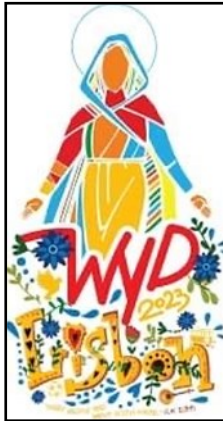

On behalf of our priests, we wish all parishioners and visitors a Holy and joyful Easter. Fr Resty, Fr Savino and Fr Jose.

A big thank you to all parishioners who have assisted with the Easter celebrations in all ministries. May the risen Jesus reward you all with his Peace. Happy Easter . Fr Resty

WYD 2023: Update

On the 25th of March, we travelled to Gosford by train to meet up with fellow world youth day pilgrims from along the eastern New South Wales coast. Upon arriving at the Gosford primary school, we marked our names off and waited around as the other 160 pilgrims shortly arrived. To commence, the beginning of this gathering a large-scale picnic took place where sharing and conversing with people outside our pilgrim group was encouraged. While Jonathan and I didn't bring food nor did we know anybody, we did share moments with 2 schoolboys and a teacher who came from the same school we had graduated from, St Augustine's. They were in the same boat as well, and we stuck with each other throughout the event. After the picnic, we all participated in whole group activities such as bingo which created a fun and enjoyable atmosphere that as well provided opportunities to open up to the other pilgrims. After the activities, we headed to the school hall where we were briefed on the details of the pilgrim. In the briefing, we went over details of the main pilgrim events, luggage requirements, and hotel overviews. Finally, there was a mass. Overall, it was a great experience, my personal favourite part was conversating with the Boys from my high school. We are looking forward to part 2 of the pilgrim formation evening on Tuesday, 16th May at St Agatha's Pennant Hills. Emmanuel, Jonathan, Jericho.

Come along, learn, have fun and at the same time support our boys on their World Youth Day 2023 Pilgrimage at Lisbon, Portugal

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Entrance Antiphon

I have risen, and I am with you still, alleluia.
You have laid your hand upon me, alleluia.
Too wonderful for me, this knowledge, alleluia, alleluia.

First Reading

Acts 10:34, 37-43

A reading from the Acts of the Apostles

Peter addressed Cornelius and his household: You must have heard about the recent happenings in Judaea; about Jesus of Nazareth and how he began in Galilee, after John had been preaching baptism. God had anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, and because God was with him, Jesus went about doing good and curing all who had fallen into the power of the devil.' Now I, and those with me, can witness to everything he did throughout the countryside of Judaea and in Jerusalem itself: and also to the fact that they killed him by hanging him on a tree, yet three days afterwards God raised him to life and allowed him to be seen, not by the whole people but only by certain witnesses God had chosen beforehand. Now we are those witnesses - we have eaten and drunk with him after his resurrection from the dead - and he has ordered us to proclaim this to his people and to tell them that God has appointed him to judge everyone, alive or dead. It is to him that all the prophets bear this witness: that all who believe in Jesus will have their sins forgiven through his name.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 117:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

R. This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad.

Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Let the sons of Israel say:

'His love has no end.' R.

The Lord's right hand has triumphed; his right hand raised me up.

I shall not die, I shall live and recount his deeds. R.

The stone which the builders rejected has become the corner stone.

This is the work of the Lord,

a marvel in our eyes. R.

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-4

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Colossians

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed - and he is your life - you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Sequence

Christians, to the Paschal Victim offer sacrifice and praise.

The sheep are ransomed by the Lamb; and Christ, the undefiled, hath sinners to his Father reconciled.

Death with life contended: combat strangely ended!

Life's own Champion, slain, yet lives to reign.

Tell us, Mary: say what thou didst see upon the way.

The tomb the Living did enclose;

I saw Christ's glory as he rose!

The angels there attesting; shroud with grave-clothes resting.

Christ, my hope, has risen: he goes before you into Galilee.

That Christ is truly risen from the dead we know.

Victorious king, thy mercy show!

Gospel Acclamation

1 Corinthians 5:7-8

Alleluia, alleluia!

Christ has become our paschal sacrifice; let us feast with joy in the Lord. Alleluia!

Gospel

John 20:1-9

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John

It was very early on the first day of the week and still dark, when Mary of Magdala came to the tomb. She saw that the stone had been moved away from the tomb and came running to Simon Peter and the other disciple, the one Jesus loved. 'They have taken the Lord out of the tomb' she said 'and we don't know where they have put him.'

So Peter set out with the other disciple to go to the tomb. They ran together, but the other disciple, running faster than Peter, reached the tomb first; he bent down and saw the linen cloths lying on the ground, but did not go in. Simon Peter who was following now came up, went right into the tomb, saw the linen cloths on the ground, and also the cloth that had been over his head; this was not with the linen cloths but rolled up in a place by itself. Then the other disciple who had reached the tomb first also went in; he saw and he believed. Till this moment they had failed to understand the teaching of scripture, that he must rise from the dead.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon

Christ our Passover has been sacrificed, alleluia; therefore let us keep the feast with the unleavened bread of purity and truth, alleluia, alleluia.
